WILLIAM HUNTER

Introduction

This work began as an effort to find the lineage of Elizabeth Irene Hunter of Wake County, North Carolina, and was extended to find as many descendants of William Hunter of Nansemond County, Virginia as possible. The attempt was more successful for some lines of descent than for others, and for that reason they have a more prominent place in this study. I have tried to do more than recite names and dates, and that effort, too, is uneven. More has been written about some persons than about others simply because more is known. Much of this study has been taken from other sources that are themselves more or less accurate, and errors certainly exist in what I have written. I have attempted to examine the sources carefully and use information that is self-consistent and consistent with other reliable data. The reader is warned, however, to be skeptical. I also wish to request any reader who finds an error to let me know. My research will continue, and it is relatively easy to make changes in the document.

The first Hunter ancestor of the family of Reuben and Theophilus Hunter in Wake County known to be in this country was William Hunter of Nansemond County, Virginia, who came in 1685. Some parts of this genealogy are less certain than others, but the line of descent from the first William Hunter through Nicholas, Isaac, Reuben, Isaac of Swift Creek, Alsey, Isaac, Alsey Dalton, and John Pullen Hunter is well verified. There is no documentary proof that Isaac, son of Nicholas Hunter, was Isaac, father of Reuben Hunter, but it seems almost certainly true. A point of confusion is the parentage of Isaac Hunter of Crabtree in Wake County, North Carolina. Some consider him a son of Theophilus Hunter, while others consider him a brother of Theophilus, Reuben, Thomas, and Dempsey. The line of descent from William of Nansemond through John Pullen Hunter is unaffected by this uncertainty. The descendants of Riddick Hunter are given separately near the end of this genealogy. It is clear from name similarities and other factors that Riddick Hunter was closely related to the Hunter family of Gates County, North Carolina, that clearly descended from William Hunter of Nansemond, but the exact relationship has not been established. I particularly request that anyone with information about Riddick Hunter or (presumably) his son, Dr. Edward Riddick Hunter of Nansemond County, communicate with me.

Acknowledgement

I wish to thank the following people for their valuable assistance: Mary Rodwell Hunter Smith provided a genealogical chart constructed by a relative of J. Rufus Hunter. Dr. Thornton W. Mitchell sent copies of some original documents and freely gave the results of his scholarly research on some of the early Hunters. Irene Olive Kittinger and Anne Lydia Olive supplied valuable information about the Olive family, and Irene Olive Kittinger sent useful notes by Willis Briggs about the Hunters of Wake County, North Carolina. Michael Hunter and Patricia Hunter Curry supplied information about some of the Hunters who moved to Tennessee and later to Arkansas. Most of the information about the descendants of Reuben Hunter, Jr. came from a genealogy by David N. Strickland, provided by Naomi Owens McCormick. Edith Seiling sent the notes of W. T. Cross on the Hunters of Gates County, NC. My wife Elizabeth and her brother, John Pullen Hunter, Jr., were helpful, and so were Betty Ann Johnson Hunter and Suzanne Hunter Eskridge.

Note on the Hunter Family Origins

The Hunters are a sept of the Stuart clan of Bute, an island in the Firth of Forth on the west side of Scotland, near Glasgow. The original spelling was Stewart and was changed by Stewarts living in France. The spelling Stuart was adopted by Mary Queen of Scots, who continued to use it after her return from France. "The Hunter family is of royal descent from King Edward I, of England, through his second son, Edmund, Earl of Kent, whose daughter, Lady Joan Plantagenet, was the wife of Thomas, Lord Holland. Her great-great-granddaughter, Princess Jane Stuart, became the wife of George Gordon, second Earl of Huntly and Lord Chancellor. Their daughter, Lady Isabel Gordon, was married to William Hay, third Earl of Erroll. Their great-grandson, Andrew Hay, became the seventh Earl. By his wife, Lady Agnes Sinclair, daughter of the fourth Earl of Caithness, he had a son, Hon. Sir George Hay, of Killour, who married Elizabette, daughter of Sir Patrick Cheyne, of Esselmont. Their daughter, Anne, became the wife of William Moray of Abercairney, who died in 1642. Their son, Robert Moray, was knighted by Charles I. His daughter, Anne, married David Graham, of Fintry, ninth in descent from Sir William Graham of Kincardine and the Lady, Mary Stuart. Their daughter, Amelia Graham, became the wife of Alexander Hunter, of Blackness, County Forfar, in 1741.

"Burke's 'Landed Gentry' states that 'two ancient families of the name of Hunter existed in Scotland for many centuries.' These were the Hunters of Tweeddale, now extinct, and the Hunters of Hunterston, who owned the present estates as early as the time of Alexander II, King of Scotland. In 1375 William Hunter obtained a charter from King Robert II, for a part of the Barony of Amele. These lands are now known as Campbellton, and are still possessed by the family. Dr. John Hunter, discoverer of the circulation of the blood, was a member of the family of Hunterston." [Clemens].

No attempt is made here to relate William Hunter of Nansemond County, Virginia, to the Hunters of Scotland.

Note on Spelling

Names have been spelled in different ways over the generations listed, sometimes knowingly and sometimes by mistake. For example, one name has been noted as Whitmel, Whitmell, Whitmill, and Whitmeal. For convenience, a common spelling has been used for many, but not all, names in this genealogy, although a variant spelling followed by the standard one may be used in some instances. In quotes, the variant spelling may stand alone.

Numbering System

The order in which the descendants of William Hunter are listed is by entire generations; for example, all the third generation descendants are listed together. A disadvantage of such a system is that information about a person may be widely separated from information about his parents and children. In the presentation of data about the many generations represented here, no system is entirely satisfactory, and I believe that this is the best one. It is important to couple this method of presentation with a logical numbering system, and one is described below.

All known descendants of William Hunter have been assigned a number. The number of digits corresponds to the generation number. Each child has a number with one more digit than his father or mother. For example, William Hunter is #1, and his children are William, #11, Isaac, #12, etc. The first child of Isaac is #121. Longer numbers are separated by a center dot (.) in groups of three, beginning at the left. The order in which children are listed is by age in some cases and arbitrary in other cases where the ages were not known when the list was made. A distinction is not made between males and females. Spouses are not numbered; for example, Elizabeth Bryan Whitmel, wife of Robert Hunter, #14, does not have a number. If she were also a direct descendant of William Hunter, #1, she would have a number for that reason. A child whose mother and father are both descendants of William Hunter has two numbers. A double space separates families. Each family group is preceded by the parents. If a family has ten or more children the last digit in the number for the tenth child is underlined, thus, 0, and for the eleventh is 1, etc. To locate, for example, the children of Isaac Hunter, #12, who is in the second generation, move forward to the third generation, which will have a heading identifying it as the third generation. Move further forward following a normal number sequence until the bold heading Isaac Hunter 12 / Elizabeth Parker is found. Their children will be listed, together with all known information about them, under that heading.

Family Relationships

A simple way of determining family relationships for persons with the same number of digits in their number is that brothers (and sisters) have all digits the same except the last; first cousins have all digits the same up to the second from last; second cousins have all digits the same up to the third from last; etc. For more complex relationships, the following table is useful.

Relationship:	Brothers/Sisters
Number of digits:	n
Digits the same:	Leading n - 1

Different digits: Last

Example: (a) 11 12 (b) 1374 1378

Relationship: Uncle-aunt/nephew-niece

Number of digits: n for uncle, n + 1 for nephew

Digits the same: Leading n - 1 in short number

Different digits: Last in short number and next-to-last in long

Irrelevant digits: Last in long number

Example: (a) 2735 27362 (b) 2735 27365

Relationship: k th cousins, k = 1, 2, 3, etc.

Number of digits: n

Digits the same: Leading n - k - 1

Different digits: k + 1 from end of number

Irrelevant digits: Trailing k

Example: (a) 4372 4391 (b) 43724 43924 (c) 437243 439157
(first) (second) (third)

Relationship: k th cousins, once removed, k = 1, 2, 3, etc.

Number of digits: n for cousin, n + 1 for child of cousin

Digits the same: Leading n - k - 1 in short number

Different digits: k + 1 from end of short number

Irrelevant digits: Trailing k of short number, last of long number

Example: (a) 4372 43912 (b) 43724 439157 (c) 437243 4392431
(first) (second) (third)

FIRST GENERATION

1 William Hunter, b 165?, England or Scotland, d bef 1729. In 1685, Charles Rountree received 350 acres in the Upper Parish of Nansemond County, Virginia, for the transportation of 7 persons, including Willm.(William), Nicho.(Nicholas), Joane, and Rebecka (Rebecca) Hunter. Rebecca Hunter may have been the wife of Nicholas. On 21 Apr 1695, Hunter was granted 200 acres in the Upper Parish of Nansemond on the "E. side of the maine Cypruss Sw. of Bennett's Cr; on S. side of the Further Br. of Oysterlong Neck" for the importation of 4 Negro slaves. In that patent he was listed as "Weaver." On 25 Apr 1701 William Hunter received 240 acres in the Upper Parish of Nansemond Co. "on SE side of Meherring Sw.," for the transportation of 5 persons, namely William (probably his son William), his wife (probably his son's wife, Ann), daughter Alice (daughter of son William), and son Nicho. Hunter; and Mary Cohone. The patents, from [CavPio] read:

Charles Rowntree (Rountree), 350 acs. in the Up. Par. of Nanzamund, 4 Nov. 1685, p. 487. Beg. at Michael Brinckly, by the Scypresse Sw. Trans of 7 pers: Willm. Hunter, Nicho. Hunter, Joane Hunter, Rebecka Hunter, Charles Rountree, Robert Rountree, John Sayer.

William Hunter, 240 acs., Up. Par. of Nansemond Co; on SE side of Meherring Sw., 25 Apr. 1701, p. 309. Trans. of 5 pers: Wm.

Hunter, his wife, daughter Alice; & son Nicho. Hunter; & Mary Cohone.

The second patent is ambiguous. William Hunter may have sent his son Nicholas back to England in order to bring another son, William, back. Why, then, in the second patent was Nicholas listed as son, but not William? The punctuation, with a comma between "wife" and "daughter Alice," implies that Alice was the daughter of William, #11, rather than of William, #1, as assumed by Boddie. William Hunter, #11, had a daughter Allise (Alice), who married an Arnold. The patent could also be interpreted to mean that Nicholas Hunter was the son of William Hunter, #11, but Nicholas Hunter had arrived previously with William, #1, and in addition, the semicolon in the second patent implies a different relationship between Nicholas and William, #11, than that between Alice and William, #11. Alternatively, if the Wm. transported were William, #1, rather than his son William, it might be that William Hunter, #1, fulfilled his indenture to Charles Rountree, returned to England, and then paid for his family's passage back to Virginia in order to receive land. This action was frequently taken [CavPio]. If so, how did his son William, #11, get to this country? For that matter, how did sons Isaac and Robert get to Virginia? Capt. William Hunter appears on the "Quit Rent Rolls" of Nansemond County in 1704, owning 800 acres [Boddie]. A William Hunter was on the quit rent rolls for Isle of Wight County in Virginia in 1704, owning 150 acres [Wertenbaker], and it has been suggested that they were the same, but that is questionable. A patent in 1714 adjacent to William Hunter was at Gordan's Marsh at Orapeak. He was clerk of the Nansemond County court 8 Jun 1699 ["List of officers of Nansemond co, Va. Quorum (justices)" 8 June 1699 - English Duplicates of Lost Virginia Records, p 8] and a justice of the peace in Nansemond from 1702 to 1714 [Fisher]. In 1729, a resurvey showed the land owned by William Hunter to be in NC, in that part of Chowan County that later became Gates County. William Hunter bequeathed the land received in the two grants to his sons Nicholas, Robert, and Isaac. Chowan Deed Book C, pp 599 and 600 refers to land Nicholas received by will of his father William. The will is unknown now. Chowan Deed Book A, p 257, refers to Robert and Isaac as sons of William Hunter late of the Upper Parish of Nansemond Co. Since Nicholas deeded his land in 1729, William Hunter, #1, died before 1729.

SECOND GENERATION

William Hunter 1

11 William Hunter, b ?, England or Scotland, d 1732. Married Ann ..., b England or Scotland, d ca 1751. Fisher says that his wife was Ann Walton, d/o Thomas Walton [Fisher], but others say that Elisha Hunter, #121, married Ann Walton, d/o Thomas Walton [Heritage of Martin County, #819]. See #121. It seems probable that William Hunter, #11, his wife Ann, and daughter Alice came to Virginia in 1701 (see discussion under William Hunter, #1). Thomas Walton left a will in this country dated 1751 naming daughter Ann Hunter. If he had a married daughter with child in 1701, he would have been very old in 1751. For that reason, and because of the referenced Heritage of Martin County, it is probable that Ann Walton married Elisha Hunter. William Hunter left will dated 4 Jan 1732-33, proved 18 Jan 1732 in Chowan County, NC, naming sons and executors William and Ephraim. Witnesses were Spencer Cole, Isaac Hunter, Robert Hunter. Isaac and Robert Hunter were probably his brothers, but documentary proof is not available. Ann Hunter left will dated 24 May 1749 and proved in 1751, October Court term [Grimes]. Witnesses were Sarah Osborn, Wm Hunter (perhaps her son, #111), John Parker, Joseph Parker. Note: The daughter of Isaac Hunter, #131, married Jonathan Parker [Ray]. William Hunter, #11, left water mill in Nansemond County to sons William and Ephraim. Ephraim Hunter, #112, owned property in Nansemond County in 1752 and 1755 [Vestry]. He was witness to a deed of Joseph Hare of Nansemond County in 1735 and was appointed to office in 1746 [Ray]. William Hunter, #111, owned property in Nansemond County from 1752 and was a Vestryman in the Upper Parish from 1754 to 1758 when he moved from the "Colony" [Vestry]. There is reference to Hunter's Mill Swamp in Nansemond and to the Hunter plantation [Vestry].

12 Isaac Hunter, d 1752. Married Elizabeth Parker [Cross]. Roberts says Jacob Hunter married Elizabeth Parker [Roberts], but that seems unlikely unless the name was Jacob Isaac, which has been suggested for Isaac, #123. He lived in Chowan County, NC. Will 17 Apr 1752, proved in April Court 1753, identifying writer as Isaac Hunter of Chowan County. At that time, Chowan included territory that was later included in Gates. Will mentioned sons Elisha, Jacob, Jesse, Isaac, and Daniel, and daughters Elizabeth Perry, Alice Perry, Hannah Riddick, Rachel Walton, and Sarah Hunter, and the children of daughter Joan, deceased. These grandchildren were Jesse, Philip, and Mary Perry and Sarah Field. Witnesses were Moses Sumner, Samuel Sumner, and John Sumner. Author has xerographic copy. Isaac Hunter left substantial property to his children. Son Elisha was executor (Boddie erroneously says son Jacob was executor) and received plantation where Isaac lived and plantation where Elisha lived, with one negro. Isaac received land in Bertie County and one negro. Daniel received 70 pounds "current money." Jacob received the water mill, and Jesse received one negro and land purchased from Thomas Morris. His daughters received one negro each. Another legatee was Zilphea Parker, daughter of Jonathan Parker, deceased (Note Parker name with daughter, #131.6, of Isaac Hunter, and Ann, wife of William Hunter, #11) [Grimes]. Isaac Hunter bought 384 acres on Meherrin Swamp issuing out of Bennett's Creek from nephew Isaac Hunter, #131, 2 May 1739 [Chowan Deed Book C-2, p 45, Boddie]. Isaac Hunter, #12, was mentioned as brother to Robert, son of William, in Chowan Deed Book E-87 [Boddie]. In 1749, Isaac Hunter presented a claim for serving three years as a reader in the Episcopal church at Constant's Chapel, near James Costen's, a little southwest of Cross' Mill near Sunbury. [Gates County].

Note: Cross' Millpond was previously called Hunter's Millpond [NC Gazeteer], and may well have been called Hunter's Millpond in 1749. The Hunters, Costens, and Gordons were the leading families of that church [Gates County]. Isaac Hunter perhaps succeeded William Hunter who in 1745 was appointed Reader at Constant's Chapel at 20 shillings a year [Gates County]. His son, Jacob, was Reader at Constant's Chapel in 1770.

13 Nicholas Hunter b bef 1681, England, Scotland, or Ireland, d 1749, Carteret County, NC. Will 3 Jan 1749-1750, proved March Court, 1749, Carteret County. Wife Rebecca was executrix; son Ezekiel was executor [Grimes]. Married (1) Elizabeth ... Married (2) Rebecca..., d 1785. It has been pointed out that Rebecca Hunter was an adult 57 years prior to her death, so she was born before perhaps 1707. Nicholas Hunter came to Virginia in 1685 with his father William. He received a patent for 46 acres, for transporting Hugh Williams, in the Upper Parish of Nansemond County on 24 Apr 1703, adj William Hunter (probably his father, since it was on NE side of Mehering Sw., but possibly his brother) [CavPio]. He was on the Virginia quit rent rolls in 1704, owning 190 acres in Nansemond County, so he was 21 or older [Wertenbaker]. In 1700 or 1701 it is possible that he returned to England in order to bring his brother William back to Virginia (See grant of 1701 to William Hunter, #1), so he was probably an adult or nearly so at that time, but probably unmarried. On 28 Apr 1711, Nicholas Hunter and wife Elizabeth received 148 acres on behalf of themselves and Francis Benton, infant [CavPio]. It is possible that Elizabeth was the widow Benton and that their marriage was recent. This is the only document known that implies that the first wife of Nicholas Hunter was Elizabeth. Note that a Rebecca Hunter came to Virginia in 1685 with William Hunter. In 1702 a patent was described as adj Nicholas Hunter, on the west side of the South Branch of the Nansemond River, implying an age of 21 by 1702. After the resurvey, that part of Nansemond County, Virginia became part of Chowan County, NC. Mitchell and Kerr and Sherwood say that Nicholas Hunter settled in Northampton County, but Fisher says that he moved from Chowan to that part of Carteret that later became Onslow County. He was listed with Commissioners of the Peace in Onslow County 23 Nov 1731 and appointed Justie of the Peace for Onslow County in Mar 1734 [NC Col Rec, vols III, p 256, and IV, p 46]. He was Justice of the Peace in Carteret County [NC Col Rec, vol IV, p 712]. He petitioned for warrants to take up land: 200 acres in Carteret County 7 May 1742 [NC Col Rec, vol IV, p 619]. Nicholas Hunter's will was filed in Carteret County [Grimes]. The author has a xerographic copy of the will. Ray in his Index to Hathaway's Register lists Nicholas Hunter of Beaufort with wife Rebecca. Ray also references a Power of Attorney given to Thomas Roundtree by Nicholas and wife Rebecca to sell lands patented by William Hunter. Isaac Hunter was not in Nicholas Hunter's will, but a deed from Nicholas and Rebecca to Isaac dated 25 Mar 1729 identifies him as son. It also refers to deceased father William of Nicholas Hunter and to the patent he received 24 Apr 1701. Author has xerographic copy of deed. Thomas Roundtree was given Power of Attorney in the instrument to sell all the lands in Albemarle County belonging to Nicholas Hunter and Rebecca. Isaac Hunter was identified as from Albemarle County. Deed was recorded in the Chowan County Deed Book C-1, pp 600 and 601 [Mitchell].

14 Robert Hunter, d 1753, Will 3 Jun 1753, proved Aug court Bertie County, NC [Bertie Wills]. Married (1) ? Married (2) Elizabeth Bryan Whitmel d/o Lewis Bryan. Ray refers to Elizabeth Hunter Bryan, b 1690, d/o Lewis Bryan and Elizabeth Hunter. Her first husband was Col. Thomas Whitmel, d 1735, who came from Surry County, Virginia, to Bertie County, NC, in 1713, and there married Elizabeth Bryan [Ray]. Elizabeth Hunter, wife of Lewis Bryan, cannot be placed. She must have been approximately the age of William Hunter, #1. Robert Hunter sold land inherited from his father to his brother Isaac, #12 [Chowan Deed Book A, p 257]. Marriage date of Elizabeth Hunter and Lewis Bryan was 1688. They lived in Bertie County, NC [NCGenSoc]. In Robert Hunter's will he mentions his wife's daughter Elizabeth, wife of William Williams. His son Moses Hunter and his stepson Thomas Whitmel were executors. See #143 for deed to daughter Mary Hunter Gordon and husband John Gordon with mention of brother Isaac and father William. There was a deed in Bertie County Nov 1743 giving property to Winifred Whitmel and Mary Whitmel when they came of age. Signers were Robert and Elizabeth Hunter, Thomas Whitmel, Thomas and Elizabeth Blount, John and Martha Hill, He (sic) Hunter, Sarah Hunter; witness Moses Hunter [Bertie]. Robert Hunter was a Vestryman of St. Paul's Church in Edenton 1738-40. He later moved to Bertie County [Boddie]. In his will, he appeared to leave much of his estate to his son Moses.

15 Sarah Hunter, b 1684, d 1769. Married William Battle, b 1682 on the Pasquotank River in North Carolina, d 1749. He was the son of John Battle, b Yorkshire, England, and Elizabeth After the death of John Battle ca 1690, William Battle returned with guardians to his former home on the Nansemond River in Virginia. John Battle's only other child was a son, Alsey, who died young. The William Battle family included Kemp Plummer Battle, a lawyer and educator of Chapel Hill, who was an important figure in the reopening of the University of North Carolina after the Civil War, and its President, and Kemp P. Battle II, b 1859, d 1922, a prominent physician of Raleigh, NC. The Battle genealogy has been covered thoroughly by Dr. Herbert Bemerton Battle [Battle], and will not be covered here at this time. Only the children, no later descendants, of William Battle and Sarah Hunter Battle are listed here.

THIRD GENERATION

William Hunter 11 / Ann ...

111 William Hunter, d aft 1758. Married Anne ... ? William Hunter was a property owner and vestryman in the Upper Parish of Nansemond County, Virginia. He was elected 1 Oct 1754 "in the room of Col Baker deceased," and remained a vestryman until 1758 when he moved from the "Colony" [Vestry]. Note that Dr. Edward Riddick Hunter, who may have been a grandson of William Hunter or his brother Ephraim, married Sarah (Sally) Baker, and Dr. Benjamin B. Hunter and Dr. William Hunter both married Bakers [Boddie, "Baker of Nansemond"]. In 1750, he was a member of the House of Burgesses from Nansemond County. A fellow member was Lemuel Riddick. At least one family of Hunters lived in Nansemond County after the re-survey that showed some of the Hunters to be living in Gates County, NC. A Riddick Hunter was an adult in the Upper Parish of Nansemond in 1790 and 1793 [Vestry] and paid land taxes in Nansemond in 1787/1788. Lemuel Riddick Hunter married Julia Parker in Nansemond County 1 Jan 1829. Lemuel R. Hunter was named as a nephew of Hardy Cross in will 1856 in Nansemond County. Dr. Edward Riddick Hunter, b 4 Nov 1786, d 26 Nov 1861, lived in Nansemond County in 1820, 1830, 1840, 1850, and 1860.

There is a deed 24 Feb 1755 between William Hunter and his wife Anne of Northampton and John Duke of Northampton. There are several deeds in Northampton between 1745 and 1758 involving William Hunter [Northampton Deeds]. One, dated 9 Oct 1745, with Thomas Foxhall of Northampton, refers to William Hunter of Nansemond. Another, in 1753, between Ethelred Ruffin of Northampton and John Peele of Nansemond, involved land joining William Hunter. It appears that William Hunter had property in both Northampton and Nansemond. When he left Nansemond in 1758, it may be that he moved to Northampton. On the other hand, since he left Nansemond and does not appear in Northampton deeds after 1758, he may have moved elsewhere. The will of James Hilliard dated 12 Feb 1764 in Northampton County refers to William Hunter's land on the Wateree River (Richland County) in SC. That might have been this William Hunter.

112 Ephraim Hunter, d aft 1755. Ephraim Hunter owned property in the Upper Parish of Nansemond County, Virginia, in 1752 and 1755 [Vestry]. See #111. He was executor of his father's will in 1732. Ephraim Hunter was witness to the will of John Wynns 10 Feb 1750 in Bertie County [Bertie Wills]. Ephraim Hunter was a taxpayer in Bertie County in 1757 [NC Taxpayers]. Ephraim Hunter of Chowan bought land in Bertie County in 1741 and again in 1743 [Bertie]. A deed in November court 1750, Isaac Hunter Senior to Elisha Hunter was for 140 acres on the south side of the Chowan River known as Pitch Landing, adj Ephraim Hunter and Isaac Hunter. Witnesses were Jacob Hunter and Jesse Hunter.

113 Judith Hunter. Married ... Bland.

114 Alice Hunter. Married Edward Arnold. See will of Ann Walton Hunter in 1749. Boddie says that Alice Hunter was the daughter of William Hunter, #1, but indicates that the only record of Alice Hunter as daughter of William, #1, is from the patent of 1701. Boddie erroneously recorded that patent as transportation for "himself," but it actually read "Wm" [CavPio]. If it meant William, #11, as seems more probable, then William Hunter, #1, did not have a daughter Alice.

115 Mary Hunter. A Mary Hunter married 10 Mar 1775 in Chowan County Benjamin Sanders.

116 Ann Hunter. Married ... Winbourn.

117 Hester Hunter. Married ... Knight.

Isaac Hunter 12 / Elizabeth Parker

121 Elisha Hunter, b ca 1700, d 1786. Married Ann Walton, d aft 1786, d/o Thomas Walton, d 1751 in Chowan County [Heritage of Martin Co., #819]. Elisha Hunter left a will in Gates County, NC dated 7 May 1786 listing wife Ann, daughter Sele (Celia), son Thomas, and granddaughter Ann Lay, daughter of Amos Freeman. Executors were Thomas Hunter and Joseph Riddick. Witnesses were John Gordon and Sarah Hunter [Gates Wills, Vol I]. Estate listed 12 Aug 1786 with 9 Negroes, "1 Book the Concord to the holy Scriptures, a parsel of books." Thomas Walton, d by 1759 [Ray], left will in Chowan County dated 1751 naming Ann Hunter [Ray]. Sarah Hunter, witness, may have been Sarah Pugh Hill, wife of Jacob Hunter and sister-in-law of Elisha Hunter. An Elisha Hunter was a private in Captain John Sumner's Company of the Chowan County Militia 25 Nov 1754, but that could not be Elisha, 121. Hardy and Jesse Hunter were privates in the same company. Fisher contradicts marriage to Ann Walton. He says William Hunter, #11, married Ann Walton, d 1741, d/o Thomas Walton [Fisher], but that seems unlikely (See #11). Date of 1741 may be an error, as Grimes lists will of Ann Hunter Oct Court 1751 in Chowan County [Grimes]. William Hunter, #11, left will in 1732 naming wife Ann [Grimes]. Elisha Hunter appeared in the NC census of 1784-1787 with household 2 white males under 21 or over 60, 2 white females, and 13 blacks. In 1757 Elisha Hunter was appointed to repair and tar the three Episcopal chapels in or near Gates County, Constant's, Farlee's, and Knotty Pine [Gates County]. In 1750 he bought 140 acres from Isaac Hunter Sen on the south side of the Chowan River, adjacent to Ephraim Hunter and Isaac Hunter. Witnesses were Jacob Hunter and Jesse Hunter. [Colonial Bertie County Deed Books A-H 1720-1757].

122 Jesse Hunter, b ca 1734, d ca Sep 1786 [DAR]. Married 20 Jun 1758 Ann Alston, b 29 Mar 1738 [Granville Mar]. He left a will in Wake County, NC, but did not die there [Olds]. He died in Wilkes County, GA [Hinton]. In the will he named wife Ann and children Elisha and Ruth [Olds]. His brother Isaac married Martha Alston, sister of Ann Alston. A Jesse Hunter was a taxpayer in Bertie County in 1757, the same or another in Chowan in 1753, and the same or another in Bute in 1771 [NC Taxpayers]. A Jesse Hunter was a private in Captain James Farlee's Company of the Chowan County, NC, Militia 25 Nov 1754, and a Jesse Hunter was a private in Captain John Sumner's Company of Chowan County on the same date. Hardy and Elisha Hunter were also privates in Sumner's Company on that date. Jesse Hunter was a witness to a deed from Isaac Hunter Sen to Elisha Hunter for land on the south side of the Chowan River at Pitch Landing in 1750. Jacob Hunter was also a witness. [Colonial Bertie County Deed Books A-H 1720-1757]. If he was born in 1734, he was only 16 at the time. Ages are a problem here. If Elisha was born ca 1700, the age difference between two brothers is great.

123 Isaac Hunter, d 1811. Lived at one time in Gates County, NC. Mitchell says he moved to Granville County where he married 18 Apr 1760 Martha Alston, d/o Solomon Alston [Granville Mar]. Moved to Warren County and died about 1811 [Mitchell]. Marriage bond at Oxford, Granville County, NC 18 Apr 1760. Security Joseph Johnson [Bentley]. Note marriage of brother Jesse to Ann Alston, sister of Martha Alston [Hinton]. Appeared in state census of NC, 1784-1787 in Warren County. The household is listed with two white males 21-60, 2 white males under 21 or over 60, 4 white females, and 28 blacks. Appeared in Warren County census of 1790 with 2 males over 16, 2 males under 16, 4 females, and 33 blacks.

124 Daniel Hunter. Appeared in state census of NC, 1784-1787 in Granville County as one white male 21-60. He was a taxpayer in Granville in 1784 [NC Taxpayers]. Did not marry [Roberts].

125 Col. Jacob Hunter, b 1737, d 8 Jun 1784 [DAR]. Married Sarah Pugh Hill, d 19 Nov 1793, d/o Henry Hill [Cross]. Will in Gates County, NC 5 Feb 1780 listing wife Sarah and children Isaac, Leah, Riddick, and Elizabeth. Proved Nov 1784 [Gates Wills, Vol I]. Executors were son Isaac and son-in-law Seth Riddick. Estate was listed Feb 1785 with 500 acres, 11 Negroes, 1 riding chair, and a parcel of tanned leather. Irene Olive Kittinger in a letter refers to a deed of gift from Isaac, #12, to Jacob in 1747 that mentions Jacob's mother Elizabeth. Jacob Hunter was a major during the Revolution [DAR]. From the Colonial Records of North Carolina, Vol X, at a meeting of the Provincial Congress 9 Sep 1775, Jacob Hunter was appointed second major of the Chowan militia [Pasquotank]. Jacob Hunter was a delegate from Chowan to the Provincial Congress at Halifax 12 Nov 1776 met to form a constitution [Wheeler]. He was appointed by the April Congress in Edenton District to establish the manufacture of arms and to secure muskets and bayonets for the army [Colonial Records, Vol 10, p 539 NC]. In 1755, according to Harrell, Jacob Hunter was at Constant's Chapel, an Episcopal chapel a little southwest of Cross's Mill near Sunbury, and in 1770 he was Reader at Constant's Chapel [Gates County]. Note: Cross's Mill was once known as Hunter's Mill [NC Gazeteer] and may have been Hunter's Mill in 1755.

"Like his father he was for a number of years a member of the Vestry of St. Paul's Church in Edenton and Lay Reader at Constance [sic] (Costen) Chapel. Prior to the Revolution when the Colonies began to discuss freedom from England, Jacob Hunter and the members of the Constance [sic] Chapel, except the Gordon family, severed relationship with the English Church, and everything pertaining to England, and became just as ardent members of the new Methodist Church." [Cross].

Jacob Hunter was a witness to a deed in 1750 Isaac Hunter Sen to Elisha Hunter for 140 acres on the south side of the Chowan River at Pitch Landing. Jesse Hunter was also a witness. [Colonial Bertie County Deed Books A-H 1720-1757]. If he was born in 1737, he was only 13 at the time. Ages are a problem here. If Elisha was born ca 1700, the age difference between two brothers is great.

126 Alice Hunter. Married Joseph Perry, brother of Jacob, John, and Phillip Perry ["Perry of Isle of Wight" in BoddieSVF]. Hathaway gives this as Alee Perry, and Grimes as Alce Hunter.

127 Hannah Hunter. Married General Joseph Riddick, for thirty two years a member of the State Senate and "one of the most prominent men who has ever lived in the County." He was a general in the Militia, not in the Revolution [Cross].

128 Elizabeth Hunter. Married John Perry (speculation), brother of Jacob, Joseph, and Phillip Perry [BoddieSVF]. John Perry of Edgecombe left will dated 27 Jan 1752 naming wife Elizabeth and sons John and William [Boddie, "Perry of NC"]. There is some contrary evidence. John Perry and wife Sarah of Chowan Precinct bought 13 Jun 1737 for 55 pounds 640 acres in Rich Square from Isaac Hunter of Chowan Precinct [Bertie].

129 Rachel Hunter, Married ... Walton.

120 Sarah Hunter. Married 1754 William Riddick [Cross].

121 Joan Hunter, d bef 1751. Married Phillip Perry, d 1751, brother of Jacob, John, and Joseph Perry. Philip Perry left a will in Perquimans County dated 5 Jul 1751, probated Oct 1751, naming children Rachel, Jude, and Miriam in addition to the four, Jesse, Phillip, and Mary Perry, and Sarah Field, named in Isaac Hunter's will. It is possible that Rachel, Jude, and Miriam Perry were not daughters of Joan Hunter. Moses Field was a witness to Phillip Perry's will, and speculatively husband to Sarah Perry, daughter of Joan Hunter Perry [BoddieSVF]. Phillip Perry did not mention his wife in his will of 1751, and Isaac Hunter in his will of 1752 referred to daughter Joan deceased.

Nicholas Hunter 13 / Rebecca ...

131 Isaac Hunter. Lived in Northampton County, NC. Mitchell says date of death unknown, but suggested 1741 as a possibility; will missing [Mitchell]. Isaac Hunter was a Justice of the Peace in 1741 (See will of John Cotton proved before Isaac Hunter [Grimes]). Author has xerographic copy of deed dated 25 Mar 1729 between Nicholas Hunter and wife Rebecca on the one part, and Isaac Hunter, son of Nicholas Hunter, of Albemarle County, with reference to Wm

Hunter, deceased father of Nicholas Hunter. Involved the 240 acres received by William Hunter 24 Apr 1701. Fisher does not list Isaac as a son of Nicholas Hunter, but Ray does [Ray] and so does T. W. Mitchell. Northampton Deed Book 3, pp. 59 and 129, refers to land inherited by Theophilus Hunter, Reuben Hunter, and Dempsey Hunter from their father Isaac. Northampton Deed Book 3, p. 130 identifies Thomas Hunter as brother of Dempsey Hunter [Mitchell]. A deed Reuben Hunter to David Rice in May 1753 refers to father Isaac, deceased [Northampton Deeds].

132 Stephen Hunter, d 1808 [Curry]. Owned land in Onslow County, NC, but later may have moved to Carteret [Fisher]. His son, Stephen Jr., died in 1796, before his father. His nephew, Lebbeus Hunter, Jr., was executor of his will, of which the text has been lost. Mary Jones contested the will unsuccessfully. Fisher suggests that Mary Jones was the daughter of Stephen Hunter, but he also lists Mary Jones as daughter of Lebbeus Hunter, so it is improbable that Stephen Hunter also had a daughter Mary Jones. Lebbeus Hunter presented to the court a letter from Stephen Hunter asking that Lebbeus Hunter be administrator of the estate of his son, Stephen, Jr., indicating that Stephen Hunter considered himself less capable of business matters than his brother Lebbeus.

133 Ezekiel Hunter, d 1780. Married ... Houston, d/o Moses Houston. He outlived his wife and she was not mentioned in his will. Will in Carteret County, NC, proved 18 Dec 1780, naming children Cassy, Elizabeth, Ruth, Jennie, and Jethro. Fisher says Jamima instead of Jennie and lists the children as Jamima Dudley, Ruth Dudley, Elizabeth Bell, Cassandra Hunter, and Jethrow Hunter [Fisher]. Executors Thomas Dudley, Abraham Dudley, David Bell, and George Mitchell [Olds]. In 1747 Ezekiel Hunter's parents gave him 200 acres on the west side of White Oak River. He acquired 200 acres from John Starkey in 1762. In 1765 he acquired 120 acres in Carteret from John Roberts. He sold 400 acres in Carteret on White Oak River to John Hatch in 1766, 171 acres in 1770 to Job Calloway, and 40 acres to George Hearn in 1772. Ezekiel Hunter was appointed a Commissioner of the Peace in 1758. Fisher identifies him as the second oldest son [Fisher].

134 Lebbeus Hunter, b ca 1726-1736, d 1806. Will 17 Sep 1806, proved Nov 1806. Probably between 70 and 80 years old at death [Fisher]. Lebbeus Hunter appears often on court records in Carteret County. In 1780, he was appointed administrator of the will of Silas Weeks. In 1764 and 1767 he was on the grand jury. He sold two acres to Campbell Miller in 1767. In 1768, he was made a constable. He acquired 15 acres from Abraham Dudley and Thomas Dudley in 1788 and 200 acres from Stephen Hunter on the west side of Gales Branch in 1795. He brought suit in Aug 1797 against Abraham Dudley and wife and Thomas Dudley and wife to determine possession of land that Lebbeus Hunter held for the estate of Stephen Hunter (evidently Stephen, Jr.), deceased. Evidently the land was held by descent from Nicholas Hunter [Fisher]. He received a deed Nov 1797 from William Thompson, Sheriff, perhaps related to the court suit against Abraham and Thomas Dudley. In 1798, he deeded 200 acres to Isaac Middleton and deeded other property to his son, Lebbeus, Jr. Lebbeus Hunter was an Ensign in Captain Starkey's Company of the Carteret County, NC, Militia, date unknown [Colonial]. He appeared in the Carteret County census of 1790, which showed 2 males over 16, 1 male under 16, 3 females, and 7 slaves.

135 William Hunter. d 1749. Married Sarah... . [Ray]. Will 21 Mar 1749, proved April Court 1750 in Chowan County. Wife and executrix Sarah. Executor John Hunter, son [Grimes]. Witnessed by John Norfleet. Received land from father Nicholas Hunter in 1729 [Mitchell]. Sarah Hunter, d/o a William Hunter, married 1754 William Riddick, perhaps in Chowan County [Ray]. William Hunter was named Reader in the Episcopal Constant's Chapel a little southwest of Cross's Mill near Sunbury in 1745 at 20 shillings a year [Gates County]. Note that Cross's Mill was first Hunter's Mill, then Norfleet's Mill, and later Cross's Mill. That was probably this William Hunter, although it may have been #111.

136 Joab Hunter.

137 Esther Hunter.

138 Zillah (L?) Hunter.

139 Rachel Hunter.

130 Kisiah Hunter. Married ... Mitchell.

131 Elizabeth Hunter. Married Stephen Weeks. In Mar 1783 she was appointed administratrix of her deceased husband's estate by the Carteret County court. Lebbeus Hunter was surety for her.

132 Sarah Hunter. A Sarah Osborn was witness to the will of William Hunter, #11, Sarah Hunter's uncle, in 1732. See also #128 and #120.

133 Ruth Hunter.

Robert Hunter 14 /

141 Henry Hunter. Married Sarah Whitmel, b 1719 [BoddieSVF, "Whitmel of Bertie"], d/o Thomas Whitmel and Elizabeth Whitmel, 2nd wife of Robert Hunter. According to Ray, he lived in Bertie County, NC [Ray]. He does not appear in the 1790 census in Bertie. He was a deputy sheriff in Bertie in 1746 and foreman of the grand Jury in Bertie in 1749. A Henry Hunter was a taxpayer in Bertie County in 1757 and 1769 [NC Taxpayers], and a Sarah Hunter was a taxpayer in Bertie in 1769. In 1769, Henry Hunter was appointed administrator of estate of Moses Hunter, to succeed Patty Hoskins Hunter ["Hunter" in Boddie]. See #147. On 11 Aug 1742, Henry Hunter sold land to Robert Hunter; witnesses John and Martha Hill, Elizabeth

Whitmél [Bertie]. On 14 Apr 1743 an H. Hunter and Thomas Whitmél were witnesses to a deed John Gray to Samuel Johnston in Northampton County. On 12 Oct 1758 William Hunter and Henry Hunter were witnesses to a deed William Hunter to Moses Riddick in Northampton County. It is possible that he moved to Bertie from Northampton and retained property in Northampton. This is supported by a Henry Hunter who was a private in Captain Samuel Cotton's Militia Company in Northampton at some date after 1748. Henry and Sarah Hunter were witnesses to the will of Henry L. Bate, brother-in-law of Thomas Whitmél, 12 May 1740 in Bertie County. A Henry Hunter appeared in the NC census of 1784-1787 in Halifax County. Another was in Martin County very close to a Thomas Hunter who was discussed under #121.2. Henry Hunter was named as son in will of Robert Hunter 3 Jun 1753 [Gammon].

142 Sarah Hunter. Married bef 1753 ... Docton. Named as daughter Sarah Docton in will of Robert Hunter 3 Jun 1753 [Gammon].

143 Mary Hunter. Married bef 1745 John Gordon, b ca 1720, d 1793. On 4 Feb 1745, Robert Hunter of Bertie conveyed to his son-in-law John Gordon and his daughter Mary Gordon 170 acres on the east side of Meherrin Swamp that issued from Bennett's Creek, being part of 200 acres granted to William Hunter, father of Robert Hunter, 21 Apr 1695, also part of another patent of 400 acres granted to Robert Hunter and his brother Isaac Hunter in NC 30 Aug 1714. Named as daughter Mary Gordon in will of Robert Hunter 3 Jun 1753 [Gammon].

144 Judith Hunter. Married bef 1753 ... Perry ["Hunter" in Boddie]. Named as daughter Judith Perry in will of Robert Hunter 3 Jun 1753 [Gammon].

145 Susannah Hunter. Married bef 1753 ... Benton. Note the name Benton in a grant received by Nicholas Hunter, #13, in 1711. The estate of Henry Hunter Benton was exhibited 17 Feb 1790 in Gates court [Gates Wills, vol III]. Edward R. Hunter was witness to the will of David Benton 1840 in Gates County. The estate of Henry Hunter Benton was exhibited 17 Feb 1790 in Gates court. Named as daughter Susannah Benton in will of Robert Hunter 3 Jun 1753, proved Aug 1753 [Gammon].

Robert Hunter 14 / Elizabeth Bryan Whitmél

147 Moses Hunter, d ca 1757. Married Patty Hoskins [Ray], d bef 1762. A record of his estate from 1757 to 1762 was filed in Bertie County by Thomas Hoskins and Patty Hoskins "his wife." A record of his estate in 1768 mentions Henry Hunter [Ray]. A Patty Hunter was a taxpayer in Bertie County in 1757 [NC Taxpayers]. Thomas Hoskins was guardian for Catherine Hunter, orphan of Moses Hunter, from 1762 to 1769 and Thomas Wiggins was guardian from 1771 to 1776 [Bertie Estates], so it appears that Moses Hunter died before 1757 and Patty Hoskins died before 1762 and when their daughter was very young. Moses Hunter was named as son in will of Robert Hunter 3 Jun 1753, proved Aug 1753 [Gammon].

Sarah Hunter 15 / William Battle

151 William Battle II, b Nansemond County, Virginia. Married ... Brown, d/o Dr. John Brown.

152 John Battle, b 30 Apr 1709 Nansemond County, lived Hertford County, NC. Married 1726 Sarah Brown.

153 Sarah Battle.

154 Mary Battle.

155 Elisha Battle, b 9 Jan 1723 Nansemond County, d 6 Mar 1799 Edgecombe County, NC. Founder of the Battle family of NC ["Hunter of Nansemond" in Boddie]. Married 1742 in Nansemond County Elizabeth Sumner, d 19 Jan 1794 Edgecombe County, d/o John Sumner who was the uncle of Brig. Gen. Jethro Sumner of the Continental Army and first President of the Society of the Cincinnati. Elisha Battle helped lay out the town of Tarboro, served in the Revolution, was a member of the General Assembly for twenty years, and member of the Provincial Congress at Halifax. He had eight children.

FOURTH GENERATION

William Hunter 111 /

111.1 Sarah Hunter. Married William Riddick [Ray].

Elisha Hunter 121 / Ann Walton

121.1 Sarah Hunter, d bef 1786. Married Amos Freeman. Amos and Sarah Freeman of Chowan County sold land in Hertford County, NC 15 Nov 1764 to Elisha Hunter, #121. Thomas Hunter, #121.2, and Elizabeth Hunter were witnesses [Gates Deeds, #112].

121.2 Col. Thomas Hunter, b ca 1720, d Jan 1798. Married (1) Mary Whitmel [DAR]. Married (2) Sarah Norfleet, born Gordon. The marriage contract between Thomas Hunter and Sarah Norfleet was exhibited in court Feb 1798 and proved by oath of John Cowper and Thomas W. Ballard, witnesses, May 1798 [Gates Court, Vol I]. A Sarah Norfleet was listed in the 1790 census of Nansemond County with six whites and 8 blacks in the household. Thomas Hunter was one of the executors of the will of Elisha Hunter, #121, in 1786. Thomas Hunter left a will in Gates County dated 19 Sep 1797, proved Feb 1798 [Gates Wills, Vol I]. Children named in will were Elisha, Isaac, Ann, and Christian (daughter). His wife was not named and presumably was dead. Executors were Elisha Hunter, Isaac Hunter, James Gregory, and Col. Joseph Riddick. Elisha received property in Chowan County. Confirming this is a reference in 1798 or 1799, in Gates County Deeds to Joseph Riddick and Elisha Hunter as executors of the will of Thomas Hunter. Thomas Hunter appears frequently in Gates County court records from 1779 to 1789. On 21 Aug 1794, there was a deed from John Baker to "Thomas Hunter Esqr., Chairman of the County Court of Pleas and Quarter Session for Gates Co., and his successors in office." He was co-executor of the will of Henry Hill, Jacob Hunter's father-in-law, probated Feb 1781 in Gates County. There was a deed 2 Jan 1798 from Thomas Hunter and Thomas Hofler to Moore Carter. A deed of 13 Jun 1798 from Samuel Smith to Joseph Riddick refers to Thomas Hunter, deceased [Gates Deeds]. A deed of 1 May 1800 refers to Col. Thomas Hunter as father to Elisha Hunter [Gates Deeds]. The DAR says that Thomas Hunter was a major, and it may be that the deed referred to was inaccurate. Thomas Hunter was a taxpayer in Gates in 1786 [NC Taxpayers]. In the NC census of 1784-1787 (Gates in 1786), his household in Gates was 3 white males 21-60, 3 white males under 21 or over 60, 5 white females, and 22 blacks. In "Gates County to 1860," Isaac S. Harrell says that in the census of 1790, Thomas Hunter, near Sunbury, owned 33 slaves. In Nov 1797, Thomas Hunter and Sarah Norfleet signed a marriage contract involving the disposal of property after death [Gates Deeds]. Sarah Norfleet was Sarah Gordon, #143.3, who married Thomas Hunter after her first husband, James Norfleet, died in Gates County in 1796 [BoddiesVF, "Gordon Family of Gates"]. On 5 Mar 1799, Sarah Hunter sold to James Gordon a horse, cattle, and furniture. Sarah Gordon had four children by her first husband. Thomas Hunter must have died not long after the marriage since his will was probated in Feb 1798. On 5 Mar 1799, Sarah Hunter sold to James Gordon in Gates County cattle and furniture, and the inference is that she moved from her own home to the home of a relative. Sarah Norfleet was a witness [Gates Deeds]. Another Thomas Hunter married 13 Jun 1771 Mary Walton (widow) in Chowan County [NC/SC Marriage]. Probably this same Thomas Hunter was a member from Chowan of Provincial Congresses at Newbern 25 Aug 1774 and Halifax 4 Apr 1776 [Wheeler].

121.3 Celia Hunter. Unmarried but apparently an adult in 1786. Mentioned in will of Elisha Hunter.

Jesse Hunter 122 / Ann Alston

122.1 Elisha Hunter. Named in father's will [Wynne].

122.2 Ruth Hunter, b 24 Sep 1764, d 15 May 1826. Married 17 Jun 1784 William Green, Jr., b 3 Aug 1764, d 13 Dec 1819 [Hinton]. Ruth Hunter named in father's will [Wynne, Olds].

122.3 Phillip Alston Hunter [Hinton]. Wynne names a Philip Hunter as appearing in his father's will. He does not name an Alston Hunter [Wynne]. Hinton names both a Phillip and an Alston Hunter [Hinton]. Here they are tentatively combined.

122.4 Nathaniel Hunter. Named in father's will [Wynne]. Not named in [Olds]. Not named in [Hinton] which seems the more authoritative source. Ruth Hunter Green had a son Nathaniel, and perhaps Wynne got the name from that.

Isaac Hunter 123 / Martha Alston

123.1 Solomon Hunter. Probably born Granville or Warren County, NC.

123.2 James Alston Hunter, b bef 1769. James Hunter was in the 1790 census of Warren County, NC, with 1 male over 16, 1 male under 16, and 1 female. Married Emma Walker [Roberts].

123.3 Jacob Hunter. Probably born in Granville or Warren County, NC. Married Patience Williamson. Jacob Hunter was in Warren County, North Carolina, in 1822 and was named in a court document (guardian appointment). Soon after that he moved to near Memphis, Tennessee and died near Memphis 1823-1825. Patience Williamson and her family went to Maury County, Tennessee by 1826 and she died Maury County 7 Aug 1830 [Roberts].

123.4 Ann Alston Hunter. Probably born Granville or Warren Counties. Married Isham Kittrell [Roberts].

123.5 Patsy Hinton Hunter. Probably born Granville or Warren Counties. Married Green Williamson [Roberts]. Moved to Maury County, Tennessee, with her sister Sackey Clark Hunter.

123.6 Sarah (Sally) Alston Hunter. Probably born Granville or Warren Counties. Married 24 Dec 1805 in Warren County Lyddal Bacon Estes (Estis). Estes was from Northampton County, and Isaac Hunter, father of Sarah Alston Hunter, was identified as being (either at the time or previously) from Northampton [Neal]. Sackey Clark Hunter, almost certainly a sister or half sister, said her father was Isaac [Roberts]. Neal confirms that Sarah Alston Hunter was the daughter of Isaac Hunter, but Hinton said Sally Alston Hunter (and sisters Patsy, Ann, and Sackey were daughters of Jacob Hunter and Patience Williamson). Roberts seems the more reliable source, and is confirmed by Neal. In addition, the name Alston is likely her mother's name. Moved to Maury County, Tennessee, with her sister Sackey Clark Hunter.

123.7 Sackey Clark Hunter. Probably born Granville or Warren Counties. Married (1) Osborne P. Nicholson. Married (2) Garrett L. Voochries [Roberts]. Roberts quotes an account by "Sackey Clark Hunter Nicholson Voochries" saying that she and her sisters Sarah and Patsy "came to Maury County (Tennessee) together." She gave no dates. She named Theophilus Hunter her great grandfather, Jacob her grandfather, and Isaac her father. This is not in agreement with Hinton, who gives Isaac as her grandfather and Jacob as her father.

Roberts, who quotes Sackey Clark Hunter, says that the full name of Isaac Hunter, who married Martha Alston, was Jacob Isaac, which might partly explain the confusion. It might well be that Sackey Clark Hunter was mistaken about her great grandfather. The quotes are from an account written late in her life.

Ref [Hinton, Roberts].

Jacob Hunter 125 / Sarah Pugh Hill

125.1 Isaac Hunter, b 29 Aug 1759, d 22 Oct 1816 [Gates Bible, Bible of Dr. Henry Holmes Hunter]. Norfleet gives the date as Jan 1816 [Nansemond Bible, Isaac Hunter's Bible], but the Oct date is almost certainly correct, since Isaac Hunter's will was dated 15 Oct 1816 [Gates Wills]. Neal refers to the Isaac Hunter who died 22 Oct as a Methodist minister in Gates County at the time of his death, and at the time of death of Jacob Hunter, his son, in 1810 [Neal], but no other reference to him as a minister has been found, and Neal is probably in error. He was involved in the founding of the Methodist Church in North Carolina (see below). Isaac, #125.1, was named as son of Jacob Hunter in Jacob's will of 1780 and was executor [Gates Wills]. He was a private in the Revolution and married Mary Gordon [DAR]. Married (1) 8 Jun 1785 Sophia Riddick of Nansemond County, Virginia, b 3 Nov 1768, d 28 Jan 1791. Married (2) 22 Dec 1796 Mary Gordon, #143.14, b 12 Jan 1772, d 14 Dec 1802, d/o Jacob Gordon and Barsheba (Bathsheba, Barsha) Granberry. Married (3) 7 Oct 1804 Mary Gordon #143.21, b 13 Apr 1783, d 1 Aug 1838, d/o Benjamin and Tamar Copeland Gordon and first cousin of his second wife. Isaac Hunter left a will in Gates County, NC, dated 15 Oct 1816, naming wife Mary (3rd wife Mary Gordon), and children Isaac Riddick, Jacob Benjamin, Sophia, Sarah, John Omugg (Omega), Armesia, and Edward R. Hunter. Isaac Riddick was named executor. The estate of Capt. Isaac Hunter was presented 6 Nov 1816, I. R. Hunter, executor. He left 22 slaves. In May 1819 Mary Hunter was appointed guardian to Benjamin Hunter and Sarah Hunter, orphans of Isaac Hunter, deceased [Gates Court]. Mary Hunter (3rd wife) left will in Gates County, NC, dated 23 Jul 1838, proved Aug 1838, naming Jacob Benjamin and Sarah E. A. Riddick. Willis F. Riddick (husband to Sarah E. A. Hunter) was named executor. A request was made of Willis Riddick that he "take good care of my son Jacob Benjamin Hunter." This implies that Jacob Benjamin Hunter was incapable or ill. He died 10 Oct 1839. [See also the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, Vol. 16, p 201]. Mary Hunter was in the 1830 Gates County census with one male, b 1800-1810, and 16 slaves. The will of Isaac Hunter showed that he was wealthy. He left a saw and grist mill to Isaac Riddick Hunter, tracts of land of amounts not specified to sons, a thousand acres of Juniper swamp land to John Omega Hunter, with three horses and $120. Edward Riddick Hunter received only a horse and probably had received his part of Isaac's estate earlier. Isaac Hunter appeared in the NC census of 1784-1787 in Gates County, adjacent to Elisha Hunter, with household 1 white male 21-60, 1 white female, and 12 blacks.

Isaac Hunter was born at the Jacob Hunter home near Sunbury, Hunter's Mill Township, Gates County, NC. "He was a large landowner, owning the Jacob Hunter home place, the Mill and Mill Pond and all the land lying on the right hand side of the road going from the Mill towards Suffolk, up to what is now the Kellog farm. He farmed and operated the Mill all his life. As a young man of about twenty-one, he was appointed the first Public Register of the County (now called Register of Deeds), he moved to Gatesville and purchased the Tavern, later known as the United States Hotel; he also bought the corner store which he operated. Part of this building is still standing. After several years he returned to his home near Sunbury, which was located on or near, what is now called the 'Sugar Run Road,' a short distance South East of the present village of Sunbury." [Cross]. The road on which he lived was the main road from Edenton to Suffolk. In 1804 the main road was changed to run through what is now Sunbury, and Isaac Hunter built a new house "where the roads cross." In Hunter's Mill Township, Gates County at the present time is a farm known as the Hunter-Norfleet-Cross Farm. The house was built in 1870 and remodeled between 1902 and 1915. The farm includes a large two-story gable-front general store built in the late 1800s and a "magnificent gambrel-roof barn." Photographs appear in [Butchko]. According to Butchko, the property was acquired by Seth R. Norfleet and his wife, Martha Eliza Rawls, in the 1850s. their daughter married John Franklin Cross, and Seth Norfleet left the farm to her in his will of 1870. It remains in the Cross family [Butchko].

As a young man Isaac Hunter was an ardent member of the Established Church, but like his father, Jacob, left that Church when freedom from England was sought. He became a leader in the Methodist Church. gave the land on which Philadelphia Methodist Church was built, and was one of those instrumental in establishing this Church. According to family tradition Isaac Hunter gave the new church in Sunbury its name. [Cross]. Bishop Francis Asbury, "the father of Methodism in Gates County as well as in America" visited Isaac Hunter 11 Mar 1799 and preached either at Isaac Hunter's home or at Constant's Chapel. In his journal, Asbury mentions again being at Isaac Hunter's 18 Mar 1801 [Gates County]. Constant's Chapel, originally a Church of England chapel, was used by Methodists. Isaac Hunter was identified as a Methodist minister at the death of his son Jacob and again when he died [Neal], but that was apparently in error.

There are references in the deed books of Gates County that indicate that Isaac, #125.1, had official standing, and they confirm Cross's statement that he was Public Register of the County. The first is a reference to his date of birth as 29 Aug 1769, which appears either an error in his writing or an error in transcribing, since other sources give his birth as 29 Aug 1759. The year 1769 is subtracted from 1796 to give his age as 27 [Gates Deeds, Vol A, 1776-1783]. Another statement in the deed book, dated 17 Jan 1784, is "Isaac Hunter, His Register Book." On 17 Oct and 29 Oct 1781 are statements about Cornwallis. The 29 Oct statement reads "Oct. the 29th. 1781 Genl. Corn Wallis was taken with his whole army (Sunday Morning) and made prisoners of War at York in Va."

An Isaac Hunter was Sheriff of Gates County in 1786. Isaac, #12, was dead at that time. Isaac Hunter, #123, apparently was in Gates early in his life, but married in Granville in 1760 and died in Warren County. Isaac Hunter, #131.1, of Crabtree was in Wake County in 1786. Isaac Hunter, #131, son of Nicholas, was well established in Northampton and probably dead before 1786. Thomas Hunter, #121.2, had a son Isaac, Jr., #121.22, but was probably not old enough to be sheriff in 1786. Of the Isaac Hunters appearing in Gates records, only Isaac, #125.1, seems to be in the censuses of Gates County in 1790, 1800, and 1810.

A deed of 10 Dec 1829 refers to Isaac R. Hunter, executor of will of Isaac Hunter, Sr. dec 15 May 1820. Isaac R. Hunter was his son. The will of Nathaniel Riddick 12 Jun 1797 in Gates named Capt. Isaac Hunter as executor. An estate division was presented in Gates in 1831 for Isaac Hunter, Jr. (probably #121.22). It made reference to Thomas Hunter, Isaac Hunter, and to Capt. Isaac Hunter's plantation. It was signed by Thomas Twine, who was guardian of the children of Isaac Hunter, Jr. and of Sarah Ann Hunter.

125.2 Leah Hunter, d 8 Jan 1806 [Gates Bible, Bible of Isaac Hunter]. Married (1) 6 Jan 1772 Seth Riddick, d bef 1790 [NC/SC Marriage]. Marriage date implies she was older than Isaac, #125.1. Married (2) Jan 1798 Thomas Parker. A Thomas Parker left a will dated 16 Apr 1825 [Gates Wills]. There was a marriage agreement dated 23 Jan 1798 between Thomas Parker and Leah Riddick. It included Daniel Southall [Gates Deeds, #174]. In Feb 1806 Daniel Southall was made administrator of the estate of Leah Parker [Gates Court, #491]. Leah Riddick is in the 1790 Gates County, NC, census with 1 male under 16 years, 4 females, and 14 slaves, and it is assumed that Seth Riddick died before 1790. Ray says that a Leah Hunter married Jonathan Parker [Ray], but it was clearly not this one.

125.3 Elizabeth Hunter. An Elizabeth Hunter was witness to a deed 15 Nov 1764, Amos and Sarah (Hunter) Freeman, #121.1, to Elisha Hunter, #121.

Isaac Hunter 131

131.1 Isaac Hunter [Crabtree], d 19 Mar 1823 [Neal]. Married (1) Rebecca Hart. Married (2) Charlotte Thomas, b ca 1764, d 7 Feb 1820 [Neal], d/o John Giles Thomas ["Lane of Surry" in BoddieSVF]. Briggs says first wife may have been Martha Alston, married 1760 in Granville Co, and mother of first son Jacob, but this is almost certainly incorrect [Briggs]. Mitchell says the Isaac Hunter who married Martha Alston was Isaac, #123, s/o Isaac [Mitchell]. It has been suggested that Isaac Hunter, #131.1, was the son of Theophilus Hunter (131.2) [Mitchell], but the general belief is that they were brothers. The general belief is given credence by the fact that he normally signed his name as Isaac Hunter, Sen. Isaac Hunter of Swift Creek, son of Reuben Hunter, #131.3, signed his name as Isaac Hunter, Jr. to distinguish himself from Isaac of Crabtree. It is supposed that he would show this deference to an uncle more readily than to a cousin. In addition, Sarah Speight Hunter, widow of Reuben Hunter, appointed an Isaac Hunter, probably Isaac of Crabtree, her "trusty friend," executor in her will. It seems more likely that she would refer to her husband's brother in that way than she would a nephew. Finally, Theophilus Hunter in his will did not name Isaac Hunter as a son. Mitchell says Isaac Hunter was first known to be in Wake County when he was a chain bearer in the survey of 584 acres north of Crabtree Creek granted to Theophilus Hunter 21 Jul 1761 [Powell, "Isaac Hunter"], but another reference does not list him as a chain bearer in that survey [Granville Dist]. This land was sold to Isaac Hunter 3 Mar 1762 for 12 pounds. On 28 Feb 1769, Isaac Hunter was authorized by the Johnston County, NC, Court to open a tavern at his home. The site was on the Cross Creek-to-Petersburg stage road and was a well known and popular stopping place. A photograph of the tavern appears in [HWC]. In 1788, when the Hillsborough Convention was held to consider ratification of the U. S. Constitution, it decreed that the permanent capital of NC be located within ten miles of Isaac Hunter's tavern. The commission to select the actual site of the capital first met at Isaac Hunter's but did not purchase land from him, as he may have wished. Instead, they bought land from Colonel

Joel Lane. Hunter later began to dispose of his land holdings, apparently to meet debts and expenses [Powell (T. W. Mitchell)]. The tavern property was sold to William Camp, his son-in-law. By 1822, his property was reduced to 650 acres and two slaves. He was heavily in debt at his death, and his remaining property was sold in 1825 to settle his accounts. He was survived only by sons Norfleet and Michael and daughter Elizabeth Rogers [Powell (T. W. Mitchell)]. A xerographic copy of his will is held by the author of these notes. There is a Wake County deed dated 1786 from Isaac Hunter to Jacob Hunter (son of Isaac, #131.1) [Cain, "William Andrew Jeffreys"].

Isaac Hunter is not identified as a son of Isaac, #131, by any known documents.

131.2 Theophilus Hunter, b ca 1727, d 1798 or 1799. Married (1) (?). Mrs. Lucy Bledsoe Burrington says his wife was Jane Lane, d/o Barnabas Lane [DAC, p 248]. The DAR Patriot Index also gives Jane Lane as his wife [DAR]. Burrington indicates only one wife and gives Theophilus, Jr. as the son of Jane Lane. The will of Barnabas Lane in 1776 does not mention a daughter Jane. It does name daughter Jean Jones [Wynne]. Theops. Hunter was a witness. Kerr and Sherwood say his first wife was unknown. Married (2) (?). Kerr and Sherwood say his second wife was Jane Smith Williams, widow of Joel Williams of Johnston County, NC, and that Theophilus, Jr. was the son of the second wife [Powell, "Theophilus Hunter"]. At his death, he named wife Jane in his will. Kerr and Sherwood are not the most reliable of sources, since they incorrectly give Sarah Pugh Hill as mother of Theophilus Hunter and assert without proof (and contrary to many sources) that Isaac Hunter (Crabtree) was the son of Theophilus and his first wife. In 1759 he was a justice of the peace in Johnston County. In the legislative act of 27 Dec 1770 creating Wake County, Hunter was named one of the commissioners to lay off land for the construction of a courthouse, jail, and stocks, and to contract with workmen for the construction. He was also on the commission to run the line between Wake, Johnston, Cumberland, and Orange counties.

When Governor Tryon marched against the Regulators (one of whose leaders was James Hunter, apparently no relation to Theophilus), in 1771, he stayed 5-8 May at Hunter's Lodge, the home of Theophilus Hunter, about 4 miles south of the present Raleigh. After the Battle of Alamance, at which the Regulators were defeated, Tryon's militia marched back and the Wake County regiment was disbanded at Hunter's Lodge.

Theophilus Hunter was presiding judge at the first Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for the new Wake County and was a justice of the court throughout the colonial period. On 23 Dec 1776 he was elected to the same position by the Halifax Provincial Congress. In the colonial militia, Hunter was a major, and was made a lieutenant colonel by the Provincial Congress on 22 Apr 1776. On 19 Dec 1776 he was named to a committee to obtain arms and ammunition for the Continental Army.

Hunter was a delegate to the Provincial Congress at Hillsborough in 1775, and in 1783 he represented Wake County in the NC House of Commons. In 1793 he and James Bloodworth deeded the property to Wake County where the present courthouse is located.

In 1790, Hunter was the second largest slaveholder in the county. After Hunter's Lodge burned, he built Spring Hill on the site of what later became Dorothea Dix Hospital, where a part of the house added by his son still stands. [Powell (T. W. Mitchell)]

Theophilus Hunter left a will in Wake County, NC, dated 5 Apr 1797, recorded 5 Feb 1799. He named wife Jane and children Osborn, Theophilus, Henry, Irene, Edith, and Patsy Lane and Tempe Lane (probably daughters of Irene Hunter and James Lane) [Olds]. Wynne differs from Olds regarding those named in the will, in saying that Theophilus Hunter named also daughter Delilah, widow of James Hinton, and six of their children. The Tempe Lane named by Olds was Temperance Hinton according to Wynne. In the absence of the will, Wynne appears to be the more reliable and will be followed here.

Theophilus Hunter appears in the Northampton Deed Books from 1748 to 1753. In a deed 30 Apr 1752 with John Edwards, he is identified as a trader from Granville County. He received a grant of 380 acres in Johnston County 28 Oct 1752, one of 584 acres 21 Jul 1761 on the north side of Crabtree Creek in present Wake County, and one of 529 acres 15 Oct 1761 on Walnut Creek in Johnston County (that part that is now Wake County) adjoining "Hunter's corner" and Thomas Hunter [Granville Dist]. Between 1752 and 1761 Theophilus Hunter received grants of over 2000 acres in the Granville district of what was then Johnston County, and by 1771 he had extensive holdings south of Crabtree Creek including Rocky Branch and Walnut Creek in the present Wake County. Theophilus Hunter was quite active as a surveyor in Johnston County in late 1762 and early 1763 [Granville Dist].

Theophilus Hunter is identified as a son of Isaac Hunter by Northampton Deed Book 3, pp. 59 and 129 [Mitchell].

Theophilus Hunter was a Militia Captain in Johnston County in 1763, a major in the Wake County Militia 6 Oct 1772, and a Lieutenant Colonel of the Wake Militia 6 Oct 1773. However, he was listed as Lieutenant Colonel at a meeting 4 Mar 1770 [Colonial].

131.3 Reuben Hunter, b 173?, d 1796 (Estate sale 30 May 1797). Married Sarah Speight, d 1809 [Briggs], d/o William and Abigail Speight. William Speight drew a will 2 Jul 1773 that was recorded in Wake County in June 1774, and Abigail Speight drew a will 17 Jan 1781 that was recorded in Wake County in Sep 1781. Sarah Speight Hunter left a will naming her "trusty friend" Isaac Hunter as executor. This may have been Isaac of Crabtree [Briggs]. It was proved at the May 1811 term of court. The division of Reuben Hunter's land, about 432 acres, is recorded in Wake County. The author has a xerographic copy. The author also has typed, transcribed copies of the wills of William Speight, Abigail Speight, and Sarah Speight Hunter. In a deed dated 12 Apr 1753, Reuben Hunter of Northampton deeded 100 acres of land he received from the will of Isaac Hunter, deceased, father of the said Reuben Hunter [Northampton County Deed Book No. 2, p 103]. Author has copy of the deed.

A return, undated but between 1732 and 1774, of the Officers of the North Carolina Militia of the Johnston County Regiment places Reuben Hunter as an Ensign in the company of Captain Theophilus Hunter [Colonial]. The date was before 1771 because Theophilus Hunter was senior to captain's rank in 1771 when Governor Tryon organized and disbanded troops at his home.

Reuben Hunter is identified as a son of Isaac Hunter by Northampton Deed Book 3, pp. 59 and 129 [Mitchell].

Reuben Hunter owned property in Johnston County (in that part that is now Wake) adjacent to Theophilus Hunter 13 Mar 1760 [Granville Dist]. He was a chain bearer 19 Oct 1756 in a survey in present Wake County of a grant to Peter Green, joining Theophilus Hunter and Reuben Hunter. He was also a chain bearer 9 Dec 1755 to W. Haywood, surveyor in Johnston County (now in Wake) [Granville Dist].

Reuben Hunter may have been killed by three men. In the Wake County, NC, Court Minutes, 1793-1796, Book III, is this report, "On motion of William Nash Attorney for the County that an inquiry be made into the charge against Allen Brewer, Charles Thomas, and Joel Parish touching the death of Reuben Hunter the Court gave it as their opinion that the said Brewer, Thomas and Parish are only chargeable with a violent assault and battery on the body of the said Hunter and directs that the said Brewer, Thomas and Parish are bound to appear at next Court to answer etc." One source said that at least one of the assailants was a law officer [Curry].

131.4 Col. Thomas Hunter, b 1735, d 1784 [Powell, "Thomas Hunter"], d aft 4 May 1785 [DAR]. He was born in Virginia [DAR]. Married 1764 Priscilla Smith, d aft 1820, d/o Drew Smith of Halifax County, NC, d 1762, and wife Elizabeth ["Smith of Surry" in BoddiesVF]. A Priscilla Hunter was listed in the Nash census in 1800, 1810, and 1820. In 1761, Thomas Hunter purchased land in Northampton County, NC, called "the rich square" the site and origin of the present town of Rich Square [Powell, "Thomas Hunter"]. He sold the land to Marmaduke Norfleet in 1766 [Northampton Deed Book 4, p 53] and bought land in the Scotland Neck section of Halifax County. In 1770 he moved to the then Edgecombe County and bought land on the north bank of Stoney Creek. The property was four miles west of the present Rocky Mount and is still known as Hunter's Hill [Powell, "Thomas Hunter"]. He was active in the Revolutionary movement and represented Edgecombe in the First Provincial Congress at New Bern 21 Aug 1775 (According to "Nash County Historical Notes, this was in Hillsboro). When the brigade of militia for Edgecombe was reorganized 22 May 1776, he was appointed second major, and in 1777 when Nash County was formed from western Edgecombe he was placed in charge of the Nash militia with the rank of colonel [Powell, "Thomas Hunter"]. He wrote to Gov Caswell 11 Jun, 1778, advising him that Nash had made up its quota of men with 29 volunteers and 27 balloted (billeted?) and appointed, and requesting bonus money of $4250 promised to men. Wheeler states that the appointment as second major was made 22 Apr 1776 [Wheeler]. In 1778 he represented

Nash County at the General Assembly in Hillsboro [Nash]. In 1784 he resigned as justice of the county court and died intestate the same year. According to the Nash County Registry, he left sons Thomas, Cordial Norfleet, and Drew, and daughters Elizabeth and Polly, who married Loderick F. Ellin. The estate administrator was Micajah Thomas, who might have been related to Thomas Hunter [Powell (C. T. Smith, Jr.)]

Thomas Hunter is identified as a brother of Dempsey Hunter by Northampton Deed Book 3, p. 130 [Mitchell].

A Thomas Hunter, probably this one, owned land in Johnston County (in present Wake County) in 1761. Theophilus Hunter received a grant of 529 acres adjacent to Thomas Hunter.

131.5 Dempsey Hunter. He was a Corporal in Captain Samuel Cotten's Company, Northampton County, NC Militia, at some time after 1748 [Colonial]. A deed from Thomas Hunter to David Rice dated 13 May 1761 in the Northampton Deed Book 3, p 130, identifies Dempsey Hunter as brother to Thomas. He owned land in Northampton 30 Aug 1756 [Granville Dist]. On 14 Jan 1761 he was a chain bearer (with Hardy Hinton) for Charles Young, surveyor, and he was also a chain bearer for Young 21 May 1762, and probably for Young (name listed as Dinny Hunter) 15 Oct 1761 on Walnut Creek in Johnston (now in Wake) County.. This gives some connection with Theophilus Hunter, since Charles Young surveyed a grant 21 Jul 1761 in Johnston County (North side of Crabtree Creek, now in Wake County) for Theophilus Hunter. The will of William Stevenson in Northampton County in 1761 refers to "the two children (Clary Stevenson and Molly Stevenson) my Sister (evidently sister-in-law) Elizabeth bore before she was married to Dempsey Hunter." [Northampton Wills]. His name also appears as witness to the will of John Veale in Northampton, 1754, and in a deed to John Beaman in Northampton, 1756. T. W. Mitchell in a letter said that he did not find an estate for Dempsey Hunter in Gates, Northampton, Bertie, or Chowan and that he had never found additional evidence of him. A Dempsey Hunter lived in Richland County, SC. He was elected militia captain 8 Aug 1774 [Richland] and later was a colonel. Dempsey Hunter was a witness to the will of Jacob Faust in 1793 in Richland County. He was executor, with Allen Hunter, of the will of William Faust in 1796 in Richland County, SC. A daughter, Elizabeth Hunter, was named. An Allen Hunter was a taxpayer in Pasquotank County, NC in 1769 [NC Taxpayers]. Jacob Hunter received a land grant in SC in 1785, Dempsey in 1786, and Allen in 1792. Jacob, Dempsey, Henry, Fanny, and two widow Hunters were in the 1790 census of Richland County, SC, and a younger Allen (26-45) was in the 1800 census. The will of John Faust in Richland County probated 1807 lists a child of John Faust as Kate, wife of Dempsey Hunter. There was some connection to SC by the Hunter family. The will of James Hilliard in Northampton County, NC, in 1764 refers to land joining William Hunter's on the Wateree River in SC [Northampton Wills]. That was possibly William Hunter, #111. Richland County includes the Wateree River. It should be noted that three of Dempsey Hunter's brothers, Isaac, Theophilus, and Reuben left Northampton County for Wake (Johnston) between about 1750 and 1770, and Thomas also left. It is possible that Dempsey went to SC. If so, this means that his wife Elizabeth died and he married Kate Faust. There is confirmation that Katherine Faust was his second wife, with his first unknown [Patriot Roster]. It is also possible that the Dempsey Hunter in SC was not Dempsey Hunter, #131.5, son of Isaac Hunter, but was the son of the William Hunter, perhaps #111, who owned land on the Wateree River. Two Dempsey Hunters lived in Montgomery County, Tennessee, in 1850, with birthplace listed as South Carolina. An Allen Hunter married 12 Dec 1846 Martha Ann M. Walker in Montgomery County. An Allen Hunter married 8 Nov 1848 Mary J. Rudolph in Montgomery County, W. C. Hunter bondsman [TennMar]. Other Hunters were in Montgomery County. Thomas Hunter, #131.41, moved there. Other descendants of William Hunter who moved there were Mary and Elizabeth Norfleet, daughters of Mary Gordon, #143.3, and James Norfleet.

Dempsey Hunter, #131.5, is identified as a son of Isaac Hunter by Northampton Deed Book 3, pp. 59 and 129 [Mitchell].

131.6 Leah? Married Jonathan Parker [Ray].

Stephen Hunter 132

132.1 Stephen Hunter, Jr., d 1796. He predeceased his father. It is probable that he owned substantial property, because Lebbeus Hunter was named administrator, and was involved in a court suit in Carteret County, NC, relative to the property. See Lebbeus Hunter, #134.

133.3 Elizabeth Hunter. Married (1) David Bell, d 1784. Married (2) Thomas Dudley, s/o Thomas Dudley and Elizabeth Jarratt, and husband of deceased sister Jamima. Thomas Dudley will 15 Jun 1807. See Lebbeus Hunter, #134, for suit involving Thomas Dudley and wife.

Lebbeus Hunter 134

134.1 Lebbeus Hunter, Jr., b 1772 in NC, d aft 1850. Married Clarkey ..., b 1776 in NC, d aft 1850. In 1798, the Carteret County Court appointed Lebbeus Hunter, Jr. as overseer of the public road

"from Hunter's Creek to the end of the county." Lebbeus Hunter, Jr. moved to Mississippi, possibly living for a time in South Carolina, Florida, and/or Alabama, leaving NC after 1809. He appears in the Walton County, FL census of 1830, with one male 50-60, 1 female 50-60, 4 males, 20-30, and 27 slaves. He appears in the 1850 census of Lauderdale County, Mississippi, as Lebbeus Hunter Sr. with wife and Edward Hunter, probably his son. Adjacent lived Lebbeus Hunter Sen., age 41, probably a son. A few residences away was Isaac M. Hunter, probably his son. All were farmers and all were born in NC. The wife of Isaac was born in SC, the wife of the younger Lebbeus in Alabama, and the children of his sons were born in Florida, Alabama, or Mississippi. It is possible that other Hunters in Mississippi were his descendants. Hardy Hunter, b 1826 in Alabama, lived in Noxubee County, Mississippi, in 1850, not far from Lauderdale. Ages were such that he might have been the son of Isaac M. Hunter, and the name was a traditional one among the descendants of William Hunter of Nansemond.

William Hunter 135 / Sarah ...

135.1 John Hunter, d 1771. Married Ala Will 1785 (probably an error) in Chowan County, NC with wife Allie and children William, John, and Mary [Olds]. Ray gives date 1771, does not name children, and lists wife Ala. Witnesses Thomas and Sarah Walton and Elisha Hunter [Ray]. An Alee (Alce) Hunter of Gates left will dated 12 Apr 1781, with children William, Theophilus, John, and Mary [Gates Wills, Vol I]. Her estate was listed 9 Aug 1781 with 5 Negroes, 3 axes, 1 hatchet, and 1 tomahawk [Gates Wills, Vol III]. Executors were Thomas Walton and son William Hunter. Witnesses were Sarah Walton, Mary Hunter, and Elisha Hunter. This might be Elisha, #121.22, who was active in Gates County at that time. Olds reads name as Alce. Author has xerographic copy of will, and the name appears to be Alce, rather than Alee. It is listed in the will book index as Alice. The will indicates that William Hunter was a minor, but he was made an executor (perhaps with Walton as the responsible executor). Since two of the witnesses were the same for both wills, there is a presumption that they were for husband and wife. A deed in Gates 2 Feb 1790, John Hunter to William Hunter, referred to a grant to William Hunter, #1. It has the phrase "and by the will of John Hunter given to his two sons equally divided sold by the said John Hunter (evidently the son) unto the aforesaid William Hunter, party to these presents." This could be read to mean that John Hunter had only two sons. It will be considered here, however, that Theophilus was a son of John Hunter, but had received his part of his father's property before the death of John Hunter. A Theophilus Hunter was involved in the sale of property in Gates from 1794 to 1802 [Gates Deeds].

135.2 Nicholas Hunter, d 1791. Married 14 Nov 1777 Susannah Buchanan in Chowan County, NC [NC/SC Marriage]. Lived in Duplin County, NC. Nicholas Hunter's household in the NC census of 1784-1787 was 1 white male 21-60, 2 white males under 21 or over 60, 3 white females, and 4 blacks. A Nicholas Hunter, either this one or #135.22, received money from the estate of Nathaniel Holley 13 Feb 1788 in Bertie County [Bertie Estates].

135.3 Hardy Hunter, d 1794. Married Rachel..., b bef 1755 [1800 Bertie County census]. Will 15 Jul 1792, probated Aug 1794, named children William, Timothy, Joshua, Sarah Perry, Christian, "Seinnuth," and Mary [Gammon]. It also named grandsons Humphrey and Cader, sons of son Cader Hunter, deceased. Hardy Hunter appeared in the NC census 1784-1787 in Bertie County with household 1 white male 21-60, 2 white males under 21 or over 60, 4 white females, and 14 blacks. In the 1790 Bertie census he is shown with 1 male over 16, 1 male under 16, 4 females, and 16 slaves. Hardy Hunter was a taxpayer in Bertie in 1757 and 1769 [NC Taxpayers]. A Hardy Hunter, either this one or #135.21, was a buyer at the estate sale of Jas. McCain 26 Jul 1766 in Bertie County [Bertie Estates]. A Hardy Hunter was a private in Captain John Sumner's Company of the Chowan County Militia 25 Nov 1754. Jesse and Elisha Hunter were privates in the same company. Hardy Hunter was an ensign in Captain Sparkman's Company of the Bertie County Militia, date unknown, Thomas Whitmel, Colonel. Henry Hunter was an Ensign in Captain Gray's Company of the same regiment [Colonial]. A Rachel Hunter was in the 1800 Bertie County, NC, census.

135.4 William Hunter, d 1813. A William Hunter, b ca 1713, d 1800, was a captain in the Revolution. Married Mary ... [DAR]. A William Hunter, either this one or #135.33, was a buyer at the estate sale of ... Bentley 1 Mar 1787 in Bertie County [Bertie Estates]. See also #135.13 for a William Hunter who left a will in Gates County, NC, in 1813. Sarah Hunter, d/o a William Hunter, married 1754 William Riddick, perhaps in Chowan County [Ray].

135.5 Job Hunter. Married 18 Apr 1770 Martha Hardy [Bertie Marriages]. Guardian of orphans of Moses Newborn in Bertie County, NC, in 1769 [Ray]. Job Hunter appeared in NC census 1784-1787 in Bertie County with household 1 white male 21-60, 5 white males under 21 or over 60, 3 white females, and one black. A Job Hunter was in the 1790 census of Dobbs County, NC, with 3 males over 16,

4 males under 16, and 3 females. A Job Hunter was a private in Captain Thomas Hick's Company of Militia 25 Oct 1754, Regimental Colonel John Starkey.

135.6 James Hunter. Alive in 1770 [Ray]. A James Hunter was listed in the Halifax County, NC, census in 1800, 1810, 1820, and 1830. May not be the same James Hunter who was living in 1770.

135.7 Timothy Hunter. Married Mary Sumner, d/o James Sumner [NC/SC Marriage]. The will of James Sumner dated 30 May 1787 and proved Aug 1787 in Gates County, NC, left Mary Hunter 815 acres in Perquimans County. It left to grandson James Hunter, son of Timothy Hunter in Bertie County, a parcel of land on Bennett's Creek (presumably that Bennett's Creek in Gates County) [Gates Wills, Vol I]. A Timothy Hunter was in the 1790 Bertie County, NC, census, 1 male greater than 16 years old. Another Timothy Hunter in Bertie in 1790 listed 3 males under 16, 4 females, and 10 slaves. A Timothy Hunter was involved in estate sales in Bertie County 5 Apr 1782 (listed as Capt. Timothy Hunter), 5 Mar 1784, 8 Jul 1785, 16 Sep 1785, and 13 Feb 1788 (evidently an executor of the estate of Nathaniel Holley for this sale). It is probable that the listing of Capt. referred to this Timothy Hunter, but the other transactions may have been with #135.33. A Capt. Timothy Hunter d 29 Aug 1805 near Colerain in Bertie County [Neal]. See also Isaac Hunter, #12, for name Sumner, and #135.33 and #135.132 for other Timothy Hunters. A Capt. Timothy Hunter married 15 Nov 1826 Ann Carmott at New Bern [Neal]. A Timothy Hunter, b 1804, shipbuilder, with wife Ann, b 1809, and family, is in the 1850 census of Perquimans County, NC. Living with them was Mary Carmott, b 1768, and James Hunter, b 1834. Place of birth of Timothy Hunter, possibly an error because of the way it appears, was Massachusetts.

FIFTH GENERATION

Sarah Hunter 121.1 / Amos Freeman

121.11 Ann Freeman. Married ... Lay [Gates Wills, Vol I].

Thomas Hunter 121.2 / Mary Whitmel

121.21 Elisha Hunter, b 1774-1784 [Gates census 1800], d 1805 [Gates Court, Feb 1806]. Elisha Hunter was an executor of will of his father Thomas in Gates County, NC, in 1798. An Elisha Hunter appeared in land records in Gates County frequently between 1779 and 1800, but some of the activity before 1786 may have been that of Elisha, #121. An Elisha Hunter was a taxpayer in Gates in 1786, but that was probably #121. Elisha Hunter was guardian to Nancy, Christian, and Isaac Hunter, orphans of Thomas Hunter. Jacob Sharp was administrator of the estate of Elisha Hunter [Gates Court, Feb 1806, #495]

121.22 Isaac Hunter, Jr., b aft 1776, d 1816. Married Nancy ... [Gates Court]. His estate was inventoried 17 Jan 1817. His estate administrators in May court 1817 were Joseph Gordon and Timothy Walton [Gates Wills]. Evidently he used Junr. to distinguish himself from Isaac, #125.1, who was sometimes referred to as Isaac Senr., and perhaps as Capt. Isaac. Timothy Walton Sr. was appointed guardian to his children, Thomas, Elisha H., and Isaac, Feb 1817 [Gates Court, #966] and was still guardian in 1823 [Gates Court, #1264]. However, in May 1828 Thomas Twine was guardian to Thomas B. Hunter, orphan of Isaac Hunter Junr, deceased [Gates Court, #29], and in Feb 1830 and again in Feb 1831 he was guardian to Isaac and Elisha Hunter, orphans of Isaac Hunter, deceased [Gates Court, #91, #131]. Twine replaced Walton as guardian about the time of Walton's death in 1826 [Gates Court, Aug 1826, #1448]. Twine was also guardian to Sarah Ann Hunter who married Willis F. Riddick, but her relationship to the sons of Isaac Hunter, Jr. is not known. Note that when Timothy Walton was made guardian, Nancy Hunter was still living, and in 1820 her children lived with her. It is not known why a guardian other than Nancy Hunter was appointed. In Feb 1821 the dividers of the estate of Isaac Hunter Junr were ordered to examine the division again because of error, and in Feb 1829, the orphans of Isaac Hunter deceased petitioned for, and were granted, a division of the real estate of Isaac Hunter Junr. Isaac R. Hunter was one of the men ordered to divide the estate [Gates Court, #56]. There was a division of the estate of Isaac Hunter 21 Nov 1831. The land divided amounted to 1457 acres, including "Capt Isaac Hunter's plantation," amounting to 340 acres. Recipients were Thomas Hunter and Isaac Hunter [Gates Deeds, #367]. Elisha H. Hunter was evidently deceased at that time (See Elisha H. Hunter, #121.222). There must have been some controversy over the land division, since it was at first rejected by the Court, required a petition by orphans, and was completed only in 1831, even though Isaac Hunter Jr. died in 1816. Seemingly only one Isaac Hunter was in the Gates County censuses of 1790, 1800, and 1810, and that was probably 125.1. Isaac Hunter, Jr. was named guardian Feb 1812 to Margaret Harrell, d/o Noah Harrell [Gates Court, May 1814, #838]. There is a reference to Isaac Hunter Jr. and wife Ann [Gates Court, May 1814, #838], but that was probably a contracted version of Nancy, since similar instances have been found. One occurs here; Thomas Hunter identified a daughter as Ann, but she was named elsewhere as Nancy. Edward Riddick married Nancy Goodman [Nansemond Bible], but Norfleet lists his wife as Ann Goodman [Suffolk]. Riddick Hunter, b 1750-1760? either had one wife, Ann, and another, Nancy, or more likely one wife who used both names. Ann Hunter was in the 1820 census of Gates county with two males under ten and one male 10-15, and 10 slaves. The males may have been Thomas, Elisha H., and Isaac.

121.23 Nancy Hunter (Called Ann in will of Thomas Hunter), b bef 1798. Elisha Hunter, who died ca 1805, was guardian to Nancy Hunter, d/o Thomas Hunter [Gates Court, 1806].

121.24 Christian Hunter, b bef 1798. Elisha Hunter, who died ca 1805, was guardian to Christian Hunter, d/o Thomas Hunter [Gates Court, 1806]. In the estate inventory of Isaac Hunter, Jr., #121.22, Christian Hunter had a note payable to Isaac Hunter, Jr.

Jacob Hunter 123.3 / Patience Williamson

123.31 William H. Hunter, b 2 Jan 1794, probably Granville or Warren Counties, North Carolina, d 9 Sep 1865 Maury County, Tennessee. Married (1) 12 Oct 1815 Sarah Elizabeth Jones, b 3 Mar 1799, North Carolina, d 22 Oct 1834, Maury County, Tennessee. Married (2) 3 Nov 1835 Sarah Moss, b 17 Feb 1801, d 18 Aug 1865, Maury County, Tennessee [Roberts].

123.32 Mary Hunter. Probably born Granville or Warren Counties.

123.33 Martha Green Hunter. Probably born Granville or Warren Counties. Married John Dawson.

123.34 Eliza Hinton Hunter. Probably born Granville or Warren Counties.

Ref [Hinton]. Hinton names four other daughters, Ann Alston Hunter, Patsy Hinton Hunter, Sarah Alston Hunter, and Sackey Clark Hunter. It seems more likely that they were sisters of Jacob Hunter rather than daughters. See Isaac Hunter, #123.

Isaac Hunter 125.1 / Sophia Riddick

125.11 Jacob Hunter, b 12 Oct 1786, d 30 Oct 1810 at Gates Court House [Neal] [Nansemond Bible]. See 125.18. There is a reference to "Jacob Hunter's new survey" later than the time of his death [Gates Deeds], but that may have been a reference to Jacob E. Hunter, son of Col. Isaac Riddick Hunter.

125.12 Edward Riddick Hunter, b 29 Aug 1788 [Gates Bible], d 1857. Married 12 Oct 1809 Martha Sumner Riddick, d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. and Elizabeth Sumner Riddick (born Riddick) [Cross].

There is some uncertainty about the marriages of Edward Riddick Hunter, #125.12, Isaac Riddick Hunter, #125.13, Thomas B. Hunter, #121.221, and Isaac Hunter, #121.223, and the same discussion will be given for each. Cross says that Edward Riddick Hunter married Martha Sumner Riddick, d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. and Elizabeth Sumner Riddick (born Riddick), b 14 Feb 1772, d 14 Feb

1836, and that Isaac Riddick Hunter married 7 Jan 1817 her sister, Emily Baker Riddick, b 14 Dec 1796, d 1879. This is supported by the 1850 census listing Martha S. as the wife of Edward Riddick Hunter, by the appearance of Emily Hunter for the first time in the 1840 census after the death of Isaac Riddick Hunter in 1835, by census data showing Emily Hunter with some of the known children of Isaac Riddick Hunter, by the will of Emily Hunter naming certain of the known children of Isaac Riddick Hunter as her children, and by the close relationship between Emily Hunter and the family of Edward Riddick Hunter after the death of Isaac Riddick Hunter. Note also that both Edward Riddick Hunter and Isaac Riddick Hunter had sons using Micajah, unusual in the Hunter family, as a middle name. It is also strongly supported by the naming of Micajah Riddick and his wife Elizabeth in Isaac Hunter's Bible [Nansemond Bible]. On the other hand, Norfleet says that Martha S. Riddick, d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr., married Isaac R. Hunter and that her sister Emily married Thomas H? Hunter. This is supported by the 1850 census of Nansemond County, Virginia, listing Isaac R. Hunter, b ca 1817, as a minister, with wife Martha S. Hunter, b ca 1815. Elizabeth, wife of Micajah Riddick, Jr., was born in 1772, so it is possible that Martha S. Hunter, b ca 1815, could be her daughter, but more likely that the wife of Edward Riddick Hunter would be. There was a marriage between Thomas B. Hunter and Emily Eliza Riddick 5 Feb 1829 in Gates County, NC [Norfleet], and the marriage bond 2 Feb 1829 was signed by Willis F. Riddick [Neal], son of Micajah Riddick, Jr. In a deed of 1 Nov 1834, the wife of Thomas B. Hunter was Elizabeth, but that might merely be the use of her middle name. [Gates Deeds, Book 15, #200]. Robert Riddick, brother of Micajah Riddick, Jr., had a daughter Emily, but she apparently married James McGuire [Norfleet, Will of Micajah Riddick, Jr., transcribed as McGuin]. He also had a daughter Louisa, b ca 1815, who married an Isaac R. Hunter [Norfleet]. The will of Robert Riddick, 27 Jun 1840, mentions his daughter Louisa Hunter. On 25 Dec 1843 a deed from Isaac R. Hunter to Luke Green was signed by a Louisa Hunter as a witness. In summary, Edward Riddick Hunter married Martha S. ..., who may have been Martha S. Riddick and may have been d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. Isaac Riddick Hunter married Emily ..., who may have been Emily Riddick and may have been d/o Micajah Riddick Jr. Thomas B. Hunter married Emily Eliza Riddick, who may have been d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. [Cross, Norfleet].

Edward R. Hunter was a farmer [Cross], since in 1819 an apprentice, James Phelps, was given to him to learn the trade of a farmer [Gates Court]. He was in the State Legislature in 1826 and for several years was a member of the Board of County Commissioners [Cross]. Edward R. Hunter was named in the will, 1846, of Artemisia (Hunter) Ramsey as brother [Pasquotank]. Edward R. Hunter left a will in Gates County, NC, dated 13 Feb 1857, probated Aug 1857. He named as heirs his daughters Mary Eliza and Sophia C. Hunter and sons Edward R., William I., Willis M., Henry H., and James Beverly. Mary Eliza appeared to receive favorable treatment, and William received little. Mary Eliza Hunter fell from a horse while she was young and was an invalid as a result. Cross says she was "the pet of the family." [Cross]. The four children of his son Edward R. were named. Executors were his sons Willis M., Henry H., and James B. Hunter. Isaac R. Hunter, Jr., evidently his nephew, was a witness. A young female appeared in the 1840 census family of Edward Riddick Hunter but not in 1850. She was not named in his will.

Edward R. Hunter identified Joseph and Henry Hunter Mullen as grandchildren in his will of 1857 and referred to their father Joseph Mullen.

Henry Holmes Hunter, son of Edward Riddick Hunter, lived near Sunbury [Gates Bible], and so did Edward Riddick Hunter. Thomas Hunter, # 121.2, also lived near Sunbury [Gates County]. Note that Sunbury is only about ten miles in a straight line from Summerton, Virginia, the home of Dr. Edward Riddick Hunter. There was a Hunter's Millpond in Gates County, "built prior to 1720 at the junction of Raynor Swamp and Harrell Swamp at the head of Bennett's Creek" and a Hunter's Mill Township in east central Gates County [NC Gazeteer]. In 1840, Edward R. Hunter owned 28 slaves, and 11 members of his household were in agriculture.

In 1832, Sunbury Academy was chartered by the State Legislature at Sunbury. The charter was to John C. Gordon, Joseph Gordon, Richard H. Parker, Henry Costin, Willis Riddick, Wells Cowper, Isaac R. Hunter, Edward R. Hunter, John Gatling, James Costin, Thomas Twine, Noah Harrell, Tillery W. Carr, and George Costin. It was at first opened to boys and girls, but in about seven years it was closed and a separate school was opened under private control [Gates County].

Edward R. Hunter was witness to will of David Benton 1 Oct 1840, proved Nov 1840 in Gates County, NC.

125.13 Col. Isaac Riddick Hunter, b 14 Jan 1791, d 1835 [Cross]. Married Emily Baker Riddick, b 14 Dec 1796, d 1879, d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. and Elizabeth Sumner Riddick (born Riddick) [Cross].

There is some uncertainty about the marriages of Edward Riddick Hunter, #125.12, Isaac Riddick Hunter, #125.13, Thomas B. Hunter, #121.221, and Isaac Hunter, #121.223, and the same discussion will be given for each. Cross says that Edward Riddick Hunter married Martha Sumner Riddick, d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. and Elizabeth Sumner Riddick (born Riddick), b 14 Feb 1772, d 14 Feb 1836, and that Isaac Riddick Hunter married 7 Jan 1817 her sister, Emily Baker Riddick, b 14 Dec 1796, d 1879. This is supported by the 1850 census listing Martha S. as the wife of Edward Riddick Hunter, by the appearance of Emily Hunter for the first time in the 1840 census after the death of Isaac Riddick Hunter in 1835, by census data showing Emily Hunter with some of the known children of Isaac Riddick Hunter, by the will of Emily Hunter naming certain of the known children of Isaac Riddick Hunter as her children, and by the close relationship between Emily Hunter and the family of Edward Riddick Hunter after the death of Isaac Riddick Hunter. Note also that both Edward Riddick Hunter and Isaac Riddick Hunter had sons using Micajah, unusual in the Hunter family, as a middle name. It is also strongly supported by the naming of Micajah Riddick and his wife Elizabeth in Isaac Hunter's Bible [Nansemond Bible]. On the other hand, Norfleet says that Martha S. Riddick, d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr., married Isaac R. Hunter and that her sister Emily married Thomas H? Hunter. This is supported by the 1850 census of Nansemond County, Virginia, listing Isaac R. Hunter, b ca 1817, as a minister, with wife Martha S. Hunter, b ca 1815. Elizabeth, wife of Micajah Riddick, Jr., was born in 1772, so it is possible that Martha S. Hunter, b ca 1815, could be her daughter, but more likely that the wife of Edward Riddick Hunter would be. There was a marriage between Thomas B. Hunter and Emily Eliza Riddick 5 Feb 1829 in Gates County, NC [Norfleet], and the marriage bond 2 Feb 1829 was signed by Willis F. Riddick [Neal], son of Micajah Riddick, Jr. In a deed of 1 Nov 1834, the wife of Thomas B. Hunter was Elizabeth, but that might merely be the use of her middle name [Gates Deeds, Book 15, #200]. Robert Riddick, brother of Micajah Riddick, Jr., had a daughter Emily, but she apparently married James McGuire [Norfleet, Will of Micajah Riddick, Jr., transcribed as McGuin]. He also had a daughter Louisa, b ca 1815, who married an Isaac R. Hunter [Norfleet]. The will of Robert Riddick, 27 Jun 1840, mentions his daughter Louisa Hunter. On 25 Dec 1843 a deed from Isaac R. Hunter to Luke Green was signed by a Louisa Hunter as a witness. In summary, Edward Riddick Hunter married Martha S. ..., who may have been Martha S. Riddick and may have been d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. Isaac Riddick Hunter married Emily ..., who may have been Emily Riddick and may have been d/o Micajah Riddick Jr. Thomas B. Hunter married Emily Eliza Riddick, who may have been d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. [Cross, Norfleet].

There is a reference to Col. Isaac R. Hunter, deceased, in a deed 19 Aug 1838 [Gates Deeds, Books 17 and 18, no. 90] and another dated 29 Dec 1838 [Books 15 and 16, no. 365]. Will, 1846, of half-sister Artemisia refers to children of Isaac Hunter, deceased [Pasquotank].

The will of Emily Hunter, dated 10 Sep 1867, proved 8 Oct 1879, names daughters Cornelia A. Mullen (wife of Joseph Mullen), Elizabeth S., and Emily M. Hunter, and grandson Isaac P(?) Hunter. She named "my nephew, Dr. H. Holmes Hunter," executor. A Gates County deed of 21 May 1844 from Wm. W. Cowper to James Costen, Sr. names heirs of (Jacob) Benjamin Hunter as "Edward R. Hunter, John O. Hunter, Rich'd H. Ramsey and wife, Artemisia, Willis F. Riddick and wife, Sarah (This would be Sarah Edna Adeline Hunter, who died 10 Dec 1843, so this is an error by Cowper. Riddick married another Sarah Hunter, but not until 9 Sep 1847 [Cross].), Jacob E. Hunter and Sophia, Susan, James, Isaac, Emily and Cornelia, infant heirs of Isaac R. Hunter." (Only Emily and Cornelia could be called infants). Elizabeth S. Hunter, who was a daughter of Emily Hunter, was not included in the Cowper list. Cross does not list her as a daughter of Isaac Riddick Hunter [Cross], but Emily Hunter named her as her daughter. Benjamin Hunter was evidently unmarried and died intestate, causing his living brothers and sisters and children of his deceased half brother, Isaac Riddick Hunter, to share his estate. His half brother, Jacob, and his sister, Barsha Eliza, were deceased and evidently Sophia Hunter, #125.14, was also.

Isaac Riddick Hunter was executor of will of Benjamin Briggs dated 25 Sep 1823 in Gates County, NC [Gates Wills, Vol II].

In 1832, Sunbury Academy was chartered by the State Legislature at Sunbury. The charter was to John C. Gordon, Joseph Gordon, Richard H. Parker, Henry Costin, Willis Riddick, Wells Cowper, Isaac R. Hunter, Edward R. Hunter, John Gatling, James Costin, Thomas Twine, Noah Harrell, Tillery W. Carr, and George Costin. It was at first opened to boys and girls, but in about seven years it was closed and a separate school was opened under private control [Gates County].

In the 1850 census, Emily Hunter is shown with Elizabeth S. Hunter, age 27, Mariah Hunter, age 16, Cornelia A. Hunter, age 15, and Mary A. Hill, either 36 or 56. Emily Hunter's age was shown as 51 or possibly 57, neither of which agrees exactly with the birthdate of 1796 given by Cross. Edward Riddick Hunter was executor of the will of Mary Ann Hill 6 Nov 1847. William Isaac Hunter was a witness and Isaac R. Hunter probated the will.

Isaac Hunter 125.1 / Mary Hunter Gordon 143.14

125.14 Sophia Caroline Hunter, b 18 Oct 1797, d 18 Nov 1823. Named in will of grandfather Jacob Gordon 22 Sep 1817 in Gates County, NC.

125.15 Artemisia (Armesia) Hunter, b 1 Feb 1799, d 1 Dec 1845. Married (1) 1817 George Bozman, d 1820, s/o Joseph Bozman and Chloe Harrison [Ray]. Married (2) ... Jones. On 21 Jun 1837 John O. Hunter appointed William E. Pugh his attorney to convey his negroes to his sister "Artamisia G. Jones." A deed 20 Aug 1837 referred to Mrs. A. G. Jones [Gates Deeds]. Married (3) Richard H. Ramsey. Will 26 Nov 1846 in Pasquotank County, NC [Book N, p 201]. Refers to Brother Ed R. Hunter, Sr.; children of Isaac Hunter (deceased); Ed. R. Hunter, Jr.; niece Mary Elizabeth Hunter; niece Sophia C. Hunter; daughter Emily C. Ramsey; husband Richard H. Ramsey; children of John O. Hunter; niece Mary Elizabeth Riddick. No executor or witnesses named. [Pasquotank]. Armesia Bozman was named in will of her grandfather Jacob Gordon 22 Sep 1817 in Gates County.

125.16 John Omega Hunter, b 4 Dec 1802, d 29 Apr 1878, Yazoo City, MS. Married 23 Nov 1824 in Gates County, NC, Elizabeth Ann Pugh, d 11 Mar 1887, d/o Col. Henry Pugh [Neal]. James W. Riddick best man [Gates Bible]. In 1829 John Omega Hunter was a trustee of the Methodist Episcopal Church [Gates Deeds]. John Omega Hunter moved to Yazoo City, MS before 21 Jun 1837, because on that date he appointed William E. Pugh attorney to transfer his negroes to his sister Artemisia, giving his address as Yazoo City [Gates Deeds]. John Omega Hunter's children referred to in will, 1846, of Artemisia Hunter Bozman Ramsey, sister of John Omega Hunter. Named in will of grandfather Jacob Gordon 22 Sep 1817 in Gates County. John Omega Hunter was executor of will of his father-in-law Henry

Pugh 27 Dec 1824. Will was disputed but accepted Feb 1833. In the 1850 census of Yazoo County, Mississippi. In 1829 he was a trustee of the Methodist Episcopal Church [Gates Deeds].

Isaac Hunter 125.1 / Mary Gordon 143.21

125.17 Barsha Eliza Hunter, b 3 Aug 1807, d 22 Oct 1808.

125.18 Jacob Benjamin Hunter, b 7 Jul 1812, d 10 Oct 1839. See 125.11. Evidently J. Benjamin Hunter died unmarried and intestate, because his property was divided among his surviving brothers and sisters and the children of his deceased brother Isaac Riddick Hunter.

125.19 Sarah Edna Adeline Hunter, b 27 Jul 1814, d 10 Dec 1843. Married 2 Dec 1829 Willis Faulke Riddick, d 28 Feb 1871, s/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. and Elizabeth Sumner Riddick (born Riddick). Willis F. Riddick married 9 Sep 1847 Sarah Ann Hunter, b 28 Nov 1830, niece of Isaac R. Hunter. Willis F. Riddick married Nov 1866 Adeline Burr Currier.

The following discussion is based on an account by Cross. The parents of Sarah Edna Adeline Hunter opposed the marriage because she was less than sixteen years old and Willis Riddick was ten or fifteen years older. Willis Riddick was well educated, from a prominent family (so was Sarah Hunter), a practicing attorney, very distinguished looking, and a noted spendthrift. His romances were numerous. The couple lived in Gatesville, in a pretentious home, bought with Sarah Hunter Riddicks's money. Their home was noted for its social affairs. Later Willis Riddick began to lose his affection for his wife and transferred it to other women. On 10 Dec 1843, Sarah Riddick, after drinking lemonade prepared by Willis Riddick, became violently ill and died within a few hours. Willis Riddick was indicted for the murder of his wife and was tried 14 Apr 1845 in Hertford, Perquimans County, NC, William H. Battle presiding. Dr. Henry Holmes Hunter was a prosecution witness. A slave servant had heard Sarah Riddick say to her husband after drinking the lemonade, "You have for a long time tried to get rid of me, now you have succeeded; that lemonade was poison." However, the slave was not allowed to testify, and Willis Riddick was found not guilty. After the trial, members of the Bar petitioned to have Willis Riddick disbarred, but that failed in Gates Court in Sep 1846. The trial split the Hunters and Riddicks in Gates County. However, Willis Riddick married another Hunter on 9 Sep 1847, Sarah Ann Hunter, a cousin of Sarah Edna Adeline Hunter. They had one child, Emily Mariah, b 20 Sep 1848, d 16 Dec 1848, and Sarah Ann Hunter died 21 Dec 1848. After her death Willis Riddick moved from Gatesville and lived in Washington, DC, and Warrenton, NC. His third wife, Adeline Burr Currier, was very beautiful and rich [Cross]. Deeds in Gates County refer to Jacob E. Hunter as trustee for Riddick (26 Jan 1843, 17 Feb 1843, 25 and 29 Sep 1843 with a reference to payment of Riddick's debts), and it appears that he was in financial difficulty in the period before Sarah Edna Adeline

Hunter's death. Sarah Ann Hunter was called by Cross a cousin of Sarah Edna Adeline Hunter [Cross]. She was also referred to elsewhere as a niece of Isaac R. Hunter [Norfleet]. The will of Mary Goodman in 1847 names Isaac R. Hunter as grandson and Sarah Ann Hunter as great granddaughter [Gates Wills]. It is interesting to note that the death of Willis F. Riddick, as well as the births of Sarah Edna Adeline Hunter and Sarah Ann Hunter, was recorded in the Isaac Hunter Bible [Nansemond Bible].

On 1 Apr 1842, more than a year and a half before the death of Sarah Edna Adeline Hunter, Willis F. Riddick and wife, Sarah, sold 38 acres near Sunbury to James Costen for $364.86. A judge in Perquimans County ordered that Sarah be examined by two justices, since it appears that Willis Riddick said she was too infirm to travel [Gates Deeds, Book 18, #196].

Isaac Hunter (Crabtree) 131.1 / Rebecca Hart

131.11 Jacob Hunter, b ca 1745 [DAR], d 1798. Married 27 Nov 1783 Sarah Rogers [MWC Marriage Bond 25 Nov]. Jacob Hunter may have been the son of a previous marriage. He served in the Continental Army in the Revolutionary War. The DAR Patriot Index says only that he performed patriotic service in the Revolution. There is a Wake County deed dated 1786 from Isaac Hunter (probably Jacob's father) to Jacob Hunter [Cain, "William Andrew Jeffreys"].

131.12 David Hunter, d 1815. Married Ghaskey McElroy. David Hunter moved to TN. Note that Theophilus Hunter received a grant 21 Jul 1761 on the north side of Crabtree Creek "joining McIlroys line."

131.13 Alexander Hunter, d 1821. Brent Holcomb and Willis Briggs erroneously say that Alexander Hunter married 24 Feb 1798 Frances Ally Jones. Examination of original marriage bond indicates a marriage between Isaac Hunter and Frances Ally Jones. An Alexander Hunter appears in Adams County, Mississippi, in the 1820 census. Alexander Hunter, "a native of NC, but ... a citizen of Natchez for some years" died in Milledgeville, GA 26 Dec 1821 [Neal]

131.14 Michael Hunter. Did not marry. Briggs says he was

"peculiar".

131.15 Pherebee Hunter. Married 11 Mar 1783 Joseph Lane, d 1798. Spelled Ferubey [MWC]. Joseph Lane was a Justice of the county Court of Wake in 1771 ["Lane of Surry" in BoddieSVF].

131.16 Delilah Hunter, d bef 1793. Married (1) 26 Jun 1773 Col. James Hinton [MWC, Hinton]. Married (2) 13 May 1786 Reuben Sanders [MWC], b 26 Aug 1764, d 29 Dec 1829. Reuben Sanders m 16 Nov 1793 Karen Ann Smith. E. E. Ross in Wake County Heritage says his first wife was Delilah Hinton.

131.17 Rebecca Hunter, d Sep 1800 [Neal]. Married Benjamin Lockhart, d 2 Feb 1800 [Neal].

Isaac Hunter (Crabtree) 131.1 / Charlotte Thomas

131.18 Capt. Anderson Hunter, d Oct 1819 [Neal]. Married 19 Oct 1813 Martha C. Ward of Warren County, NC, d/o Capt William Ward and wife Prudence. Marriage bond Warren County, NC 29 Sep 1813. Isaac Howze best man, Jno. H. Green witness [Warren]. Neal lists him as Capt. Anderson Hunter of Wake County. After the death of Anderson Hunter, his widow married 27 Feb 1824 Maj. Archibald Hopkins [Neal].

131.19 Norfleet Hunter.

131.10 Elizabeth Hunter. Married (1) Wm Camp. Married (2) 3 Mar 1808 Durrell Rogers [Neal], d 1852.

131.11 Louise Hunter. Married 18 Aug 1804 James House [Neal].

131.12 Charlotte Hunter. Married 31 Dec 1804 (Marriage bond) Green Davis, s/o Jonathan Davis and wife Winnifred.

131.13 Frances T. (Fanny) Hunter. Married 7 Dec 1816 Burwell P. Jones [MWC].

Theophilus Hunter 131.2 / ?

131.21 Delilah Hunter. Married 26 Jun 1773 Col. James Hinton [MWC, Hinton]. James Hinton died before will of Theophilus Hunter recorded 5 Feb 1799, since reference is made to James Hinton deceased.

Theophilus Hunter 131.2 / Jane Smith Williams (?)

131.22 Edith Hunter. Married May 1786 Britain Sanders [MWC]. Britain Sanders will 18 Dec 1793.

131.23 Irene Hunter. Married James Lane before will of Theophilus Hunter 5 Feb 1799 since reference is made to children.

131.24 Mary (Polly) Hunter, d 1838. Married Gabriel Homes, b 1769, d 1829. Gabriel Homes was Governor of NC 1821 - 1824.

131.25 Capt. Theophilus Hunter, Jr., b 1768, d 1840. Married 1797 Martha Maria Green [DAC, 248], d 27 Nov 1828 [Neal]. He was a Captain in the War of 1812 [Battle]. Neal says that Theophilus Hunter lost two of his children in a short time.

131.26 Osborne Hunter, b 1772, d 22 May 1810 in Johnston County, NC. Married 27 Nov 1800 Elizabeth (Betsey) Hunt, d/o John Hunt, Esq. [Neal].

131.27 Henry Hunter, d 24 Jul 1810 [Neal]. Married 7 Dec 1803 in Franklin County, NC, Nancy Seawell, d/o Joseph Seawell and sister of state Attorney General. Henry Hunter lived in Wake County, NC [Neal].

Reuben Hunter 131.3 / Sarah Speight

131.31 Isaac Hunter [Swift Creek], d 1831. Married Mary Isaac Hunter may have had a previous wife. A marriage bond dated 24 Feb 1798 for Isaac Hunter, Jr. and Francis Ally Jones, signed by Alse Hunter and David Hunter, exists (Author has xerographic copy). David Hunter, #131.12, was son of Isaac Hunter of Crabtree. Isaac Hunter of Swift Creek used "Jr" in his name to distinguish himself from Isaac Hunter of Crabtree, his uncle. On the other hand, the Isaac, Jr. of the marriage bond may have been Isaac, Jr., #131.111, died 1811, s/o Jacob Hunter. The author has a xerographic copy of Isaac Hunter's will, dated 21 Jan 1829; executors were sons Alsey and Joseph. Isaac Hunter was administrator at estate sale of his father Reuben 30 May 1797 [Wynne].

131.32 Reuben Hunter, Jr., b 4 Oct 1761 in Wake County, North Carolina, d 15 Jul 1833, bur family cemetery overlooking "Hunter's Hollow," a few miles north of Fayetteville, Tennessee. Married 15 Feb 1783 Cynthia Utley, b 1762, d Oct 1854, bur same family cemetery as Reuben, d/o John Utley and Mary Cook [McCormick]. Author has marriage bond xerographic copy. According to McCormick, Reuben Hunter, Jr. moved from Wake County to what is now Lincoln County, Tennessee, although it may have been at that time Bedford County before Lincoln County was cut from Bedford. They lived in Hunter's Hollow along Norris Creek. Four brothers of Reuben Hunter, Jr. moved from Wake County, North Carolina, to Sumner County, Tennessee. Reuben Hunter, Jr. left a will in Lincoln County, Tennessee. It was signed 11 Aug 1832 and recorded 15 Dec 1833. Named were wife Cynthia, Polly McElroy, wife of William McElroy, Sherrod Hunter, and Sally Davis, wife of Elijah Davis. Sherrod was executor. Witnesses were James Higgins and William Edmiston. Cynthia Utley Hunter left a will in Lincoln County, Tennessee, dated 19 Aug 1840, with codicil 18 Aug 1843, probated 6 Nov 1854. Named were daughter Polly, wife of William McElroy, niece Dicy Taylor, widow of James Scott, grandson R. A. McDonald, grandson

William Hunter, daughter Sarah, wife of Elijah Davis, grandchildren Katherine and Polly Davis (children of Sarah), grandchildren Nancy Ann, Sherrod, and Frances Elizabeth Hunter (children of Sherrod). Named also were son-in-law Elijah Davis and four of his children (by another wife). Reuben A. McDonald was executor and guardian of grandchildren Nancy Ann, Sherrod, and Frances Elizabeth Hunter (children of Sherrod). Signed 19 Aug 1840, codicil 18 Aug 1843, proved 6 Nov 1854. Author has transcript of will. In 1850 Cynthia A. Hunter, 81, lived with William McElroy in Lincoln County [1850 Cross Index, Tennessee]. The ages do not match if she was Cynthia Utley.

131.33 Theophilus Hunter, d 1818 in Sumner County, Tennessee. Married Edith Parnell. This is speculative, based on the facts that his brother Needham married Polly Parnell, and John Parnell and Edith Hunter were administrators at a sale of his estate 17 Mar 1818. Needham Hunter was a buyer [Sumner Inventories, pps 357 and 364]. A Theophilus Hunter, Jr. was a buyer at the estate sale of Reuben Hunter of Wake County, NC, 30 May 1797 [Wynne]. Probably it was this son of Reuben.

131.34 Cader Hunter. Married Phoebe Dinning. Carter (Cader) Hunter was witness to a deed Isaac Bracken to Albert Hendrix 14 Feb 1800 in Sumner County, Tennessee. Cader Hunter bought 240 acres from Isaac Bracken 9 Feb 1800 in Sumner County [Sumner Deeds]. Cader Hunter was bondsman for John Dinning and Elizabeth Whitworth 21 Aug 1806 in that county [Porch]. Cader Hunter was named in will of John Dinning 17 Feb 1837 as husband of his daughter Phebe. Considering that his brother Reuben moved to TN (Lincoln County), and his brother Dempsey also moved to TN, and that a Needham Hunter married in 1808 in Sumner County, TN, it appears likely that several brothers left NC for Tennessee. Cader Hunter, probably the son of Cader Hunter, #131.34, married 13 May 1840 Louisa Jane Morris in Sumner County. Cader Hunter, b 1820, appeared in the 1850 census of Sumner County, TN, with wife Lavisa or Lavina (Louisa?), b 1813, and children Sarah, Lucinda, and Mary, aged respectively 10, 9, and 2, and a Sarah Ann Hunter, aged 18.

131.35 Whitmel Hunter. Married 22 Jul 1799 Elizabeth Hornsby. Buyer at estate sale of Reuben Hunter 30 May 1797 [Wynne].

131.36 Dempsey Hunter. Married 23 Oct 1799 Susannah Pair [MWC]. A query in the Virginia Genealogist, vol 4, p 47, asks if she was the daughter of John and Susanna Pair of Sussex County, Virginia. Another query in the Virginia Gazette 1959-1962 lists their children and says they lived in Tennessee. A Dempsey Hunter was a bondsman for John Settles and Polly Covington 1 Aug 1821 in Sumner County, TN. The 1820 census of Sumner County, Tennessee, shows Dempsey Hunter with 3 M < 10, 1 M 10-16, 1 M > 45, 3 F < 10, 1 F 10-16, and 1 F 26-45. According to Branch, his son, James Madison Hunter, was born in Madisonville, Tennessee, near Knoxville [Branch]. His date of birth was 1813, and since Dempsey Hunter was in Sumner County in 1820, James Madison may have been born after the family left Wake County, NC, and before they reached Sumner County, Tennessee.

131.37 Needham Hunter, b 1780-1790, d 1844. Youngest child or youngest son [Hunter]. Needham Hunter married (1) 15 Dec 1808 in Sumner County, TN Polly Parnell [Porch, TennMar]. Married (2) Elizabeth Morgan? He was witness to a deed 14 Jul 1803 in Sumner County. Needham Hunter was in the 1840 census of Sumner County with 1 M 60-70, 2 M 20-30, 2 F 20-30, and 2 F 10-15. Needham Hunter left a will in Sumner County, Tennessee, dated 11 Apr 1844, probated Dec 1844, naming wife Elizabeth, d/o Charles Morgan. The will also mentioned children but did not name them except daughter Mary "who never lived at home." Executor Joseph Smith. [Sumner Wills]

131.38 Edith Hunter, d 1815. Married 24 Oct 1801 Hardy McGuffie. [MWC].

131.39 Winifred Hunter. Buyer at estate sale of Reuben Hunter 30 May 1797 [Wynne].

131.30 Sarah Hunter, b 1775, d 1833. Married William Clifton.

131.31 Lydia Hunter. Buyer at estate sale of Reuben Hunter 30 May 1797 [Wynne].

131.32 Elizabeth Hunter, b 1775, d 1833.

131.33 Patience Hunter.

131.34 Mary (Polly) Hunter.

Thomas Hunter 131.4 / Priscilla Smith

131.41 Thomas Hunter. Moved to Montgomery County, Tennessee. Thomas Hunter received 88 acres from division of lands of Thomas Hunter in 1824 [Watson]. Two Dempsey Hunters were in Montgomery County, also. Their birthplace was listed as SC in the 1850 census [Curry]. It has been speculated elsewhere in these notes that Dempsey Hunter, #131.5, or the son of William, #111, lived in Richland County, SC.

131.42 Cordial Norfleet Hunter, b 1775-1794, d Jan or Feb 1836. Married Martha Daniel, b ca 1786, d 1859-59, d/o David Daniel. Cordial Norfleet Hunter received money and slaves in a property division of David Daniel in 1826 [Watson]. Appeared in Nash County, NC, census in 1810, 1820, and 1830. He left a will in Nash County 19 Jan 1836, probated Feb 1936 [Nash Wills]. Named wife and children, executors Jesse H. Drake and son Isaac B. Hunter. Martha Hunter left will in Nash County 28 Jan 1849, probated Feb 1859. Named son Isaac B. Hunter and wife Martha. Legatees John E. Deans (executor), Joanna Deans, Henry D. Hunter, John H. Hunter, Cordial N. Hunter, Weldon S. Hunter, children of Thomas Hunter: Sally Ann Hunter, Joanna Hunter. Reference of adjacency in will of Solomon Edwards 1820 in Nash County. Cordial Norfleet Hunter received 113 acres from division of lands of Thomas Hunter in 1824 [Watson].

131.43 Drew Hunter, b ca 1775. Appeared in Nash County, NC, census in 1800, 1810, 1820, and 1830. He received 89 1/2 acres in division of lands of Thomas Hunter in 1824 [Watson].

131.44 Elizabeth Hunter. Either Elizabeth Hunter or her sister Polly was born 1774-1784.

131.45 Polly Hunter. Married Loderick F. Ellin, s/o Howell Ellin. See #131.44. Loderick Ellin received money from the division of the estate of Howell Ellin 9 Feb 1810 in Nash County [Watson].

133.31 George H. Dudley, b 25 Oct 1787, d 20 Aug 1822. Married Catherine Fisher, born Fuller, d/o Nathan Fuller. Thomas Dudley married both Jamima Hunter, #133.1, and Elizabeth Hunter. The mother of George H. Dudley may have been either Jamima or Elizabeth. Fisher attributes all children to Elizabeth.

133.32 Cassandra Dudley. Married Jeremiah Watson, s/o Moses Watson,

John Hunter 135.1 / Alce

135.11 Theophilus Hunter [Olds], b ca 1774, [Gates census 1800 and 1810, and deed 9 Dec 1798 indicating maturity], d ca 1820. Theophilus Hunter appeared in land records in Gates County from 1794 to 1802. There was a deed John Hunter to Theophilus Hunter 14 Oct 1794 in Gates County [Gates Deeds]. Theophilus Hunter was also mentioned in a deed John Hunter to William Lassiter 5 Feb 1800 in Gates County [Gates Deeds]. This John Hunter was probably the brother of Theophilus, since his father John was dead. Theophilus Hunter was not named in the will of John Hunter, #135.1, in 1771, but was named in the will of Alce Hunter in 1781. It may be that he had already taken his part of John Hunter's property before John Hunter died in 1771. John P. Hudgens was named administrator of the estate of Theophilus Hunter in May 1820. Hudgens submitted the estate inventory in Aug 1820 [Gates Court, 1133]. Theophilus Hunter was a taxpayer in Gates in 1786 [NC Taxpayers]. He appeared in the census of Gates County, NC, in 1800 and 1810. There was a deed in Gates County 4 Feb 1829 Henry Hunter to Elizabeth Reed referring to undivided right in land belonging to Theophilus Hunter, deceased [Gates Deeds, Book 14]. Henry Hunter may have been the son of Theophilus Hunter.

135.12 John Hunter, b 1755-1774 [Gates census 1800], d 1808. Married Chloe Harrell, b 1755-1774, d/o Samuel Harrell. John Hunter was listed in the 1800 census of Gates, but not in 1810. A Cloi Hunter was listed in the 1810 census of Gates, 1 female 16-26, 1 female under 10. Riddick Hunter, s/o John Hunter, was not listed with Chloe Hunter in 1810 because he was bound to Joseph Gordon in May 1809 as an apprentice to learn blacksmithing [Gates Court, May 1809]. Note that Joseph Gordon was an administrator of the estate of Isaac Hunter, Jr., #121.22. Estate of John Hunter was listed 10 Jan 1809 in Gates County, NC listing a parcel of carpenter's and cooper's tools, and 1 slate. Samuel Harrell was administrator [Gates Wills, Vol III, Gates Court, 1809]. The estate of Samuel Harrell was listed 14 Aug 1811 naming Chloe Hunter. See #135.12 for deed identifying John as brother to William Hunter and son of John Hunter. A John Hunter, identified as an orphan, was a taxpayer in Gates in 1786 [NC Taxpayers]. See #135.11 for deeds involving John Hunter in Gates County.

135.13 William Hunter, b 1755-1765 [Gates census 1800 and 1810], d 1813. Married (1) Seneth Trotman, d ca 1807. Married (2) Christian Rountree?. It is probable that after his death, Christian Hunter married Frederick Jones, since Christian Jones, "late widow of William Hunter," was named in the Aug 1816 Court of Pleas [Gates Court, #949], and Frederick Jones was appointed guardian to William Hunter's son Elisha [Gates Court] and identified as guardian to orphans of William Hunter [Gates Court, #1040]. Thomas Hunter was witness to will of Amos Trotman 10 May 1790 [Gates Wills, Vol I]. A William Hunter appears often in deeds in Gates County from 1784 to 1796. A deed of 2 Feb 1790 from John Hunter and his wife Chloe to William Hunter refers to the two sons, John and William, of John Hunter. It refers to land granted to William Hunter, #1. William and Senith Hunter were witnesses to a deed 11 May 1792 from John Hunter to James Gregory [Gates Deeds]. A William Hunter left a will in Gates County dated 24 Mar 1813 [Gates Wills, Vol II]. Named were wife Christian and children (named explicitly as children) John Hunter, Leah Hunter, Timothy Hunter, Elisha Hunter, and Julia Hunter. Executors were Job Winslow and Timothy Freeman, so it is probable that his sons were minors at his death. A codicil to the will names three of William Hunter's children, namely Leah Hunter, Timothy Hunter, and Elisha Hunter as grandchildren of Ezekiel Trotman. The will was presented to the May 1813 Court by Timothy Freeman [Gates Court]. In the Gates Court of Pleas Nov 1807, William Hunter was appointed guardian to Celia Hunter, Leah Hunter, Timothy Hunter, Elisha Hunter, and Cynthia Hunter. Of these, Celia and Cynthia were not named in his will, but are assumed here to be his children. The estate of William Hunter was listed 22 May 1813, naming Jos Gregory and listing 2 large jugs and 1 brandy still. Timothy Freeman was executor. The will of Alce Hunter implies that William was still a minor, so John Hunter will be treated as the older here. A William Hunter was a taxpayer in Gates in 1786 [NC Taxpayers]. The will of Ezekiel Trotman in 1804 in Gates County, NC, indicated that his daughter Seneth or Seneath married a Hunter, and a codicil to William Hunter's will in 1813 referred to three of his children as grandchildren of Ezekiel Trotman. On 18 May 1818, a Gates County court ordered a division of property left to William Hunter's children by Ezekiel Trotman [Gates Court]. The speculation that his second wife was named Rountree is based only on the fact that Thomas Hunter was executor of the will of Thomas Rountree in 1781 who left an unmarried daughter named Christian [Gates Wills].

135.14 Mary Hunter.

Nicholas Hunter 135.2 / Susannah Buchanan

135.21 Hardy Hunter. A Hardy Hunter, either this one or #135.3, was a buyer at the estate sale of Jas. McCain 26 Jul 1766 in Bertie County [Bertie Estates].

135.22 Nicholas Hunter. Lived in Duplin County, NC. A Nicholas Hunter married Bettie Lewis, and a child was born in 1789 in Virginia, but there is no reason to believe that it was this Nicholas [Wulfeck]. Son was born 1 Oct 1789, named Nicholas [Bible of Rev. William Douglas in "Genealogies of Virginia Families," John F. Dorman, ed. Genealogical Publishing Co., 1981]. William Douglas identifies his wife as Nicholas Hunter, b Sep 1715 in Scotland, d 31 Dec 1781. Her father was James Hunter. He does not give the lineage of Nicholas Hunter who married Bettie Lewis, but from the information given, it appears that the Nicholas Hunter who married Bettie Lewis was not a descendant of William Hunter of Nansemond. A Nicholas Hunter, either this one or #135.2, received money from the estate of Nathaniel Holley 13 Feb 1788 in Bertie County [Bertie Estates].

Will in Bertie County 7 Apr 1790, proved Aug 1790, naming wife Elizabeth, children Humphrey and Hardy, and an unborn child [Gammon]. The unborn child was identified by Hardy Hunter, 135.3, as Cader Hunter. Appeared in NC census 1784-1787 in Bertie County, with household of 1 white male 21-60, 1 white male under 21 or over 60, 2 white females, and 5 naming Jos Gregory and listing 2 large jugs and 1 brandy still. Timothy Freeman was executor. The will of Alce Hunter implies that William was still a minor, so John Hunter will be treated as the older here. A William Hunter was a taxpayer in Gates in 1786 [NC Taxpayers]. The will of Ezekiel Trotman in 1804 in Gates County, NC, indicated that his daughter Seneth or Seneath married a Hunter, and a codicil to William Hunter's will in 1813 referred to three of his children as grandchildren of Ezekiel Trotman. On 18 May 1818, a Gates County court ordered a division of property left to William Hunter's children by Ezekiel Trotman [Gates Court]. The speculation that his second wife was named Rountree is based only on the fact that Thomas Hunter was executor of the will of Thomas Rountree in 1781 who left an unmarried daughter named Christian [Gates Wills].

Hardy Hunter 135.3 / Rachel ...

135.31 Cader Hunter, d 1790. Probably born in Bertie County, NC. Married Elizabeth... . Will 1790 [Ray]. Will in Bertie County 7 Apr 1790, proved Aug 1790, naming wife Elizabeth, children Humphrey and Hardy, and an unborn child [Gammon]. The unborn child was identified by Hardy Hunter, 135.3, as Cader Hunter. Appeared in NC census 1784-1787 in Bertie County, with household of 1 white male 21-60, 1 white male under 21 or over 60, 2 white females, and 5 blacks. Cader Hunter was a buyer at an estate sale 9 Mar 1789 "on the Chowan." [Bertie Estates].

135.32 William Hunter. Probably born in Bertie County, NC. Married Mary ... [DAR]. Married 10 May 1796 in Bertie County Mary Lewis, Hardy Freeman best man [Fouts]. Note that Hardy Freeman married Senith Hunter, sister of William Hunter. A William Hunter, either this or or #135.4, was a buyer at the estate sale of ... Bentley 1 Mar 1787 in Bertie County [Bertie Estates]. Named in his father's will in 1792. William Hunter was executor, with Timothy Hunter, of the will of their brother Cader Hunter in 1790.

135.33 Timothy Hunter. Probably born in Bertie County, NC. See Timothy Hunter, #135.7. See also Timothy Hunter, #135.132. A Timothy Hunter was involved in estate sales in Bertie County 5 Apr 1782 (listed as Capt. Timothy Hunter), 5 Mar 1784, 8 Jul 1785, 16 Sep 1785, and 13 Feb 1788 (evidently an executor of the estate of Nathaniel Holley for this sale). It is probable that the listing of Capt. referred to Timothy Hunter, #135.7, but the other transactions may have been with #135.34. Timothy Hunter was named in his father's will in 1792. Timothy Hunter, Jr. was executor, with William Hunter, of the will of Cader Hunter in 1790; Timothy Hunter (no Jr. listed) was a witness. A Timothy Hunter married 11 Jun 1799 in Bertie County Synthey Hunter [Fouts]. It was probably this one.

135.34 Joshua Hunter. Probably born in Bertie County, NC. Named in father's will in 1792.

135.35 Sarah Hunter. Probably born in Bertie County, NC. Married ... Perry. Named in father's will as Sarah Perry in 1792.

135.36 Christian Hunter. Probably born in Bertie County, NC. Named in father's will in 1792.

135.37 Senith ("Seinnuth") Hunter. Probably born in Bertie County, NC. Named in father's will in 1792. Married 4 Apr 1796 in Bertie County Hardy Freeman. William Hunter was best man [Fouts].

135.38 Mary Hunter. Probably born in Bertie County, NC. Named in father's will in 1792. Unmarried in 1792. A Polly Hunter married 27 Jan 1807 in Bertie County Daniel Rascoe [Fouts].

SIXTH GENERATION

Isaac Hunter Jr. 121.22 / Nancy ...

121.221 Thomas B. Hunter, b 1805-1810, d 1834-1840. Married 5 Feb 1829 Emily Eliza Riddick. Bond 2 Feb 1829. Bondsman Willis F.

Riddick. Thomas B. Hunter is identified as the son of Isaac Hunter, Jr. by several court records. In Feb 1817, Timothy Walton Sr. was appointed guardian to Thomas, Elisha H., and Isaac Hunter, children of Isaac Hunter, Jr. [Gates Court, #966]. Walton died about 1826 and was replaced as guardian by Thomas Twine [Gates Court, Aug 1826, #1448]. Twine was still guardian in May 1828 [Gates Court, #29], so evidently Thomas was still a minor. At his marriage 5 Feb 1829 he was presumably adult. He was clearly an adult in 1831 and appears in court records. It appears that he was born about 1810. He was a juror Feb 1832. On 1 Nov 1834 he bought 515 acres for $2400 on the main road from Gatesville to Sunbury. His wife was named as Elizabeth. He does not appear in the Gates County census of 1840. An Emily Hunter appears, but that was the widow of Isaac Riddick Hunter. In the 1820 Gates census, an Ann Hunter was listed with one male, aged 10 to 15, and two males under 10. Ann was probably short for Nancy, wife of Isaac Hunter, Jr. See discussion under #121.22.

There is some uncertainty about the marriages of Edward Riddick Hunter, #125.12, Isaac Riddick Hunter, #125.13, Thomas B. Hunter, #121.221, and Isaac Hunter, #221.223, and the same discussion will be given for each. Cross says that Edward Riddick Hunter married Martha Sumner Riddick, d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. and Elizabeth Sumner Riddick (born Riddick), b 14 Feb 1772, d 14 Feb 1836, and that Isaac Riddick Hunter married 7 Jan 1817 her sister, Emily Baker Riddick, b 14 Dec 1796, d 1879. This is supported by the 1850 census listing Martha S. as the wife of Edward Riddick Hunter, by the appearance of Emily Hunter for the first time in the 1840 census after the death of Isaac Riddick Hunter in 1835, by census data showing Emily Hunter with some of the known children of Isaac Riddick Hunter, by the will of Emily Hunter naming certain of the known children of Isaac Riddick Hunter as her children, and by the close relationship between Emily Hunter and the family of Edward Riddick Hunter after the death of Isaac Riddick Hunter. Note also that both Edward Riddick Hunter and Isaac Riddick Hunter had sons using Micajah, unusual in the Hunter family, as a middle name. It is also strongly supported by the naming of Micajah Riddick and his wife Elizabeth in Isaac Hunter's Bible [Nansemond Bible]. It is contradicted mildly by 1850 census data for Emily Hunter showing her age as 51 (or possibly 57), both of which disagree with Emily Riddick's birthdate of 1796 given by Cross. On the other hand, Norfleet says that Martha S. Riddick, d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr., married Isaac R. Hunter and that her sister Emily married Thomas H? Hunter. This is supported by the 1850 census of Nansemond County, Virginia, listing Isaac R. Hunter, b ca 1817, as a minister, with wife Martha S. Hunter, b ca 1815. Elizabeth, wife of Micajah Riddick, Jr., was born in 1772, so it is possible that Martha S. Hunter, b ca 1815, could be her daughter, but more likely that the wife of Edward Riddick Hunter would be. There was a marriage between Thomas B. Hunter and Emily Eliza Riddick 5 Feb 1829 in Gates County, NC [Norfleet], and the marriage bond 2 Feb 1829 was signed by Willis F. Riddick [Neal], son of Micajah Riddick, Jr. In a deed of 1 Nov 1834, the wife of Thomas B. Hunter was Elizabeth, but that might merely be the use of her middle name [Gates Deeds, Book 15, #200]. Robert Riddick, brother of Micajah Riddick, Jr., had a daughter Emily, but she apparently married James McGuire [Norfleet, Will of Micajah Riddick, Jr., transcribed as McGuin]. He also had a daughter Louisa, b ca 1815, who married an Isaac R. Hunter [Norfleet]. The will of Robert Riddick, 27 Jun 1840, mentions his daughter Louisa Hunter. On 25 Dec 1843 a deed from Isaac R. Hunter to Luke Green was signed by a Louisa Hunter as a witness. In summary, Edward Riddick Hunter married Martha S. ..., who may have been Martha S. Riddick and may have been d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. Isaac Riddick Hunter married Emily ..., who may have been Emily Riddick and may have been d/o Micajah Riddick Jr. Thomas B. Hunter married Emily Eliza Riddick, who may have been d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. [Cross, Norfleet].

In a deed 1 Nov 1834 the wife of Thomas B. Hunter was named Elizabeth, but that could have been the use of the middle name [Gates Deeds, #202]. A Thomas Hunter appears in the 1830 Gates County, NC, census, aged 20-30, with a wife in the same age bracket. With Thomas Hunter in 1830 are a male, aged 15-20, and a female, aged 15-20. The male was perhaps one of his younger brothers, Isaac or Elisha H. Hunter. Thomas Hunter has not been found in a Gates County census later than 1830. Thomas Hunter owned 15 slaves in 1830.

121.222 Elisha H. Hunter, b 1810-1816, d 1831. In the 1820 Gates census, an Ann Hunter was listed with one male, aged 10 to 15, and two males under 10. Ann may have been short for Nancy, wife of Isaac Hunter, Jr. See discussion under #121.22. Timothy Walton Sen was appointed guardian to Elisha Hunter Feb 1817 [Gates Court, #966] and was still guardian in 1822 and 1823 [Gates Court, #1226, #1264]. Thomas Twine was guardian to Elisha H. Hunter, orphan s/o Isaac Hunter Feb 1830 [Gates Court]. See Isaac Hunter, 121.22, for a discussion of the appointment of guardians while the mother of Elisha H. Hunter was alive. Thomas B. Hunter was administrator for Elisha H. Hunter, deceased, in Nov 1831 [Gates Court]. Another Elisha Hunter, #135.134, b 1800-1810, lived in Gates County contemporaneously with #121.222. Elisha, #135.134, appeared in the 1830 and 1840 Gates censuses.

121.223 Isaac Hunter, b 1810-1817. In the 1820 Gates census, an Ann Hunter was listed with one male, aged 10 to 15, and two males under 10. Ann was probably short for Nancy, wife of Isaac Hunter, Jr., #121.22. See discussion under #121.22. Timothy Walton Sen. was appointed guardian to Isaac Hunter Feb 1817 [Gates Court, #966] and was still guardian in 1822 and 1823 [Gates Court, #1226, #1264]. Thomas Twine was guardian to Isaac Hunter, orphan s/o Isaac Hunter Feb 1830 [Gates Court]. An Isaac Hunter, b 1810-1820, was in the 1840 Gates County census with a wife b 1810-1820 and a son b 1835-1840. That was not Isaac Riddick Hunter, Jr., #125.132, who was born in 1829. An Isaac R. Hunter, b ca 1817, was in the 1850 census of Nansemond County, Virginia, with wife, Martha S., b ca 1815, son Robert, b ca 1840, daughter Emily S., b ca 1842, daughter Arminella (Artemisia?), b ca 1845, and son Isaac N., b 1849. Parents and children were born in North Carolina. This is taken speculatively to be Isaac Hunter, #121.223, on the basis of age and the birth in North Carolina. An Isaac R. Hunter was listed in the estate inventory of Isaac Hunter, Jr., # 121.22, 17 Jan 1817, with notes payable to Isaac Hunter, Jr. Isaac, #122.223, was a minor at the time.

There is some uncertainty about the marriages of Edward Riddick Hunter, #125.12, Isaac Riddick Hunter, #125.13, Thomas B. Hunter, #121.221, and Isaac Hunter, #221.223, and the same discussion will be given for each. Cross says that Edward Riddick Hunter married Martha Sumner Riddick, d/o Micajah Riddick, Jr. and Elizabeth Sumner Riddick (born Riddick), b 14 Feb 1772, d 14 Feb 1836, and that Isaac Riddick Hunter married 7 Jan 1817 her sister, Emily Baker Riddick, b 14 Dec 1796, d 1879. This is supported by the 1850 census listing Martha S. as the wife of Edward Riddick Hunter, by the appearance of Emily Hunter for the first time in the 1840 census after the death of Isaac Riddick Hunter in 1835, by census data showing Emily Hunter with some of the known children of Isaac Riddick Hunter, by the will of Emily Hunter naming certain of the known children of Isaac Riddick Hunter as her children, and by the close relationship between Emily Hunter and the family of Edward Riddick Hunter after the death of Isaac Riddick Hunter. Lemuel Green 122.21 / Ann (Nancy) Merritt

122.211 Caroline Merritt Green, b 1811. Married 9 Mar 1832 Thomas J. Bedell, b 1802, d 1853.

Ref [Hinton].

William H. Hunter 123.31 / Sarah Elizabeth Jones

123.312 William Green Jones Hunter, b 24 Jul 1819, North Carolina, d 9 Oct 1894 while visiting in Texas, bur Maury County, Tennessee. Married 5 Sep 1845 Malvina R. Dickison, b 23 Jun 1829, Tennessee, d 15 Oct 1888, Maury County, Tennessee.

Edward Riddick Hunter 125.12 / Martha Sumner Riddick

125.121 Mary Eliza (Elizabeth) Hunter, b ca 1811, d 1861-62. Named in will, 1846, of aunt Artemisia Hunter Bozman Ramsey [Pasquotank]. Did not marry. Mary Eliza Hunter left a will in Gates County, NC, 5 Jul 1861, proved May 1862. Mary Eliza Hunter fell from a horse when she was small and was an invalid as a result. Her father appeared to favor her in his will. Cross says she was "the pet of the family," and was known as "Little Lame Aunt." [Cross].

125.122 Edward Riddick Hunter, Jr., b ca 1820-1825. Married Carmi Watts. Named in will, 1846, of aunt Artemisia Hunter Bozman Ramsey [Pasquotank]. Witness to deed 6 Mar 1841 Richard H. Ramsey to Mary Eliza Hunter [Gates Deeds, Books 17 & 18, No. 444].

125.123 Rev. William Isaac Hunter, b ca 1826, d 10 Sep 1870 [Gates Bible]. Married Sarah B. Roberts [Cross].

125.124 Artemisia Maria Hunter, b 1820-1825, d bef 1860. Married 15 Mar 1841 Joseph Mullen. After her death, Joseph Mullen married, probably 22 Feb 1861, Cornelia A. Hunter, #125.139, d/o Isaac Riddick Hunter and Emily Baker Riddick. Cross says Mullen married as his second wife 10 Jan 1859 Cornelia Ann Hunter, parents unknown to Cross, who lived only a short time, and married 22 Feb 1861 as his third wife Cornelia Hunter, d/o Isaac Riddick Hunter and Emily Baker Riddick. Cross also says that in 1860, Joseph Mullen lived in Elizabeth City, NC with wife Artemisia and sons Joseph, age 6, and Edward, age 3. One of the names is incorrect and the ages do not correspond to the grandsons of Edward Riddick Hunter. In addition, Henry Mullen, age 9, was listed with Henry Holmes Hunter in the 1860 census of Gates County. That suggests that there were two Joseph Mullens.

125.125 Willis Micajah Hunter, b ca 1825-1830. He left home before the 1850 census.

125.126 Dr. Henry Holmes Hunter, b 17 Mar 1830 at "Beech Spring," Gates County, NC, near Sunbury [Cross], d 21 Sep 1888. In the Bible of Henry Holmes Hunter [Gates Bible] the birth of H. H. Hunter son of Elbert Alston Cheek and Martha S. Hunter (Riddick) is given as March 17th, 1830 (the correct date). That is an error and the writer, or transcriber, may have intended to write Edward Riddick Hunter instead of Elbert Alston Cheek. If interpreted that way, it confirms the marriage of Edward Riddick Hunter and Martha Sumner Hunter. Married 16 Feb 1858 Mary Hinton Cheek, b 3 Jan 1833, d 10 Dec 1903, d/o Elbert Alston Cheek, b 14 Feb 1803, and Susan S. Hayes, b 1 Dec 1809. Married in Warren County, NC. P. H. Joyner best man [Warren, Gates Bible]. Even though he did not marry until 1858, he apparently left home before the 1850 census. He was the executor of Emily Hunter and named nephew in her will 10 Sep 1867, proved 8 Oct 1879. In 1860, Henry Mullen, son of Joseph Mullen and Artemisia Maria Hunter, lived with Henry Holmes Hunter. At the same time, Cornelia A. Hunter, age 25, lived with Isaac R. Hunter, evidently her brother. In 1860 an M. E. Hunter, female b ca 1812, lived with Henry Holmes Hunter, and also an A. M. Mitchell, female b ca 1843.

Henry Holmes Hunter received his medical training from the University of Pennsylvania and began medical practice in Gates County. When the Civil War began he enlisted in the Confederate Army and on 16 Jul 1861 he was commissioned Surgeon and assigned to the First Cavalry, Ninth Regiment. The Ninth Regiment fought at First Manassas and later at Frederick, Sharpsburg, Harpers Ferry, and Gettysburg. In the later part of the War, Dr. Hunter was in command of Way Hospital No. 1 at Weldon, NC. After the War, Dr. Hunter returned to Gates County and resumed his medical practice. He was offered a position on the staff of Bellevue Hospital in New York City, but declined and recommended a friend, Simon Baruch of South Carolina, who accepted. Simon Baruch was the father of Bernard Baruch, the financier. During the War his wife, Mary Hinton Cheek, moved to her old home and there her two children died. After the War they returned to Gates County.

125.127 Sophia Caroline Hunter, b ca 1833. Married aft 1850 Dr. Thomas C. Hines (his second marriage) according to the will of Mary Eliza Hunter [Gates Wills, Cross]. She was named in the will, 1846, of aunt Artemisia Hunter Bozman Ramsey [Pasquotank]. Thomas C. Hines was in the 1850 census of Nansemond County with wife Sarah A., b 1827.

125.128 Capt. James Beverly Hunter, b ca 1834. Married 16 Jun 1857 Martha Harrison Burwell, b ca 1838 [Granville Mar], d/o John Spotswood Burwell and Sarah Elizabeth Hayes [Cross, p 44]. He lived in Gates County in 1860, but evidently moved to Granville County. There was a marriage 10 Jun 1863 between his cousin Mary Elizabeth Riddick McCampbell and Orren Randolph Smith at the home of Capt.

James Beverly Hunter in Granville County [Gates Bible]. J. B. Hunter, age 27, was in the 1860 Gates census with wife Martha, age 22. He was a farmer with $4000 in real property and $15000 in personal property. Cross says that at one time he was editor of a newspaper in Durham, NC.

Ages estimated from comparison of will of Edward Riddick Hunter and the censuses of 1830, 1840, and 1850.

Isaac Riddick Hunter 125.13 / Emily Baker Riddick

125.131 Jacob Edward Hunter, b 18 Jul 1818, d 27 Dec 1846 [Cross]. Jacob E. Hunter was trustee for Willis F. Riddick in 1843 and 1844. A Jacob Hunter or Hinton, b 1818, appears in the Gates County census of 1850. With him are Leah, age 22, who might have been a second wife, Mary E., 11, William T., 7, Sarah, 4, and Sarah Grey, 25. A Jacob Hinton did live in Gates at that time [Gates Deeds, 8 Jan 1844, #523]. A Jacob E. Hunter was witness to a deed James Costen to Isaac R. Hunter 14 May 1830. It seems unlikely that this Jacob E. Hunter, age 12, could have served, and Jacob Hunter, #125.11, died in 1810.

125.132 Richard Micajah Hunter, b 5 Jul 1820, d 5 Aug 1837 [Cross].

125.133 Sophia Riddick Hunter, b 22 Jun 1822, d 16 Mar 1896 [Cross].

125.134 Elizabeth S. Hunter, b 1823, d 1898. Did not marry. Cross does not name Elizabeth S. Hunter a daughter of Isaac Riddick Hunter and Emily Riddick [Cross], but it is clear from wills that she was sister to Emily Maria Hunter and daughter to Emily Hunter. She left a will 19 Oct 1889, proved 27 Dec 1898. Emily M. Hunter executrix, cousin Joseph Mullen, Jr. administrator. Property to Emily M. Hunter and Joseph Mullen, Jr. of Baltimore [Gates Wills, Vol IV, p 112].

125.135 Mary Susan Hunter, b 3 Mar 1824, d 22 Jun 1844 [Cross].

125.136 James Joseph Hunter, b 22 Jan 1827, d 5 Jun 1842 [Cross].

125.137 Isaac Riddick Hunter, Jr., b 13 Dec 1829, d 1 Oct 1864 [Cross]. Married 1 Jan 1862 Mary Eliza Gatling, d 20 Apr 1895, d/o Dr. John Gatling and Mary Eliza Riddick. John Gatling was one of the founders of Sunbury Academy in 1832, with Isaac Riddick Hunter, Edward Riddick Hunter and others. Isaac R. Hunter was administrator of the will of Mary E. Gatling 23 Oct 1861, proved May 1862 [Gates Wills]. An Isaac R. Hunter was witness to the will of Isaac S. Harrell 20 Nov 1861, proved Aug 1862 [Gates Wills]. In 1850, an Isaac R. Hunter, b 1829, lived with James M. Riddick in Portsmouth Parish of Norfolk County, Virginia, with occupation schoolteacher.

125.138 Fletcher Harris Hunter, b 30 Sep 1830, d 24 Apr 1839

125.139 Emily Mariah Hunter, b 30 Dec 1832, d 20 Mar 1901. Did not marry [Cross].

125.130 Cornelia A. Hunter, b 9 Dec 1834, d 18 Sep 1909 [Cross]. Cross gives her name as Cornelia Artemisia Hunter, but the will of her mother, Emily Baker Riddick Hunter, names her only as Cornelia Q. Mullen. Married (1) 22 Feb 1861 Joseph Mullen, whose first wife was Artemisia Maria Hunter, #125.124, d/o Edward Riddick Hunter and Martha Sumner Riddick. Married (2) 19 Feb 1884 Timothy S. Meara, d 2 Feb 1908. Meara was born in Ireland and was a Captain in the Confederate Army, commanding a company from Georgia. There were no children of either marriage. In 1850 Cornelia A. Hunter, age 15, lived with Emily Hunter. In 1860 Cornelia A. Hunter, age 26, lived with Isaac R. Hunter. Cross says that Joseph Mullen's second marriage 10 Jan 1859 was to Cornelia Ann Hunter, parents unknown to Cross, who lived only a short time after the marriage. He then married 22 Feb 1861 Cornelia Artemisia Hunter, d/o Isaac Riddick Hunter and Emily Baker Riddick. That seems unlikely. According to Cross, in 1860 Joseph Mullen with wife Artemisia and sons Joseph, age 6, and Edward, age 3, lived in Elizabeth City, NC. This conflicts with a census listing in 1860 of Henry H. Mullen, age 9, living with Henry Holmes Hunter. In addition, the will of Edward Riddick Hunter named Joseph and Henry Mullen as his grandchildren. Note: Cross did note the correct names from the will of Edward Riddick Hunter. There may have been two Joseph Mullens who were confused by Cross. [Cross].

Jacob Hunter 131.11 / Sarah Rogers

131.111 Isaac Hunter, Jr., d Oct 1811. No children. Obituary in Raleigh Register 14 Oct 1811. Brother Riddick administrator. His wife was probably Frances Alley Jones, since there was a marriage bond 24 Feb 1798 between Isaac Hunter, Jun and Frances Alley Jones. Signers were Alse Hunter and David Hunter. This was not Alsey Hunter, #131.311. It may have been the son, #131.13, of Isaac of Crabtree, commonly read as Alex, and the uncle of Isaac, Jr.. David Hunter was probably the son, #131.12, of Isaac of Crabtree, and the uncle of Isaac, Jr. Jacob Hunter, father of Isaac Hunter, Jr., died in 1798, and may have been ill or deceased at the time of the marriage of Isaac, Jr. It would be reasonable then for two uncles to sign the marriage bond.

131.311 Alsey Hunter, b 20 Mar 1790, d 20 Jun 1860. Married (1) 8 Jan 1810 (Marriage bond date. Author has copy.) in Wake County, NC Charlotte Jones, b 6 Oct 1793, d 1835/8, d/o Levi Jones [MWC]. Married (2) Winifred Wilson, b 25 Apr 1805. Alsey Hunter lived two miles south of Apex on the Apex-Holly Springs Road. "Alsey Hunter was buried in family plot on his land 1/4 mi. east of his home and beyond his cotton gin which still stands. A number of his children buried in this plot, also. This cotton gin, the first in a wide area, built by Alsey and sons who brought machinery by boat and raft up river and creek - man and mule power. It took many days - accomplished by sleeping along creek bank at night. Started at Wilmington, NC, came up Cape Fear and Big White Oak Creek. Alsey was farmer - gin operator - civil engineer. Alsey Hunter lived 2 mi. S. Apex on old Apex-Holly Springs Road - now 1/4 mi off #1 Hy. Home stands as was with 2 story addition in front on pretty knoll. A family named Prince bought & live there now (sons nearby). We have photos of original Alsey Hunter house and his wellsweep taken 1893 by J. Rufus Hunter, my uncle. The old east wing in photo, kitchen - dining room, were separated and moved 60 ft E. from the home by the Prince family - added to and occupied by Princes also." [Hunter]. Alsey Hunter was executor, but not an heir, of will of his father Isaac.

131.312 Jacob Hunter, b 1799. Married (1) 13 Dec 1830 in Wake County, NC, Winifred Utley [MWC]. Married (2) 18 May 1840 in Wake County, NC, Lydia Barker [MWC]. Isaac Hunter was best man at the marriage to Lydia Barker.

131.313 Anny Hunter. Married 26 Dec 1823 Anthony Franks [Wake Co Heritage, #285].

131.314 Sally Hunter. In her father's will was the request to stay with her mother.

131.315 Penny Hunter.

131.316 Dolly Hunter, b 1806, d aft 1870. Did not marry.

131.317 Joseph T. Hunter, b 1807. Married (1) 10 Jan 1824 in Wake County, NC, Elizabeth Franks [MWC]. Married (2) 12 May 1832 in Wake County, NC, Carolyn Bell [MWC]. Executor and heir in will of father Isaac.

131.318 Polly Hunter.

131.319 Didiamy Hunter. Married 1 Oct 1827 Stanford Wheeler [MWC]. In 1880, wife of Stanford Wheeler, b 1804, was Rebecca ..., b 1821.

Reuben Hunter, Jr. 131.32 / Cynthia Utley

131.321 Sherwood (Sherrod) D. Hunter, b 1784, Wake County, NC, d Jul 1840. Married (1) Nancy Jane Buchanan, b 23 Mar 1799, d 28 Jul 1824, d/o Robert Buchanan. Some sources say she was Mary Buchanan. Married (2) after 1830 ? In 1830, a Sherard Hunter, b 1780-90, was in Lincoln County, Tennessee, with one male, b 1820-25, and no females. That may have been William Edminson Hunter, b 11 Feb 1822. He was in the Lincoln County 1840 census with 1 M 50-60, 1 M 15-20, 1 M 5-10, 1 F 30-40, 1 F 15-20, 1 F 5-10, and 1 F under 5; 10 slaves and 3 persons in agriculture. He was administrator of Reuben Hunter's will, signed 1832, but not of his mother's will, first signed 19 Aug 1840 with codicil in 1843. The information that his first wife d 1824 was from McCormick, who gave her name as Mary or Nancy. Perhaps Nancy Jane Buchanan was his second wife, since there was a large age difference. Sherrod Hunter was a "lobelia doctor." Lobelia is an herb that causes vomiting, perspiration, and loosening of phlegm from the lungs. The name was commonly written as Sherrod, but was written as Sherwood in a court document 18 Dec 1843 as co-administrator, with his sister Polly McDonald, of the estate of Alexander McDonald.

131.322 Sarah Hunter. Married Elijah Davis. Named in wills of Reuben Hunter signed in 1832 and Cynthia Hunter, signed in 1840 and 1843, as daughter and wife of Elijah Davis.

131.323 Mary (Polly) Hunter, d ca Oct 1856. Married (1) Alexander McDonald, d ca 1817. Married (2) William McElroy. She was administrator 26 Sep 1817, with Sherwood D. Hunter, of estate of Alexander McDonald. The wills of Reuben Hunter in 1830 and Cynthia Hunter in 1843 identify daughter Polly as the wife of William McElroy. Mary Hunter McElroy left a will dated 1856 and proved 3 Nov 1856, naming daughters Mary Jane Crawford, Cynthia Smith, and Elizabeth Ellis, and sons Alexander, Micajah, Jackson, Thomas, John, and Sanford. Sons Sanford and Micajah were executors. Reuben

A. McDonald was evidently called Alexander in the will. Ref [McCormick, Lincoln Wills].

Cader Hunter 131.34 / Phoebe Dinning

131.341 Cader Hunter, b 1820, Sumner County, Tennessee. Married 13 May 1840 Louisa Jane Morris in Sumner County. Cader Hunter appeared in the 1850 census of Sumner County, TN, with wife Lavisa or Lavina (Louisa?), b 1813, and children Sarah, Lucinda, and Mary, aged respectively 10, 9, and 2, and a Sarah Ann Hunter, aged 18.

Dempsey Hunter 131.36 / Susannah Pair

131.361 William Hunter, b 1805 in Wake County, NC, d 1852 in Franklin County, Arkansas. Did not marry. In 1850, he lived with his brother John in Prairie Township, Franklin County, Arkansas.

131.362 Daughter, b 1804-1810. [1806 in NC, Curry]

131.363 John Hunter, b 1810 in Wake County, NC, d 1866 in Prairie Township, Franklin County, Arkansas. Married in Tennessee Elizabeth McMillan, b ca 1825 in Arkansas, d 1866, Franklin County, Arkansas. The cause of death and place of burial of John Hunter are unknown. He may have been buried at the Hunter family cemetery in Branch, Arkansas, where there are several unmarked graves. He was administrator of his brother William's estate. John and Elizabeth McMillan Hunter were in Prairie Township, Franklin County, Arkansas in 1860 and both were apparently dead in 1870 [censuses of 1860 and 1870]. In the 1870 census, his son Edward is shown as head of household, with part of John Hunter's family listed.

131.364 Thomas Sherwood (Sherrod) Hunter, b 1811, Tennessee, d 19 Dec 1874 in Franklin County, Arkansas, bur Boydston Cemetery, Branch, Arkansas, in an unmarked grave. Married (1) ? Married (2) Catherine ... , b North Carolina . Married (3) 19 May 1860 Elizabeth Sharp (widow Sharp). In 1837 he moved to Arkansas and settled on Six Mile Creek. The name was commonly written as Sherrod, but his brother's name was Haywood, and symmetry suggests Sherwood. In Lincoln County, Tennessee, 18 Dec 1843, the name Sherwood is used for #131.321, s/o Reuben Hunter, Jr. in a court record, and Sherrod is used in other court records for the same person. The place of birth for Sherwood Hunter and Catherine Hunter came from the 1880 census of Franklin County, Arkansas, listing Harriet Matilda Hunter, living with Logue Herring and Sarah Catherine Hunter Herring. On 18 Oct 1855, an advertisement in the Fayetteville, Arkansas, announced that Thomas C. Goodrich and Sherrod Hunter had formed a partnership in the grocery business "under the name and style of Goodrich & Hunter."

131.365 James Madison Hunter, b 27 Aug 1813 in Madisonville, Tennessee, d 24 Jul 1882 in Franklin County, Arkansas, bur Hunter Cemetery, Branch, Arkansas. He emigrated to Arkansas in 1836 and settled on Poly Branch, Whackard Prairie, the present Franklin County. He returned to Tennessee in 1837 and moved his father, brothers, and sisters to Arkansas. Married (1) 26 Mar 1840 Mary Ann Mileham, b 18 Nov 1823, d 10 Feb 1867 in Franklin County, Arkansas. Mary Ann Mileham emigrated to Arkansas from Texas. Married (2) Nancy Dyer, born Colvard. Nancy Dyer had a son when they were married. Married (3) 17 Oct 1878 Mary Ann (Polly) Pendergrass. James Madison Hunter moved to Texas for one year during the Civil War and then returned to Franklin County, Arkansas, where he was in the mercantile business for about 25 years. He owned a store named T. P. Williams and Company in Webb City, Arkansas. He served as Justice of the Peace for many years. [Branch]. James Madison Hunter gave his sons land when they were grown. Each child received a horse, bridle and saddle, a cow, and a calf. Some of the younger children did not receive land. His son Andrew Jackson received a gift of $1000, instead of land, to keep him out of prison. [Letter provided by Curry]

131.366 Daughter, b 1810-1820.

131.367 Daughter, b 1810-1820.

131.368 Daughter, b 1810-1820.

131.369 Peggy?, b 1823? in Tennessee. Married (1) ... Scott. Married (2) Stokes Davis. [Curry, who says information is unverified].

131.360 Burness Haywood Hunter, b 15 Nov 1824, d 8 Mar 1905, Montague County, Texas. Married (1) Mary Ann Davis, b 1830 in Arkansas [Branch]. Married (2) Mary A. Scott, b 1830, d 13 Dec 1907, Montague County, Texas [Henthorne]. Mary Davis's father was born in North Carolina and her mother in Georgia. Burness Hunter served in the Confederate army and was a prisoner of war for 18 months in 1864 and 1865. Burness Hunter sold his property in Arkansas and moved to Texas in the 1880s,

Ref [Virginia Gazette 1859-1862]. Information about John Hunter's descendants was provided by Michael Dewitt Hunter, #131.363.864.2, of Sulphur, Louisiana. That about the family of James Madison Hunter came from a genealogy written by Sam Houston Branch, #131.365.46, in 1940. Other information was supplied by Patricia Hunter Curry of Booneville, Arkansas, and some was from notes of Norma Henthorne, deceased, of Bethany, Oklahoma. The 1820 census of Sumner County, Tennessee, shows Dempsey Hunter with 3 M < 10, 1 M 10-16, 1 M > 45, 3 F < 10, 1 F 10-16, and 1 F 26-45. The order in which Dempsey Hunter's children are arranged here was chosen to agree with this census, with the oldest child first, but other arrangements would also agree. Dempsey Hunter was in Wake County, North Carolina in 1810, but there was no 1810 census of Wake, so that cannot be used to arrange his children in order by age. Curry assigned different ages to the daughters from that given here [Curry]. Her assignment includes only three daughters born before 1820, not the four shown in the 1820 census. A feature of the word processing program used for this genealogy allows changes in the identification numbers to be made very easily, and that will be done if the correct age order of Dempsey Hunter's children becomes known.

Cordial Norfleet Hunter 131.42 / Martha Daniel

131.421 Joanna Hunter. Probably born Nash County, NC. Married 7 Dec 1840 John E. Deans [Ingmire]. John E. Deans and Joanna Deans were legatees in will of Martha Hunter 1849-1859 [Nash Wills]. John E. Deans and wife Joanna named in division of land and negroes of Cordial Hunter in Nov 1845 [Watson].

131.422 Thomas Drew Hunter, d bef 1849. Probably born Nash County, NC. Will of Martha Hunter 1849-59 names all children except Thomas. Children of Thomas Hunter were named.

131.423 Isaac Blount Hunter, b 1815 probably in Nash County, NC. Married 10 Aug 1846 Martha A. Hall [Ingmire], b ca 1826. Named in will of Martha Hunter 1849-59, mother of Isaac B. Hunter [Nash Wills]. In 1850 census of Nash County with his wife Martha A., mother Martha, and Cordial N. Hunter, b 1830. Both Isaac B. Hunter and Cordial N. Hunter were listed as having no occupation, and neither owned real property. Cordial N. Hunter was probably his brother, # 131.427. [1850 Nash County, NC, census]. Isaac B. Hunter was named in division of land and negroes of Cordial Hunter in Nov 1845 [Watson]. Also named in a division of Aug 1840.

131.424 Weldon Smith Hunter. Probably born Nash County, NC. Married 14 Feb 1844 Nancy Griffith; Tarboro marriage bond 12 Feb, signers George A. Grimes and John Norfleet [Edgecombe]. He was named in a division of land and negroes of Cordial Hunter in Nov 1845 [Watson]. Also named in a division in Aug 1840.

131.425 Henry Drew Hunter. Probably born Nash County, NC. Named in a division of land and negroes of Cordial Hunter in Nov 1845 [Watson]. A Harry Hunter of Williamston married 24 Jun 1805 in Tarboro a Mrs. Gerard [Edgecombe].

131.426 John Hodge Hunter. Probably born Nash County, NC. He was named in a division of land and negroes of Cordial Hunter in Nov 1845 [Watson].

131.427 Cordial Norfleet Hunter, b ca 1830, probably in Nash County, NC. [1850 Nash County census]. He was named in a division of land and negroes of Cordial Hunter in Nov 1845.

John Hunter 135.12 / Chloe Harrell

135.121 Riddick Hunter, b ca 1796, d bef 1860. Married (1) ? Married (2) Nancy ..., b 1812 [Gates census 1850] or 1807 [Gates census 1860]. Riddick Hunter was bound by the May 1809 Court of Pleas in Gates County to Joseph Gordon as an apprentice to learn blacksmithing [Gates Court, 632]. Note that Joseph Gordon was an administrator of the estate of Isaac Hunter, Jr., #121.22. A Riddick Hunter, b 1790-1800, was in the 1830 Gates census, with a male b 1800-1810, 2 males b 1810-1815, 2 males b 1815-1820, 1 male b 1820-1825, 1 female b 1790-1800, 1 female b 1820-1825, and 1 female b 1825-1830. With him was a male b 1750-1760, perhaps his father or his wife's father. He owned 7 slaves. The wife shown in 1830 was born 1790-1800. In the 1840 Gates County, NC, census, 2 females, b 1800-1810, are shown. If the ages are correct, they could not have been his first wife, his second wife, or his daughters. In 1850 he appears in the census with Nancy, age 38, Sarah, age 18, and Julia White, age 35. In 1860, Nancy Hunter, age 53, and Julia White, age 48, appear.

135.122 Daughter, b 1800-1810 [Gates 1810 census].

William Hunter 135.13 / Seneth Trotman

135.131 Celia Hunter. Not in William Hunter's will in 1813.

135.132 Leah Hunter. Named in will of William Hunter in Gates Co., 1813.

135.133 Timothy Hunter, b 1797. Married Sarah ..., b 1804. Named in will of William Hunter in Gates Co., 1813, perhaps a minor, since none of William's sons was executor. In May 1813, Timothy Hunter appeared in the Gates Court of Pleas and chose Isaac Hunter, Jr. as his guardian [Gates Court 1813]. In Feb 1814, Timothy Hunter was bound to Thomas Walton as an apprentice (no trade named) [Gates Court 1814]. Timothy Hunter was in the 1850 and 1860 censuses of Gates County. See also Timothy Hunter, #135.7 and 135.34. A Timothy Hunter, unmarried, was in the Gates County 1820 census, with birth 1794-1804. A Timothy Hunter, b 1800-1810, was in the 1830 Gates census, with a female b 1800-1810 and 2 males b 1825-1830. A Tim Hunter, b 1790-1800, was in the 1840 Gates census with a female b 1800-1810, a male b 1825-1830, a male b 1830-1835, a female b 1825-1830, a female b 1830-1835, and a female b 1835-1840.

135.134 Elisha R. Hunter, b 1800-1810. Married Rosemond Riddick, daughter of Nathan Riddick. Nathan Riddick gave 49 acres, known as the Hurdle land, to son-in-law Elisha Hunter 1 Jun 1829 [Gates Deeds, Book 14, #223]. On 30 Jun 1836, Nathan Riddick gave 38 acres, also known as "Hurdle Land" to his grandson, Harry Hunter [Gates Deeds, #275]. The will of Nathan Riddick 4 Mar 1845 names daughter Rosemond Hunter [Gates Wills]. Elisha R. Hunter sold property to Nathan Riddick 14 Feb 1834 [Gates Deeds]. He was also involved in deeds 9 Dec 1837 and 24 Sep 1838 [Gates Deeds]. Elisha Hunter was named in the will of William Hunter in Gates County in 1813. In May 1813, Frederick Jones, who married the second wife of William Hunter after his death, was appointed guardian of Elisha Hunter by the Gates Court of Pleas [Gates Court, 1813] and was still guardian in 1823 [Gates Court]. Elisha Hunter, age 20-30, was in the 1830 census of Gates County and, age 30-40, in the 1840 census of Gates County. In 1840, he had 4 children.

135.135 Cynthia Hunter. Not named in William Hunter's will.

William Hunter 135.13 / Christian Rountree?

135.136 John B. Hunter, b 1810-1820 [Gates census 1840]. Named in will of William Hunter in Gates Co., 1813. Timothy Freeman was appointed guardian to John Hunter in Feb 1814 [Gates Court, #829]. John B. Hunter appears in deeds in Gates County on several occasions, 22 Nov 1841 being one of those. The wife of a John B. Hunter died at Williamston 19 Dec 1819 [Neal]

135.137 Julia Hunter. Named in will of William Hunter in Gates Co., 1813. Timothy Freeman was appointed guardian to Julia Hunter in Feb 1814 [Gates Court, #829].

Cader Hunter 135.31 / Elizabeth ...

135.311 Hardy Hunter. He was named in the will of his father, but not in his grandfather's. Father's will made reference to the time at which Humphrey Hunter would be aged 21, so Hardy is taken as the older. It seems likely that he also was less than 21 in 1790. In fact it is likely that both Hardy and Humphrey were born in the 1780s if Elizabeth was the only wife of Cader Hunter.

135.312 Humphrey Hunter, b aft 1769. The will of Cader Hunter in 1790 refers to Humphrey Hunter as being less than 21 years of age. He was named in the will of his grandfather, Hardy Hunter. A Rev. Humphrey Hunter was a prominent clergyman in Mecklenburg County, NC. He was evidently born in Scotland and died, age 72, 21 Aug 1827 at White Hall in the Steel Creek Congregation. The same unusual name is interesting, but there is no known relationship between the Rev. Humphrey Hunter and the family of William Hunter of Nansemond.

135.313 Cader Hunter, b 1790. Cader Hunter was born after the death of his father, who referred to an unborn child in his will. He was named in the will of his grandfather, Hardy Hunter, in 1792 [Gammon].

Sherrod Hunter 131.321 / Nancy Jane Buchanan

131.321.1 William Edminson Hunter, b 11 Feb 1822, Lincoln County, Tennessee, d Nov 1899, Navarro County, Texas, bur White Cemetery in southeast Navarro County. His middle name may have been "Edmiston." Sherrod Hunter lived next to Squire William Edmiston on the Shelbyville highway on Norris Creek. Edmiston was a native of Washington County, Virginia and the son of Colonel William Edmiston who fought at Kings Mountain [Letter to Ralph McCormick from someone (illegible name) at Marsh Historical Publications, Shelbyville, Tennessee]. Andrew Edmiston died in Lincoln County, Tennessee in 1816. Married (1) 26 Mar 1846 Adeliza T. Smith, b 1832, d 12 Jun 1853 of typhoid, d/o Constant and Martha (Keyes) Buchanan Smith [Lincoln Mar]. They had 4 children, born in Lincoln County. Adeliza Smith was a cousin to William E. Hunter [McCormick]. Married (2) 1 Feb 1854 Sarah Ann (Sallie) Ellis, b 11 Mar 1838, d 12 Jul 1888, Navarro County, Texas, bur White Cemetery in southeast Navarro County, d/o James Ellis and Stacy Douthit. They had 12 children, born in Lincoln County. William E. Hunter was a private in the Confederate Army. He was captured at Fort Donelson but released in a prisoner exchange and after release served in Company C of the 41st TN Infantry. William E. Hunter's children were all born in Lincoln Co., TN, but the family moved, perhaps about 1880, first to Arkansas, and in the winter of 1882-3, to Navarro Co., Texas. He was named as grandson in will of Cynthia Utley Hunter in Lincoln County, Tennessee. Robert Buchanan was listed as guardian of William E. Hunter in Lincoln County, Tennessee in 1843 [Miscellaneous records in clerk's office in Lincoln County, Tennessee].

Ref [McCormick, Lincoln Wills, Strickland].

Sherwood (Sherrod) Hunter 131.321 / ?

131.321.2 Nancy Ann Hunter. Minor in 1840 with cousin Reuben A. McDonald requested to serve as guardian in will of Cynthia Hunter.

131.321.3 Sherwood (Sherrod) Hunter, Jr. Married 15 Nov 1855 Mary Elizabeth Goodrich in Lincoln County, Tennessee. He was a Confederate soldier, and after the War lived in Mexico. He was a minor in 1840 with cousin Reuben A. McDonald requested to serve as guardian by Cynthia Hunter in her will. In 1855 Thomas C. Goodrich and Sherrod Hunter formed a partnership in Fayetteville, Arkansas, to sell groceries. That was assumed to be Sherrod Hunter, 131.364, since he was known to be in Franklin County, Arkansas, at that time, but that it was Sherrod, 131.321.3, is a possibility.

131.321.4 Francis Elizabeth Hunter. Minor in 1840 with cousin Reuben A. McDonald requested to serve as guardian by Cynthia Hunter in her will.

131.341.3 Mary Hunter, b 1848.

John Hunter 131.363 / Elizabeth McMillan

131.363.1 Edward (Ned) Hunter, b 1842 in Arkansas. Married (1) 22 Nov 1860 Hester Ragsdale. Married (2) Mary Patterson, b 1845. Married (3) 20 Mar 1878 in Nevada, Vernon County, Missouri, Arizona (Zonie) Hall, b 1856 in Arkansas, d 8 Mar 1906, Webbers Falls, Muskogee County, Oklahoma. The 1870 census shows Edward Hunter as head of household, with the remainder of his parents' family listed as household members. Evidently he became responsible for the family after the death of their parents [M Hunter, Henthorne]

131.363.2 Charles Hunter, b 1849. Married 26 Aug 1869 Rebecca Bottoms, b 1852 in Missouri [Curry, Henthorne].

131.363.3 Alexander Hunter, b 1851 or 1854 (discrepancy in Henthorne notes). Married Emma ..., b ca 1859 in Arkansas [Curry, Henthorne]. In the 1880 census, his family was in Six Mile Township, Logan County, Arkansas.

131.363.4 Thomas B. Hunter, b 1856, Franklin County, Arkansas, d Paris, Lamar County, Texas. Twin to John H. Hunter. Married Martha A. Fanning, b ca 1857 in Arkansas [Curry, Henthorne]. In 1870, he lived with his brother Edward in Prairie Township, Franklin County, Arkansas [1870 census]. In 1880, he lived in Prairie Township, Franklin County, Arkansas. His place of birth was named as Arkansas, with father born in Tennessee and mother born in Arkansas. His wife's place of birth was also listed as Arkansas.

131.363.5 John Henry Hunter, b 1856, Franklin County, Arkansas, d Texas. Twin to Thomas B. Hunter. Married 22 Feb 1877 Mollie A.

Wright, b 1859 in Tennessee. In 1870, he lived with his brother Edward in Prairie Township, Franklin County, Arkansas [1870 census]. In the 1880 census, his family was in Webb Township, Franklin County, Arkansas.

131.363.6 Rhoda Kanzata Hunter, b 1858 in Arkansas, d Dallas, Texas. Married 29 Apr 1875 Cephas Wright. Her name was spelled Kanzata in the 1860 census and Canzada in 1870. In 1870, she lived with her brother Edward in Prairie Township, Franklin County, Arkansas [1870 census]. Name "Rhoda" is from [Curry].

131.363.7 Nancy Ellen Hunter, b 1862, Franklin County, Arkansas, d 1946, bur Memorial Cemetery, Tulsa, Oklahoma. Married 16 Sep 1875 Anderson (Ance) Gage from Tulsa [Branch, Henthorne]. In 1870, she lived with her brother Edward in Prairie Township, Franklin County, Arkansas [1870 census].

131.363.8 Monte Zrimer Hunter, b 1 Jan 1865, d Jenks, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, bur 3 Aug 1925, Bixby Cemetery, Bixby, Tulsa County, Oklahoma. Married 1886 in Salisaw, Sequoyah County, Oklahoma Emma Jane Hatfield, b Missouri, d Bixby, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, bur Bixby Cemetery, d/o Hiram H. and Delia Hatfield. In 1901 the Hunters moved to Webbers Falls, Muskogee County, Oklahoma, and in 1916 they moved to Jenks, Tulsa county, Oklahoma. There was an obituary in The Jenks News 7 Aug 1925. Emma Jane Hatfield was a school teacher. In 1870, he lived with his brother Edward in Prairie Township, Franklin County, Arkansas [1870 census]. This is an unusual name in the Hunter family; evidently Monte Zrimer Hunter was named for Monte Zrimer Burt, who married Elizabeth Hunter, #131.364.8. The name appeared in the 1870 census of Prairie Township, Franklin County, Arkansas as Montezuma Hunter. Henthorne lists it as Montezuma.

Thomas Sherrod Hunter 131.364 / Catharine ...

131.364.1 John Hunter.

131.364.2 James Franklin Hunter, b 1836, Tennessee, d 20 Mar 1864, Gratiot St. Military Prison Hospital, St. Louis, Missouri, bur Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery, St. Louis, grave # 20, lot #4577. Married 12 Jan 1854 in Branch, Franklin County, Arkansas, Elizabeth Galey, b 1836 in Tennessee, d 2 Dec 1915, Branch, bur Boydston Cemetery near Branch, d/o Thomas Galey and Margaret James Franklin Hunter acquired 80 acres in Franklin County, Arkansas 1 Mar 1860 and 40 acres 1 May 1861. He was a private in Co. F, Buster's Regiment and was captured 4 Jan 1864. He was sent first to Ft. Smith, Arkansas, and then to Gratiot St. Military Prison 14 Feb 1864. He died of erysipelas 20 Mar 1864. His widow received CSA Pension #17626 from 8 Aug 1908 until her death. The pension record says that Frank Hunter served in Co. A, Owsley's Arkansas Cavalry from 1862 to 1864.

131.364.3 Adeline Hunter, b 1844, Arkansas. There is some information that she married ... Boydston, but little is known. In 1860 she was with her father's family, age 17, but was not found in a later census.

131.364.4 Melvina Hunter, b 1847, Arkansas. Married (1) 27 Dec 1867 Harris Sharp, d 28 Sep 1875. Married (2) 24 Aug 1876 Reason McDougal. Harris Sharp was Melvina Hunter's step-brother, s/o Elizabeth Sharp Hunter.

131.364.5 William Hunter, b 1849, Arkansas. Married 19 Aug 1869 Melissa Jane Stone, b 1854. She was from Kansas according to [Branch], but the 1880 census of Logan County, Arkansas, gives her place of birth as Iowa.

131.364.6 Burwell (Burrell) Hunter, b 4 Nov 1853, Arkansas. Married 10 Dec 1875 in Franklin County, Arkansas, Elizabeth Burt, b 1856, sister to Monte Burt. The name was written sometimes as Burrell and also as Burl, but it was probably Burwell. James Beverly Hunter, #125.128, married Martha Harrison Burwell. There was another Hunter with that name, Burwell T. Hunter, #131.312.1.

131.364.7 Mary Jane Hunter, b 1856, Arkansas. Married Logan Herring after her sister Sarah Catherine died. No children are known.

131.364.8 Martha Ann Hunter, b 1856, Arkansas. Did not marry. Became blind. In 1880 she lived with her sister Melvina Hunter McDougall.

131.364.9 Sarah Catherine (Cass) Hunter, b 1858, Arkansas. Married 15 Feb 1876 Logue Herring, b 1853.

131.364.0 Harriet Matilda Hunter, b 1864 in Arkansas, d 1927, bur Boydston Cemetery, Branch, Franklin County, Arkansas. Married 19 Oct 1882 Boling Povall Branch. In 1880 Harriet Hunter lived with Logue Herring and Sarah Catherine Hunter Herring [1880 Franklin County, Arkansas, census].

James Madison Hunter 131.365 / Mary Ann Mileham

In 1870 Jacob R. Walker was Station Master on a railroad. He later owned a hotel believed to have been built by Frank Page about 1870. In 1872 A. F. Page operated a hotel in Cary [Branson], probably that built by Frank Page, so Jacob Walker bought it after 1872. It still exists (but not used as a hotel) and is known as the Walker Hotel or sometimes the Page-Walker Hotel. Married (3) 2 May 1906 Elizabeth Macon (Betsie) Rodwell, Warren Co., b 23 Jan 1871, d 17 Apr 1943, bur Cary, NC, d/o J. J. and Mary P. Rodwell. Alsey Dalton Hunter was born in Wake Co., NC, near Holly Springs. He was educated at Apex Academy, Holly Springs High School, Wake Forest College, and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He was ordained June 1882 at the Holly Springs Church. In the later 1870s he was a teacher at a school adjacent to the Olive Chapel Baptist Church [Wake, vol 1, p 605]. During his ministry he served most of the churches in the Raleigh Association and a great many in adjoining associations. "He was a man of strong convictions and would make great sacrifices rather than yield to something he believed to be wrong." He was the fifth pastor of the First Baptist Church of Cary and the first with an indefinite call. He served from April 1885 to October 1889, with a yearly salary of $125. for one Sunday a month. "He made a brief appearance on the political scene before his sudden death." [BBride]. He was a pastor at Greenville, NC at one time and financial agent for the B. U. W. Death occurred at home [Eulogy by W. R. Beach]. Mary Irene Walker Hunter died of pneumonia at her home in Cary. She joined the Cary Baptist Church at the age of 12. Later, she was church organist, Sunday-School teacher, and President of the Missionary Society. The origin of the name Dalton is unknown. James Hunter, the Regulator, had a daughter, Rachel, who married Nicholas Dalton, b 1770, d 1838, but no relationship has been discovered between the family of William Hunter of Nansemond and James Hunter, the Regulator.

The Family of Riddick Hunter

FIRST GENERATION

1 Riddick Hunter, b 1750-1760?, d ca 1808?. Married (1) Nancy (Ann) ... [Nansemond Bible]. Speculatively, this might have been Nancy Beverly, since Dr. Edward Riddick Hunter had a son named Edward Beverly (Beverley) Hunter and Edward Riddick Hunter, #125.12, had a son named James Beverly Hunter. Married (2) Susan Smith [Gates Wills, also will of Washington Smith, Nansemond Bible]. A Riddick Hunter was listed in the census of 1787 and paid land taxes 1787/88 in Nansemond County, Virginia, on land holdings of 200, 135, and 1025 acres [Schreiner]. The estate of Riddick Hunter appears on the tax list of Nansemond County in 1810 owning 60 and 1001 acres and 1/2 lot [Schreiner 1810]. A Riddick Hunter was in the 1790 census of Nansemond Co., listed alone with one dwelling and two other buildings. This may have meant that he lived elsewhere. A Riddick Hunter was noted on Nansemond County Land Taxes in 1784, concerning an "alteration" also involving Edward Riddick [Nansemond Bible, "John Streeter Hunter Bible"]. A Riddick Hunter was elected Vestryman of the Upper Parish of Nansemond in 1790 and met with the Vestry in 1791 [Vestry]. A Riddick Hunter was a processioner in Nansemond in 1793 [Vestry]. A Riddick Hunter appears in deeds in Gates County in 1791 and 1802. In court records of Gates County dated 17 May 1819 is a reference to William Lee building a mill at the place where Majr. Riddick Hunter formerly had a mill [Gates Court, #1073]. An R. Hunter of Nansemond County, Virginia, appears in a deed in Gates dated 1796 [Gates Deeds, 20 Jul 1796, #81]. There was evidently a considerable joint ownership of land in Nansemond and Gates and it may be that the same individual appeared in both. It should be noted that only one person, not a family, was shown in Nansemond for the 1787 census. The 1791 deed in Gates was a sale of land from George Washington to John Cowper. The attorney of George Washington signed it for Washington. Riddick Hunter was a witness. Will of Washington Smith "of Somerton" in 1835 refers to interest in dower of Susan Smith in the land of her late husband, Riddick Hunter, deceased [Gates Wills]. Somerton is quite close to Sunbury, where some of the Hunters lived. The will may have been in Nansemond rather than Gates since Norfleet ascribes it to Nansemond [Nansemond Bible]. Deed 21 Oct 1802 John Doughtie to Benjamin Baker in Gates County, NC, refers to land joining Riddick Hunter. Note that Dr. Edward Riddick Hunter married Sally Baker.

Riddick Hunter 1 / Nancy (Ann) ...

11 Dr. Edward Riddick Hunter, b 4 Nov 1786 in Virginia, d 26 Nov 1861. Married (1) 31 Mar 1810 Sally Baker, d 19 Jan 1811. Married (2) 16 Jun 1816 Catharine Hannah Dorlon (widow Hodges), d/o John Dorlon and Judith Bridger. Married (3) 2 Jul 1826 in Gates Co., NC, Ann Parker Dorlon, d 23 Oct 1828. Married (4) 25 Feb 1830 Catharine M. Sinclair, d 15 Aug 1842. Obviously Dr. Edward Riddick Hunter was related to Edward Riddick Hunter, #125.12. They had the same name and lived respectively at Summerton and Sunbury, about ten miles apart. One had a son named Edward Beverly and the other a son named James Beverly. Dr. Edward Riddick Hunter was apparently quite wealthy. In Nansemond in 1820, he had 48 slaves, 63 in 1830, and 57 in 1840. In 1860, he was listed in the census as a farmer with $5300 in real property and $26,700 in personal property. Edward R. Hunter of Nansemond County was a subscriber to the first American edition of Nicholson's Encyclopedia, 1816-1817 [VA Genealogy, vol 22, no 2]. There was a deed 1 Oct 1837 from Edward R. Hunter to Edward B. Hunter for land in Suffolk. At the end is "1st charged to Rid. Hunter in 1807. 1st charged to E. R. Hunter in 1813." This is the only connection known at this time between Riddick Hunter and Edward R. Hunter. In 1860, Judith A. Parker, b 1842 and Nannie C. Parker, b 1845, lived with Edward R. Hunter. They may have been grandchildren. Judith Ann Parker married 1870 William Edward Darden. There was also an Edward R. Hunter in Isle of Wight County, Virginia, in 1830, b 1780-1790, with 2 females, age 30-40, and 32 slaves.

12 John Streeter Hunter, b 3 Sep 1792 in Virginia, d 11 Sep 1865. Married 7 Oct 1813 Nancy Jackson, b ca 1797, d/o Joab Jackson and wife Mary. A John S. Hunter was listed in the Pasquotank County, NC, census in 1820. A John S. Hunter was listed in the Craven County, NC, census in 1830. In the 1850 Carteret County, NC, census, he was listed with wife Nancy, age 53, and daughter (?) Susan, age 8. His occupation was "Mariner." On the same census page were listed 9 mariners, 3 pilots, and 2 physicians.

14 Nancy Barron Hunter, d 8 Jun 1840. Married ... Nixon.

Riddick Hunter 1 / Susan Smith

15 Lemuel Riddick Hunter, b ca 1806 in Virginia, d aft 1870. Married 1 Jan 1829 Julia Parker, b ca 1804 in Virginia. Listed in census of Nansemond County, Virginia, in 1830, 1840, 1850, and 1860. Listed in Nansemond Upper Parish in 1860 [Nansemond Bible]. In the 1850 census of Nansemond County, Lemuel R. Hunter was listed as a farmer owning $4000 in real estate. In the 1860 census of Nansemond, he was listed as a farmer owning $5000 in real property and $12,000 in personal property. In the Matriculation Book of Randolph-Macon College, the residence of his son, Frederick W.. was Somerton. The will of Jesse Parker in Gates County 12 Sep 1800 was witnessed by R. Hunter and Hardy Cross [Gates Wills]. Lemuel Riddick Hunter was the nephew of Hardy Cross and was probably related to Jesse Parker through his wife.

THIRD GENERATION

Edward Riddick Hunter 11 / Sally Baker

111 Benjamin Blake Baker Hunter, b 10 Jan 1811. Married (1) 5 Nov 1831 Antoinette Stith, d 3 May 1835 at Wythe Court House. Married (2) Caroline ..., b ca 1820, d 23 Jul 1850 in Harrison Co., Texas [Texas Republican]. Benjamin B. B. Hunter went to Texas [Gates Bible], evidently living for a time in Mississippi, since sons were born in Mississippi in 1838 and 1840 [1850 Texas census]. Blake Hunter, son of Dr. Edward R. Hunter, attended the Llangollen School for Boys [VA Genealogy, vol 22, no 1]. He attended William and Mary College in 1827-28 and 1828-29. Parent listed as Dr. Edw. R. Hunter and post office was South Quay [William and Mary Quarterly, 2nd Series, Vol 3, pp 161 and 165].

Edward Riddick Hunter 11 / Catharine Hannah Dorlon

112 Edward Beverley Hunter, b 3 Apr 1817 in Virginia, d 3 Jul 1873. Edward B. Hunter lived with his father in 1850 [census], with no occupation. In 1860 he also lived with his father and was listed as a farmer. A William H. Hunter, b 1841, perhaps a grandson, also lived with Edward Riddick Hunter in 1860.

113 Judith Ann Hunter, b 13 Feb 1819, d 18 Jun 1880. Married 11 Oct

1836 Col. John R. Copeland, b 11 Nov 1811, d 21 Oct 1892.

Edward Riddick Hunter 11 / Ann P. Dorlon

114 John Dorlon Hunter, b 23 Mar 1827, d 9 Nov 1828.

John Streeter Hunter 12 / Nancy ...

Lemuel Riddick Hunter 15 / Julia Ann Parker

151 Frederick W. Hunter, b 1832 [1850 census] or 1833 [1860 census]. Frederick W. Hunter of Somerton [Summerton], Nansemond County, Virginia, matriculated at Randolph-Macon College. Lemuel R. Hunter was listed as parent. His home was given as Summerton [VA Genealogy, vol 23, no 1]. On 12 Aug 1887, Fred W. Hunter was a witness to the will of Blake Baker of Gates County [Gates Wills].

152 Walter Scott Hunter, b 1834 [1850 census] or 1836 [1860 census]. Married Jun 1873 Lucy J. Jackson.

153 Caroline (Callie) Hunter, b 1837 [1850 census] or 1839 [1860 census].

154 Mariah S. Hunter, b 1838 [1850 census] or 1841 [1860 census]. Schoolteacher in 1860.

155 Juliana (Julia) Hunter, b 1842 [1850 census] or 1843 [1860 census]. Married 31 Oct 1876 Mark W. Smith?

156 Susan Clara Hunter b 1847, d 8 Apr 1921. Married 12 Jan 1873 Wilson Norfleet, b 18 Nov 1849, d 14 Sep 1926, s/o Nathaniel Cowper Norfleet and Sophia Ann Riddick. Listed as Clara in both 1850 and 1860 censuses.

Ref [Nansemond Bible, 1860 census]

FOURTH GENERATION

Benjamin Blake Baker Hunter 111 / Antoinette Stith

111.1 Sally Baker Hunter, b 19 Jan 1833 [Gates Bible]. Sally Baker Hunter did not live with B. B. B. Hunter in 1850.

Benjamin Blake Baker Hunter 111 / Caroline ...

111.2 E. R. (Edward Riddick?) Hunter, b 1838 in Mississippi [1850 Texas census]. Married 28 Oct 1858 Mrs. A. M. J. Young of Harrison Co., Texas [Texas Republican]. Initial of her given name was S, and she was born ca 1833 [1860 Texas census, Harrison Co.].

111.3 Beverly Baker Hunter, b 31 Mar 1839. Beverly B. Hunter lived with Edward R. Hunter, his grandfather, in 1850, with place of birth Texas, and in 1860, listed by the census taker as a medical student. He was born in Texas according to a book review in the Virginia Genealogist, vol 11, p 41, but the 1850 Texas census, although difficult to read, appears to say Mississippi.

111.4 William Hunter, b 1842 in Texas [1850 Texas census]. In 1860 a William H. Hunter, age 19, lived with Dr. Edward R. Hunter in Nansemond Co., Virginia. Very likely it was this son of B. B. B. Hunter.

111.5 V. Hunter (female), b 1844 in Texas [1850 Texas census].

111.6 W. Hunter (male), b 1846 in Texas [1850 Texas census].

Judith Ann Hunter 113 / John R. Copeland

113.1 Mary Catharine Copeland, b 25 Feb 1840. Married 10 Jun 1879 J. Ballentine Riddick, d 11 Dec 1887.

113.2 Judith Beverly Hunter Copeland, b 16 Aug 1848, d 18 Jun 1880. Married 16 Feb 1866 Alto Francis Holladay, b 1844, s/o Francis David Holladay and Emily Susan Pinner.

Susan Clara Hunter 156 / Wilson Norfleet

156.1 Julian N. Norfleet, b 28 Oct 1873.

156.2 Sophia A. Norfleet, b 17 Mar 1876.

156.3 Lemuel H. Norfleet, b 15 Feb 1879.

156.4 Nathaniel Norfleet, b 25 Oct 1881, d 13 Nov 1881.

156.5 Robert E. Norfleet, b 26 Jun 1883.

156.6 Willard W. Norfleet, b 7 Feb 1886.

156.7 Alvah Norfleet, b 10 Oct 1888.

FIFTH GENERATION

Judith Beverly Hunter Copeland 113.2 / Alto Francis Holladay

113.21 Judith Susan Holladay, b 17 Jun 1867.

113.22 Infant son, b 10 Sep 1868, d 26 Oct 1868.

113.23 Katharine Beverly Holladay, b 23 Jul 1870.

113.24 Alto Frank Holladay, b 19 Oct 1873.

113.25 John Copeland Holladay, b 30 Jul 1875.

113.26 Joseph Edward Bridger Holladay, b 18 Mar 1880.

113.27 Beverly Mary Holladay, b 30 May 1891, d 23 Jun 1892.

Hunter's Mill

Hunter's Mill Township is in southeastern Gates County. It was named for a grist and saw mill long held in the Hunter family. The mill seems to have been built by Jacob Hunter. In his will of 5 Feb 1780, he left his grist and saw mill to his son Isaac. Isaac Hunter in his will of 15 Oct 1816 left his saw and grist mill to his son Isaac Riddick Hunter [Gates Wills]. The property was acquired by Seth Norfleet in the 1850s [Butchko] and later was held by the Cross family by inheritance from Seth Norfleet. Accordingly, the mill was at one time called Cross's Mill. There may have been two mills with the name of Hunter in Gates County. In court records dated 17 May 1819 is a reference to William Lee building a mill at the place where Majr. Riddick Hunter formerly had a mill [Gates Court, #1073]. Riddick Hunter has not been connected to the descendants of William Hunter of Nansemond, but it is highly probably that he was a descendant. It may have been the Riddick Hunter whose family is discussed immediately above. A record dated 21 Aug 1820 refers to a guard at Hunter's Mill, evidently paid for by the County [Gates Court, #1152]. Seemingly that was the mill owned at the time by Isaac Riddick Hunter, and no reason is known why the County should pay for a guard.

Hunters of Lincoln and Marshall Counties, Tennessee

Lincoln and Marshall Counties are considered together because Marshall County was formed from Lincoln, Bedford, and Maury Counties in 1836 [TennCous]. Reuben Hunter, Jr., s/o Reuben Hunter of Wake County, NC, moved to Lincoln County [McCormick].

131.32 Reuben Hunter, Jr. See main genealogy.

131.321 Sherwood (Sherrod) Hunter. See main genealogy.

Ephraim Hunter, b 1790-1800. Marshall County 1840 census with 1 M 40-50, 1 M 20-30, 1 M 15-20, 1 M 5-10, 1 M under 5, 1 F 20-30, 1 F 10-15; 8 slaves with 1 person in agriculture, 1 in commerce, and 2 in manufacturing and trades. At the first meeting of the county court held at Adam Houston's home in Oct 1836, 18 Justices of the Peace were present, including Ephraim Hunter.

Clarissa Hunter. Marshall County 1840 census with 2 M 20-30, 1 M 15-20, 1 M 10-15, 1 M 5-10, 1 M under 5, 1 F 40-50, 1 F 10-15, and 1 F 5-10. No slaves, 5 in agriculture. She lived close to Ephraim Hunter.

Thomas A. Hunter, b 1800-1810. Marshall County 1840 census with 1 M 30-40, 1 M 5-10, 1 M under 5, 1 F 30-40, 2 F 5-10, 1 F under 5; 17 slaves and 11 persons in agriculture.

Washington Hunter, b 1800-1810. Marshall County 1840 census with 1 M 30-40, 2 F 20-30, and 2 F under 5. No slaves, 1 in agriculture.

William Hunter, b 1800-1810. Marshall County 1840 census with 1 M 30-40, 1 M under 5, 1 F 20-30, and 2 F 5-10. No slaves, 1 in agriculture.

Leander M. Hunter, b 1826. In 1850 he lived with George W. Fisher in Marshall County [1850 Cross Index].

Lirza Hunter, b 1800. In 1850 she lived with Eunice Cummings in Marshall County [1850 Cross Index].

Hunters of Maury County, Tennessee

Jacob Hunter, #123.3, who married Patience Williamson, died near Memphis 1823-1825. Patience Williamson died in Maury County 7 Aug 1830. Patsy Hinton Hunter, Sarah Alston Hunter, and Sackey Clark Hunter, probably sisters of Jacob Hunter, also moved to Maury County. See main genealogy.

Hunters of Montgomery County, Tennessee

Evidently, two groups of Hunters moved to Montgomery County, Tennessee. Thomas Hunter moved there from Gates County, NC, and perhaps the son of Dempsey Hunter moved there from Richland County, SC. If the Dempsey Hunters in Montgomery County were related to Dempsey Hunter who may have moved to Richland County from Nansemond County, Virginia, or Gates County (or vicinity), NC, the two groups were related, and one person or persons may have moved there because of the presence of members of the other group. Other descendants of William Hunter who moved to Montgomery County were Mary and Elizabeth Norfleet, daughters of Mary Gordon, #143.3, and James Norfleet.

131.41 Thomas Hunter, s/o Thomas Hunter and Priscilla Smith. Moved to Montgomery County, Tennessee, from Edgecombe or Nash County, NC. See main genealogy.

Dempsey Hunter. Two Dempsey Hunters were in Montgomery County, TN. [1820 and 1830 censuses]. One Dempsey Hunter was in the 1840 census with 1 M, age 60-70, 1 M 40-50, 1 M 15-20, 2 M 10-15, 3 M 5-10, 1 M under 5, 1 F 40-50, 1 F 15-20, 1 F 10-15, and 1 F under 5. One was in the 1850 census. His birthplace was listed as SC in the 1850 census [Curry]. It has been speculated elsewhere in these notes that Dempsey Hunter, #131.5, or the son of William, #111, lived in Richland County, SC.

Aberny (Allen?) Hunter was in the 1840 census with 1 M 15-20 and 1 F 15-20.

Allen Hunter married 12 Dec 1846 (bond) Martha Ann M. Walker. Bondsman John Black [TennMar]. An A. Hunter was bondsman 31 Aug 1847 to William R. Hollis [TennMar]. Note that an Allen Hunter (not this one) was executor in 1796, with Dempsey Hunter, of the will of William Faust in Richland County, SC. This tends to confirm the belief that the Dempsey Hunters in Montgomery County, Tennessee, were related to the Hunters of Richland county, SC. Allen Hunter was in the 1850 census.

Allen Hunter married 8 Nov 1848 (bond) Mary J. Rudolph. Bondsman W. C. Hunter [TennMar]. See Allen Hunter above.

Virginia Hunter married 3 May 1852 (bond) Henry N. Garnell [TennMar].

Martha Ann Hunter married 27 Mar 1850 (bond 12 Jan 1850) W. T. Harris [TennMar].

Thomas Hunter. 1820 census. 1850 census.

Catharine Hunter. 1840 census.

Mary Hunter. 1840 census.

Samuel R. Hunter. 1840 census.

Polly Hunter. 1850 census.

Alice Hunter, age 19. 1850 census with Joseph McGlothlin.

James Hunter, age 12. 1850 census with Thopson Brooks. Thompson Brooks married 14 Jan 1847 Mahala Hunter [Sumner Marriages 1839-1875].

Jane Hunter, age 16. 1850 census with Thopson Brooks.

John Hunter, age 6. 1850 census with Thopson Brooks.

John O. Hunter, age 28. 1850 census with John S. Major.

L. J. Hunter, age 22. 1850 census with Peter Black.

Layton Hunter, age 8. 1850 census with Thopson Brooks.

Mary Hunter, age 35. 1850 census with Thopson Brooks.

Nancy Hunter, age 18. 1850 census with Thopson Brooks.

Willis Hunter, age 6/12. 1850 census with Thopson Brooks.

Note: The names of Hunters who lived with Thopson Brooks are not familiar names in the descendants of Reuben Hunter of Wake County. although the name Willis Hunter appears in Sumner County in 1840 with Needham Hunter. Note that a Layton Hunter married 1828 in Sumner County, and another Layton Hunter was born ca 1842, perhaps in Montgomery County.

Hunters of Sumner County, Tennessee

Apparently four of the sons of Reuben Hunter of Wake County, NC, moved to Sumner County, Tennessee, in the early 1800s, and a fifth, Reuben, Jr., moved to Lincoln County, Tennessee, about the same time. A Josiah Hunter lived and married in Sumner County in 1792, but no relationship is known between him and the sons of Reuben Hunter. In the following list of names, some are not common in the family of Reuben Hunter, and those persons may be descendants of Josiah Hunter. Those persons are Burrell or Burnell, Calvin, Layton, Lemuel S., and Seaton H. Hunter.

In 1840, the following Hunters lived adjacent to each other: Needham, age 60-70, John (perhaps s/o Dempsey), 30-40, Cato (Cader), 20-30, Willis, 20-30, and Calvin, 20-30. Separated from them by Silas Lovell and Wm Covington was Thomas Hunter, 40-50. Also in Sumner County were David Hunter, age 20-30, and William Hunter, age 20-30 [1840 census].

In 1837, James Madison Hunter, s/o Dempsey Hunter, seemingly led his father, brothers, and sisters to move to Arkansas. The emigrants included Dempsey, #131.36, William, #131.361, John, #131.363, Sherrod, #131.364, and James M., #131.365. See main genealogy.

131.33 Theophilus Hunter. See main genealogy.

131.34 Cader Hunter. See main genealogy.

131.36 Dempsey Hunter. See main genealogy.

131.37 Needham Hunter. See main genealogy.

Burrell Hunter married 20 Nov 1819 (bond) Betsey Brigance. Bondsman George S. Brigance [TennMar].

Calvin Hunter married 30 Nov 1827 (bond) Susanna Mayes. Bondsman John Hunter [TennMar]. In 1830 census. In the 1850 census. Calvin Hunter married 24 Sep 1846 Sarah Ann Mayes in Sumner County, TN [Mid Tenn Mar].

Isaac Hunter married 3 Nov 1827 (bond) Elizabeth Cook. Bondsmen Thomas Cook and Pollard W. McCarty [TennMar]. Isaac Hunter and Thomas Cook were bondsmen 3 Nov 1827 to Pollard W. McCarty [TennMar]. In 1830 census.

Josiah Hunter married 20 Aug 1792 (bond) Rachel Hannah. Bondsman Robert McCrory [TennMar].

Layton Hunter married 29 Sep 1828 (bond) Elizabeth Robison. Bondsman John Leek [TennMar]. In 1830 census.

Lemuel S. Hunter married 14 Jan 1821 Frances Cotton in Sumner County, Tennessee. Bondsman A. W. Reese [TennMar].

Reuben Hunter married 19 Aug 1819 (bond) Mahalia Brigance. Bondsman James B. Thornhill [TennMar]. In 1830 census. He was bondsman for Joel Brigance 19 Dec 1829.

Reuben Hunter married 23 Oct 1832 (bond) Lucinda Goff. Bondsman Robert Dorris [TennMar].

Seaton H. Hunter married 1 Jan 1823 (bond) Desha Payne [TennMar].

William Hunter married 8 Jul 1830 (bond) Sally Goff. Bondsman Porter Marcus [TennMar]. A William Hunter was bondsman 19 May 1819 for Joseph Irby [TennMar]. In 1830 census. In 1840 census.

Willis Hunter married 10 Dec 1827 (bond and marriage) Mary Yarborough. Bondsman John Hunter. In 1840 census.

Ann Hunter married 18 Jun 1838 (bond and marriage) Thomas S. Harden [TennMar].

Fanny Hunter married 4 Jan 1831 (bond and marriage) William King [TennMar].

Edy Hunter married 13 Jul 1833 (marriage) Tilman D. Lovell [TennMar].

Lucinda Hunter married 19 Sep 1825 (bond and marriage) Edward Moore [TennMar].

Nancy Hunter married 20 Nov 1838 (bond and marriage) Tilford Morris [TennMar].

Elizabeth Hunter married 25 Jul 1835 (bond) Henry Newman [TennMar]. Bondsman Nathan Hunter.

Adam Hunter. 1820 census.

Lewis Hunter. 1820 census.

Lydia Hunter. 1820 census. 1850 census.

John Hunter (probably #131-363, s/o Dempsey), b 1800-1810. 1830 census with 1 M 20-30 and 1 F 20-30. 1850 census (two John Hunters).

Andrew Hunter. 1850 census.

Artilla Hunter. 1850 census.

Elizabeth Hunter. 1850 census.

Henry Hunter. 1850 census.

James Hunter. 1850 census.

Nathan Hunter. Bondsman 25 Jul 1835 for Henry Newman [TennMar].
Nathaniel Hunter in 1850 census.

Thomas Hunter. 1850 census.

Riddick was tried for murder in the death of Sarah Edna Adeline Hunter and found not guilty. Thomas Twine was identified as Sarah Ann Hunter's guardian in a deed 19 Oct 1840 [Gates Deeds]. He was also the guardian of the sons of Isaac Hunter, Jr., #121.22, from about 1826 to 1831, but the relationship of Sarah Ann Hunter to them is not known. From her birthdate, she could have been the son of Thomas B. Hunter and Mary Eliza Riddick (married 5 Feb 1829). The will of Mary Goodman in 1847 refers to Isaac R. Hunter as grandson and Sarah Ann Hunter as great granddaughter. Norfleet identifies her as a niece of Isaac Riddick Hunter. Cross says she was a cousin of Willis F. Riddick's first wife, Sarah Edna Adeline Hunter. Her birthdate and the date of her marriage to Willis F. Riddick were given in the bible of Isaac Hunter, #125.1. She was an heir of Thomas R. Costen in 1840 [Gates Deeds 19 Oct 1840, #356], together with James Costen, Sr., George Costen, and George W. B. Satterfield and wife Mary Ann. It might be speculated that she was the granddaughter of Thomas R. Costen.
